

15. Amendment of grounds or reasons for application or response

- (1) A person who has made an application to the Tribunal or filed a response may apply in an approved form to the Tribunal to amend the grounds or reasons specified in the application or response.
- (2) The Tribunal may, at any time before making a final decision, grant the application referred to in subrule (1).