

42. Rights of interested persons

A coroner may make available any statements that the coroner intends to consider to any person with a sufficient interest.