

4. Resignation of committee members

A committee member may resign from membership of the committee by giving the CEO or the committee's presiding member written notice of the resignation.