

8. Fraudulent behaviour in relation to prohibited drugs

- (1) A person who forges or fraudulently alters, or utters knowing it to be forged or fraudulently altered, a prescription or order for a prohibited drug commits a simple offence.
- (2) A person who by any false representation, whether oral or in writing or otherwise, causes or induces —
  - (a) a person licensed under the Poisons Act 1964 to manufacture, sell or supply any prohibited drug; or
  - (b) a medical practitioner or dentist,to administer or supply to him by injection or otherwise a prohibited drug commits a simple offence.