

33. Duty to act in accordance with policy instruments

A port authority is to perform its functions in accordance with its strategic development plan and its statement of corporate intent as existing from time to time.