

11. Conflict of duties

- (1) If a person is both a public service officer and a director —
  - (a) the person’s duties as a director are to prevail if a conflict arises between those duties and the person’s other duties as a public service officer; and
  - (b) the person does not have any immunity of the Crown in respect of the duties and liabilities imposed on directors by this Act.
- (2) In this section —

“public service officer” means a person who is employed in the Public Service under Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994.
