

41. Conditions on access may be imposed

- (1) A registrar or magistrate granting a request referred to in rule 37 or an application referred to in rule 39 may impose any conditions on the applicant's access to the record as is just.
- (2) Without limiting subrule (1), conditions may be imposed —
  - (a) to prevent the record from being damaged, interfered with or lost;
  - (b) to prevent the improper use or publication of the record or any information in it.
