

55. Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —

“oil vessel” means any vessel having on board, or having lately had on board any flammable liquid as bulk cargo or part cargo;

“flammable liquid” means petroleum or any other liquid whatsoever, having a true flash point of less than 61^oC at normal atmospheric pressure.