[Sections 20, 26 and 40]

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE BOARD, THE COUNCIL AND GOVERNING COUNCILS

1. Vacation of office

- (1) The office of a member becomes vacant if —
  - (a) the term of the member expires;
  - (b) the member resigns by written notice addressed to the Minister;
  - (c) the member is an undischarged bankrupt or a person whose property is subject to an arrangement under the laws relating to bankruptcy;
  - (d) the member is convicted of an indictable offence; or
  - (e) the appointment of the member is terminated under subclause (2).
- (2) The Minister may at his or her discretion terminate the appointment of a member at any time.

2. Leave of absence

The Minister may grant leave of absence to a member on such terms and conditions as the Minister determines.

3. Meetings

- (1) The chairperson is to preside at any meeting at which the chairperson is present.
- (2) If the chairperson, and in the case of a governing council the deputy chairperson, is not present at a meeting the members present are to elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.
- (3) A quorum for a meeting is at least one half of the number of members or if a quorum cannot be present at a meeting because of the operation of clause 5, a quorum for that meeting is such number of members as the Minister may determine.
- (4) Any question arising at a meeting is to be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and in the event of an equality of votes the chairperson, or the person presiding, is to have a casting as well as a deliberative vote.

4. Disclosure of interests

- (1) A member who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the body of which he or she is a member must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature of the interest at a meeting of the body.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (2) The circumstances in which a person has a material personal interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by a body include a case where an entity with which the member is associated may benefit from the body's decision on the matter.
- (3) A disclosure under subclause (1) is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

5. Voting by interested members

A member who has a material personal interest in a matter, within the meaning in clause 4, that is being considered by the body of which he or she is a member —

- (a) must not vote whether at a meeting or otherwise —
    - (i) on the matter; or
    - (ii) on a proposed resolution under clause 6 in respect of the matter, whether relating to that member or a different member;
- and
- (b) must not be present while —
    - (i) the matter; or
    - (ii) a proposed resolution of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) (ii),
- is being considered at a meeting.

6. Clause 5 may be declared inapplicable

Clause 5 does not apply if the body has at any time passed a resolution that —

- (a) specifies the member, the interest and the matter; and
- (b) states that the members voting for the resolution are satisfied that the interest should not disqualify the member from considering or voting on the matter.

Schedule 4

TRANSITIONAL

[Section 72]

1. Interpretation

In this Schedule —

“asset” means real or personal property of any kind including a chose in action and a present, future or contingent right, privilege, interest or power;

“the College” means the College of Customised Training established under the Colleges Act 1978;

“document” includes any disc, tape, or other device or medium in which information is stored.

2. Continuation of accreditation and registration

- (1) On the commencement of this clause any course of instruction or training which, immediately before that commencement was —
- (a) provided by a college under the Colleges Act 1978 or a technical school or technical college under the Education Act 1928; or
  - (b) an accredited skills formation under the State Employment and Skills Development Authority Act 1990, is to be taken to be accredited under this Act.

- (2) Subject to clause 5, on the commencement of this clause a college or a technical school or technical college which, immediately before that commencement was operating under the Colleges Act 1978 or the Education Act 1928 is to be taken to be a registered training provider under this Act.

3. Property to become vested in Minister

- (1) On the commencement of this clause all land and all other assets which were, immediately before that commencement —
- (a) vested in the State Employment and Skills Development Authority established under the State Employment and Skills Development Authority Act 1990;
  - (b) vested in the Minister for Education under the Education Act 1928 solely for the purposes of a technical school or technical college under that Act; or
  - (c) vested in a college established, or preserved and continued in existence, under the Colleges Act 1978, become vested in the Minister to be used for the purposes of the State training system.

- (2) On the commencement of this clause all obligations and liabilities of the Authority, the Minister or a school or college referred to in subsection (1) become obligations and liabilities of the Minister.
- (3) Where immediately before the commencement of this clause the Land Act 1933 applied to and in relation to land that vests in the Minister under this clause, that Act continues to apply to the land after the commencement as if the vesting had occurred under section 33 (2) of that Act.

