

3. Capitalisation or payment of surplus income

The surplus income arising from the special fund remaining in the hands of the Trustees in any year after payment to the Church of England clergyman for the time being stationed at York of the sum of Twenty pounds may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be capitalised or paid to the Church of England clergyman for the time being stationed at York.