

84I. Full Bench may take steps to give effect to orders

- (1) Upon making an order under section 84G(1) or (2) the Full Bench is empowered by this section to do all things that are necessary to give effect to the order including —
- (a) cancelling or varying the rules of the affected organizations;
 - (b) varying any relevant award, industrial agreement or order; and
 - (c) dismissing any pending proceedings which, in the opinion of the Full Bench, are proceedings that, as a consequence of the order, should be taken by an organization substituted as a party to an award or industrial agreement.
- (2) In subsection (1) —
- “pending proceedings” means any application or claim commenced under this Act by the organization before an order was made under subsection (1) in respect of that organization.
