

17. Conditions which may be imposed

- (1) A judicial officer or authorised officer may impose conditions on a grant of bail only to the extent that he is authorised to do so by clause 2(3)(c) of Part C and Part D of Schedule 1.
- (2) Conditions imposed on a grant of bail shall not be any more onerous on the defendant than the judicial officer or authorised officer considers is required in the public interest having regard to the nature of the offence for which the defendant is in custody and the circumstances of the defendant.
