

32. Pre-paid post: how effected

- (1) If a document is required to or may be given by pre-paid post, it is given by sending a copy of the document by pre-paid post addressed to the person to be served at —
 - (a) the address for service in the proceedings of that person;
 - (b) the address of that person's legal practitioner, litigation guardian, guardian ad litem or agent; or
 - (c) if, at the time when the copy is to be posted, the person has no address for service in the proceedings, the person's usual or last known place of business or residence.
- (2) A document given by pre-paid post is to be taken to have been given to a person 2 business days after the day on which the document was posted.