IMPERIAL ACTS OF PARLIAMENT ADOPTED AND UNREPEALED

NOTE.—With the exception of those relating to Usury, all Imperial Statutes of a general nature in force in England on 1st June, 1829 (10 Geo. IV.), prevail here to the extent to which they are applicable.

Since that date many Imperial Statutes have been followed word by word, and enacted by the Colonial Legislature, while others have been made applicable either wholly or in part. The subjoined table deals with none of these, but is an attempt to give a complete list of such Imperial Statutes as have been from time to time adopted by mere reference.

The practice and procedure of the Supreme Court are governed by the Rules framed in 1888, under the provisions of 24 Vic., No. 15, sec. 31. Where no rule applies, the Imperial practice is followed.
