

12. Correction of mistake in stock ledger

Upon receipt of a request in writing from a stockholder to correct a mistake in the stock ledger, the Registrar may amend the stock ledger if he is satisfied that any stock has been inscribed incorrectly owing to a mistake in any document. If the Registrar so requires, the stock holder shall furnish a statutory declaration of the circumstances to support the request to amend the mistake.