

6. Matters to be dealt without preliminary hearing

- (1) At the preliminary hearing the Tribunal shall determine whether any complaint shall be dealt with as a representative complaint.
- (2) At the preliminary hearing the Tribunal shall consider any application that it exercise its powers under section 109 to join further parties to the inquiry.
- (3) Any person joined as a party to an inquiry shall file within such time as may be directed by the Tribunal a Notice of Address for Service and the registrar shall deal with that Notice in accordance with regulation 5(3).