

22. Commissioner to act independently

The Commissioner shall act independently in relation to the performance of his or her functions.