

51. Places for movement of passengers and cargo

- (1) The Master of a vessel must ensure that cargo is not loaded or discharged or passengers embarked or disembarked except at places directed or agreed by the Marine Manager.
- (2) All cargo awaiting loading or which has been discharged must be stacked or stored as directed or approved by the Marine Manager.
- (3) A Master who contravenes this by-law commits an offence.