

34. Address for service

- (1) The address of a place for service in the proceedings must be an address within this State at which documents may, during ordinary business hours —
 - (a) be left for the person whose address for service it is; and
 - (b) to which documents may be posted to that person.
- (2) If a person is represented by a legal practitioner, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that legal practitioner or of the legal practitioner's agent located within this State.
- (3) If a person is represented by an agent, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that agent located within this State.
- (4) A public sector body may by written notice —
 - (a) give the executive officer a facsimile number or an address for service by email; or
 - (b) change or withdraw that number or address for service.
- (5) The executive officer is to keep in a register an accurate record of a facsimile number or an email address of a public sector body.