

131. Miscellaneous offences

- (1) A person who hinders the operation of this Act commits an offence.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (2) A person hinders the operation of this Act if the person —
 - (a) obstructs, impedes or interferes with the doing of, a thing required or authorized to be done by or under this Act; or
 - (b) uses any threatening language to —
 - (i) the CEO or a member of staff of a port authority; or
 - (ii) the harbour master of a port, who is acting in the performance of functions under this Act.