

21. Powers of police

- (1) Where any person has committed or is committing an offence against a by-law and it appears likely that injury to persons or damage to property will be caused by that person, a member of the Police Force may apprehend and remove that person from community land for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours and in any event that person shall be returned to community land if a Court is convened to deal with him according to law.
- (2) A member of the Police Force may request the name and address of any person who he believes on reasonable grounds to have committed a breach of any of these by-laws.
- (3) Any person who when called upon to give their name and address under this by-law fails to give their name and address commits an offence.
- (4) A member of the Police Force may commence proceedings for any breach of a by-law.