4. Colleges and technical colleges

- (1) On the commencement of this clause —
  - (a) subject to clause 5, all colleges which were established, or continued in existence under the Colleges Act 1978; and
  - (b) all technical schools and technical colleges which were established or deemed to have been established under the Education Act 1928,and which were operating immediately before that commencement, are to be taken to be colleges established under this Act.
- (2) Until a governing council or interim governing council of a college referred to in subclause (1) (a) is established under this Act, the Council of that college immediately before the commencement of this clause is to be taken to be an interim governing council.
- (3) Until a notice is published under section 41 (3), the powers exercisable by the Council of a college referred to in subclause (1) (a) immediately before the commencement of this clause are to be taken to be powers specified in a notice under that subsection.
- (4) Until a governing council or interim governing council of a college referred to in subclause (1) (b) is established under this Act, the Minister is to be taken to be the interim governing council of that college and may exercise all or any of the powers of a governing council in relation to that college.

5. College of Customised Training

- On the commencement of this clause —
- (a) the College is not to be taken to be a college or a training provider under this Act and ceases, for all purposes, to exist;
  - (b) the members of the Interim Council of the College cease to hold office;

- (c) all assets that were, immediately before that commencement vested in, under the control of, or standing to the credit of, the College together with all claims, rights and remedies that the College then had in respect of those assets, become vested in the Minister;
- (d) all obligations and liabilities of the College that existed immediately before that commencement, become obligations and liabilities of the Minister;
- (e) any agreement to which the College was a party (other than one to which the Minister was the other party) has effect as though the Minister was substituted for the college as a party to the agreement; and
- (f) the Minister becomes the owner of all the documents which, immediately before that commencement, belonged to the College.

6. Managing directors

- (1) The person who, immediately before the commencement of this clause was employed as the director of a college referred to in clause 4 (1) (a) becomes the managing director of that college on the same terms and conditions under which he or she was so employed.
- (2) On the commencement of this clause the managing director of a technical college referred to in clause 4 (1) (b) becomes the managing director of the relevant college under this Act and is to be taken to have been appointed in the manner referred to in section 46, on the day he or she was appointed managing director of the college referred to in that clause.

7. Other staff

On the commencement of this clause all persons who immediately before that commencement were members of the staff of a college under the Colleges Act 1978 or a technical college under the Education Act 1928 become employees of the relevant college under this Act and —

- (a) all such persons retain all their existing and accruing rights in relation to that employment and in particular in relation to sick leave, long service leave, retirement and superannuation; and
- (b) any period of employment under either of those Acts is to be regarded as a period of employment by the relevant college under this Act.

8. Student associations

- (1) On the commencement of this clause, a student association established under section 44 of the Colleges Act 1978 in a college and existing immediately before that commencement is dissolved and —
  - (a) all assets and rights of the association become assets and rights of the college without the need for any transfer;
  - (b) all liabilities of the association, including contingent liabilities, become liabilities of the college;
  - (c) any agreement or instrument to which the association was a party or which contains a reference to the association has effect as if the college were substituted for the association;
  - (d) all proceedings commenced by or against the association are to be taken to be proceedings by or against the college;
  - (e) anything done or omitted to be done in relation to the assets, rights and liabilities referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) before the dissolution by, to or in respect of the association (to the extent that that thing has any force or effect) is to be taken to have been done by, to or in respect of the college; and
  - (f) the college becomes the owner of all the association's registers, documents, books and other records, however compiled, recorded or stored and of any tape, disc or other device or medium relating to such records.
- (2) The governing council of the college is to wind up the operations and affairs of the dissolved association as soon as is practicable after the dissolution and for that purpose the governing council may exercise any powers that are necessary.
- (3) The college is to use the proceeds of the winding up for the benefit of students of the college in such manner as it determines.
