

14. Obligations of a supervisor before a person is searched

- (1) Before ordering a person to be searched under section 90 of the Act, a supervisor must —
 - (a) inform the person of the provisions of section 90;
 - (b) ask the person whether there is anything in the person's possession or under the person's control that may jeopardise the security or good order of the centre or the safety of persons in it and to produce any such thing;
 - (c) give the person an opportunity to respond; and
 - (d) make a record of any response by the person.
- (2) The supervisor may arrange for a registered medical practitioner to be present during the search of a person.
