

14. Vessel to have sufficient ballast

Notwithstanding anything contained in any other by-law, the master of a vessel occupying any berth or at anchor shall have on board at all times such quantity of cargo or ballast as may be necessary —

- (a) to keep the vessel safe; and
- (b) to prevent damage or injury to all berth installations.