

15. Response to request for information may be tendered as evidence

At any inquiry a party may tender as evidence all or some of the answers given in response to a Request for Information. The President may look at the whole of the answers if part only is sought to be tendered and if of the view that it is misleading to tender only part of the answers the President may reject the tender unless any further answers are tendered as directed.