

7. Homes

Any person who is told (by principal occupant or by the person then in charge thereof) to leave the house of another and who refuses to leave as directed commits an offence.