

47. College employees

A college is to employ such persons as the governing council considers necessary to enable the functions of the college and the governing council to be performed.