

119. Boundary marks to be pointed out

- (1) When a mining survey is to be carried out, the applicant for or the holder of the tenement concerned who does not make himself or his agent available at a reasonable time in order to point out to the approved surveyor carrying out the mining survey his corner posts and other boundary marks commits an offence.
- (2) Subregulation (1) does not apply where the application giving rise to the mining survey is lodged on or after 1 July 1991.

[Regulation 119 inserted in Gazette 30 May 1986 p. 1840; amended in Gazette 21 Jun 1991 p. 3056.]
