

73. Restriction on subsequent employment in departments or organizations

Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, a person who —

- (a) immediately before his or her employment as a ministerial officer, was not employed in a department or organization; or
- (b) is engaged under a contract for services under section 100 (1) to assist a political office holder, is not, while he or she remains employed as a ministerial officer or so engaged under a contract for services, eligible to apply for, or to be appointed to, any office, post or position in any department or organization.
