

23. Registration not to confer certain rights

Registration under this Act shall not confer upon the person registered any right or authority —

- (a) to practise surgery or obstetrics, or to prescribe, compound, dispense or administer drugs or to administer anaesthetics; or
- (b) to assume or use any name, title or designation implying that he is qualified to practise, or is by law recognised, as a medical practitioner or pharmaceutical chemist.