

5. Members

The persons who were immediately before the commencement of this Act members of the Western Australian Trotting Association (Incorporated) shall become and may remain members of the Association upon the commencement of this Act, provided such person is not a bookmaker.