Part 8 — Transitional provisions

71. Definitions

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —

“principal Act” means the Rights in Water and Irrigation Act 1914.

72. Interpretation Act 1984 not affected

The provisions of this Part do not affect the application of the Interpretation Act 1984, so far as it is consistent with those provisions, to the amendments made by this Act.

73. Appeals in progress

(1) If —

(a) before —

(i) the commencement of section 56 of this Act notice has been given to the Minister under section 14(1) of the principal Act;

- (ii) the commencement of section 58 of this Act notice has been given to the Minister under section 23(1) of the principal Act; or
- (iii) the commencement of section 61 of this Act notice has been given to the Minister under section 26D(4) of the principal Act;

but

- (b) the steps and procedures under section 14(2), 23(2) or 26D(5) of the principal Act, as the case may be, have not been completed, the notice does not lapse on that commencement but the relevant repealed provision mentioned in paragraph (b) continues to have effect in respect of the notice as if the repeal had not occurred.

- (2) After the commencement of this Act but before regulations under Schedule 2 of the Principal Act regarding a panel of names from which a tribunal is to be appointed are made, an appeal to which that Schedule applies —
  - (a) if the appellant so agrees, is to be heard and determined as if clause 5(1)(a)(i) of that Schedule were deleted; or

74. Applications made for licences to take water

but that was not before the relevant commencement finally disposed of by the grant or refusal of a licence or withdrawn.

- (2) An application to which this clause applies is to continue to be governed by the principal Act, including section 14, as if this Act had not been enacted.
- (3) However, if a licence is granted on the application —
  - (a) it is to be treated after the grant as if it were a licence under section 5C of the principal Act; and
  - (b) after the grant, the provisions of the principal Act apply to it in the same way as they apply to a licence under section 5C granted under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

75. Applications made for licences in respect of wells

- (1) This clause applies to an application for a licence under section 26D of the principal Act that —

  - (b) was not before that commencement finally disposed of by the grant or refusal of a licence or withdrawn.
- (2) An application to which this clause applies is to continue to be governed by the principal Act, including section 26D(4) and (5), as if this Act had not been enacted.
