

12. Further information from approval holders

The Commission may, at any time, require the holder of an approval to give the Commission any additional information within the holder's knowledge or control that is relevant to determining whether the holder is of good character and of good financial standing.