

28. Issue of debentures in exchange for other debentures

Upon application in a form approved by the Board, debentures may if the Board accedes to such application be surrendered at the office in exchange for other debentures of a like amount, of the same currency and bearing the same rate of interest.