s. 21

21. Trust may call for claims by notice

- (1) The Trust may call for claims against the Guarantee Fund, in respect of a practitioner, by notice in, or in accordance with, the prescribed form, published in a daily newspaper circulating throughout the State or in a newspaper circulating in the district where the practitioner to whom it relates has or has had his practice.

- (2) Where the Trust is satisfied that a professional defalcation to which a claim relates has in fact occurred, it may allow the claim, notwithstanding the absence of any prosecution or conviction, or that the evidence by which it is satisfied would be insufficient to sustain a conviction, in respect of the defalcation.
- (3) In allowing a claim pursuant to this section, the Trust may pay to the claimant, out of the Guarantee Fund, —
 - (a) the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the claimant in respect of the claim; and

23. Power of Trust to require delivery up of documents

24. Proceedings against Trust restrained

 - (a) the Trust has disallowed his claim, in whole or in part; and
 - (b) he has exhausted every other remedy that may be available to him, against the practitioner in respect of whom the claim arose or against such other persons as may be liable in respect of the loss suffered by the claimant, for the recovery (including any rights that he may have to follow assets and any money or property into which it may have been converted) of the money or property in respect of which the claim is made.

- (2) A person who has been refused leave by the Trust to bring a proceeding against it may apply to the Court, by way of originating summons, for an order enabling him to bring such a proceeding and the Court may, as it thinks fit, grant the application, either subject to conditions or unconditionally, or may dismiss the application.

25. Proceedings to establish claims

- (1) Where, in any proceedings brought to establish a claim against the Trust, in respect of the Guarantee Fund, the Court is satisfied that the professional defalcation to which the claim relates in fact occurred and that the claimant has a valid claim, it shall, by order —
- (a) declare the occurrence, and the date of the occurrence, of the professional defalcation and the amount of the pecuniary loss thereby sustained by the claimant;

- (3) In any proceeding brought under this section, evidence of an admission or confession by, or other evidence that would be admissible against, a person alleged to be guilty of professional defalcation is admissible to prove the occurrence of professional defalcation, notwithstanding that the person is not a defendant in, or a party to, the proceeding; and every defence that would be available to that person, if he were a defendant in, or a party to, the proceeding, is available to the Trust.

- (4) The provisions of section 22(2) apply mutatis mutandis to the Court.

[Section 25 amended by No. 10 of 1972 s.3.]

26. Apportionment of Guarantee Fund in satisfaction of claims

- (1) The Guarantee Fund is the only property of the Trust to be applied in satisfaction of a claim allowed or directed to be dealt with under this Part.
- (2) Where, at any time, the amount by which the Guarantee Fund is in credit is insufficient to satisfy all claims then allowed or directed to be dealt with under this Part, that amount shall be apportioned between the claimants in such manner as the Trust, having regard to the provisions of subsection (4), thinks equitable; and the payment of the claims in accordance with this subsection has the effect of discharging them, absolutely.
- (3) Where the sum of all claims received in respect of any one practitioner and allowed or directed to be dealt with under this Part exceeds the maximum amount then payable under a determination made pursuant to section 18(2), the maximum amount shall be apportioned among the claimants in such manner as the Trust, having regard to the provisions of subsection (4), thinks equitable; and the payment of the claims in accordance with this subsection has the effect of discharging them absolutely and of barring any other claims that might otherwise have been made in respect of that practitioner during the period to which the maximum amount applies.
- (4) In apportioning amounts pursuant to subsection (2) or (3), the Trust shall —
- (a) take into consideration the relative degrees of hardship suffered or likely to be suffered by the several claimants, in the event of their claims not being wholly or partly satisfied; and

s. 26A

- (b) subject to paragraph (a), satisfy, in full, claims not exceeding an amount of $600, before satisfying any claims exceeding that amount by any payment in excess of it.
- (5) Without limiting the operation of subsections (2) and (3), the Trust may, with the approval of the Minister at any time after an apportionment has been made under those subsections, make a further payment or further payments to a claimant whose claim was not satisfied by payment in full or make a payment to a person whose claim is barred; but a payment made pursuant to this subsection does not have the effect of reviving or reinstating a claim against the Trust or of nullifying the absolute discharge or the exclusion of a claim.

