

23. Committees of the Board

- (1) The Board may establish committees consisting of, or including, persons who are not members of the Board, to assist it in the performance of its functions.
- (2) Subject to the directions of the Board, a committee may determine its own procedures.