

Standard Time Act 1895

An Act to establish a standard of time in Western Australia.

Preamble

Whereas it is expedient to establish a standard of time in Western Australia, and to declare the mean time of the 120th meridian of longitude East of Greenwich, in England, to be such standard time throughout Western Australia: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows (that is to say): —
