

13. Proceedings of Board

The Board shall conduct its proceedings in such manner as may be prescribed and until prescribed, as the Board determines, but in any case — each member including the person presiding at a meeting is entitled to one vote only on the determination of any question;

5 members constitute a quorum for the conduct of business;

the majority of the votes of the members present determines all questions, but if the votes in favour equal votes against the motion, the motion shall be deemed lost.

[Section 13 amended by No. 35 of 1978 s.9; No. 75 of 1987 s.16.]