26A. Interim payment of claims

- (1) Where it appears to the Trust, taking into consideration all relevant claims that have been made against the Guarantee Fund, that an apportionment pursuant to section 26(2) or (3) will or may be necessary, the Trust may if it thinks fit, at any time before such an apportionment is made or is found to be unnecessary, as the case may be, make an interim payment or interim payments to any claimant whose claim has been allowed or directed to be dealt with under this Part.
- (2) An interim payment made pursuant to subsection (1) discharges the claim in respect of which it is made to the extent of the amount so paid but does not have the effect of discharging the balance of that claim or of barring any other claim.

[Section 26A inserted by No. 10 of 1972 s.4.]

27. Trust subrogated to claimants to extent of payments made by it

Where the Trust has made a payment in respect of a claim, it is, to the extent of the payment, subrogated to all or any of the rights and remedies of the claimant against the person in respect of whom the claim arose or against the personal representative of, or a person administering the estate of, the person in respect of whom the claim arose.

28. Practitioners may claim in certain cases

- (1) Where all the claims of persons suffering pecuniary loss by reason of professional defalcation involving a partnership are fully satisfied and a person who is, or was at the time of the defalcation, a member of the partnership has made payment to a person as compensation for pecuniary loss suffered by reason of the defalcation, then, if the Trust is satisfied that the person was in no way privy to the defalcation and has acted honestly and, in all the circumstances of the case, reasonably, the Trust may accept from the person a claim for the amount of the payment so made and deal with it, as though it were that of a person who has suffered pecuniary loss by reason of professional defalcation.
- (2) A person aggrieved by a refusal of the Trust to accept and deal with a claim pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.

[Section 28 amended by No. 65 of 2003 s. 84; No. 55 of 2004 s. 602.]

29. Trust may insure Guarantee Fund

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Trust may, from time to time, effect a policy or policies of insurance for the purpose of indemnifying the Guarantee Fund against loss in satisfying claims pursuant to this Part; and such a policy may relate to claims in respect of practitioners, generally, or to claims against a practitioner named in the policy, only.
- (2) An action shall not lie against the Trust or a member or servant of the Trust, by reason only of the publication, in good faith, of the fact that a policy has been effected by the Trust relating to claims against a practitioner named in the policy, only.

s. 30

- (3) A person has no right of action against an insurer with whom or with which the Trust effects a policy of insurance, under this section, or any claim against moneys paid to the Trust by such an insurer, by reason only that the person has a claim against the Guarantee Fund.

[(4) repealed]

[Section 29 amended by No. 38 of 2000 s.5.]

30. Insurance moneys to be paid to Guarantee Fund

The Trust shall pay to the Guarantee Fund all moneys recovered by it under a policy of insurance effected pursuant to section 29.

31. Trust may instigate investigations

- (1) Where the Trust has reasonable grounds for believing that a practitioner holds, or has held, moneys or securities belonging to, or for or on behalf of, another person and has failed to account to that person in respect of them or any of them, the Trust may require the Board to make such investigation and take such action as the Board may think appropriate; and the costs and expenses of any investigation made or action taken by the Board may be paid out of the Guarantee Fund.
- (2) An action shall not lie against the Trust or any member or servant of the Trust by reason only of any action taken, in good faith, under the provisions of subsection (1).

32. Reports to be copied to Board and Society

The requirement imposed on the Trust by section 69 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 to submit an annual report to the Minister in respect of the Guarantee Fund shall be taken to impose also a similar requirement to submit within the same period a copy of each such report to the Board and the Society.

[Section 32 inserted by No. 98 of 1985 Schedule 1.]

[Part V repealed by No. 136 of 1976 s.6.]

- (2) Where an offence is committed by a person by reason of his failure to comply with a provision of this Act by or under which he is required or directed to do anything within a particular period, that offence is, for the purposes of subsection (1), deemed to continue so long as the thing so required or directed to be done by him remains undone, notwithstanding that the period provided has elapsed.
