Table 1 — Acts in force

Last updated: 27 June 2025

Red text where it appears in this electronic version represents text that has been inserted in the current calendar year of the Western Australian Legislation Information Tables was published.

Blue text where it appears in this electronic version has been inserted to show that there is an electronic copy of that particular Act or piece of subsidiary legislation in the Western Australian Legislation Database.

This Table lists WA Acts (both public and private) in force other than certain Acts such as Treasury Acts (Appropriation Acts, Loan Acts, Supply Acts, Treasurer's Advance Authorisation Acts), Reserves Acts and Road Closure Acts. Up to and including the 1991 edition of this index, separate tables of public general Acts and Private Acts were published.

This Table also lists Imperial Acts adopted in WA that are in force. Those Acts are separately listed in Table 2. Neither Table 1 nor Table 2 lists Imperial Acts of a general nature in force on 1 June 1829 which have effect in WA.

Amending Acts are not generally given separate entries but appear under those Acts that they amend. This applies even if an amending Act contains provisions in addition to those that amend the text of another Act. Such provisions will be printed as notes in more recent reprints of Acts.

This Table does not list an Act that is spent or that has been repealed or that has expired, even if the operation of some or all of its provisions is continued to some extent (e.g. for saving or transitional purposes). For information about that see Table 3.

The year and number of Acts are displayed in the following form. E.g. '1964/061' stands for Act No. 61 of 1964.
