6. Transitional provisions

- (1) Any stock that was, prior to the coming into operation of this Act, duly branded with a brand registered under the repealed Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be duly branded in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Where a person was, immediately prior to the coming into operation of this Act, the registered owner of a brand registered under the repealed Act —
 - (a) that brand shall be regarded, for the purposes of this Act, as a registered brand; and
 - (b) that person shall be regarded, for the purposes of this Act, as the registered owner of that brand.
- (3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) apply, with such modifications and adaptations as are necessary, to earmarks registered under the repealed Act.

6A. Application

If a provision of this Act refers to a proprietor of stock, and the stock referred to are expressed in the plural, the provision is to be taken as also applying to a proprietor of only one of those stock.

[Section 6A inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 6.]

Part II — Brands

7. One brand and one earmark to be allotted for each run

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), but despite any other provision of this Act, a proprietor of stock on a run shall be allotted only one registered brand or one registered earmark, or one registered brand and one registered earmark, as the case requires, for the stock on that run.
- (2) A proprietor of swine on a run shall be allotted a registered brand for swine whether or not the proprietor has been allotted a registered brand in respect of other stock on that run.
- (3) If a proprietor of stock owns stock on 2 or more runs, the proprietor may be allotted a registered brand or a registered earmark, or a registered brand and a registered earmark, as each case requires, in respect of each of those runs.

[Section 7 inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 7.]

8. Use of brands and earmarks

- (1) Every proprietor of stock possessing a registered brand shall use that registered brand for all of his stock on which the use of that brand is permitted or required pursuant to this Act.
- (2) Subject to subsection (2a), every proprietor of stock possessing a registered earmark shall use that registered earmark for all of his stock on which the use of that registered earmark is permitted or required pursuant to this Act.
- (2a) Subsection (2) does not require a proprietor of goats or camelids possessing a registered earmark to use that registered earmark on any of those goats, or camelids, that have been branded with the proprietor's registered brand.

- (3) In connection with the control of stock diseases or the conduct of research programmes, the Registrar may —
- (a) register brands and earmarks to be used by prescribed persons, whether or not the proprietors of stock, in prescribed circumstances; or
 - (b) by notice in the Gazette, exempt specified stock, or the stock of a specified proprietor, from the branding and earmarking requirements of this Act —
 - (i) for a specified period; or
 - (ii) until the exemption is revoked by another notice in the Gazette.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires the proprietor of cattle, buffalo or deer to use both the proprietor's registered brand and registered earmark on the cattle, buffalo or deer.

[Section 8 amended by No. 65 of 1984 s. 6; No. 46 of 1994 s. 8.]

9. Brands and earmarks for sheep

- (1) Every proprietor of sheep on any run shall apply for, and obtain, a registered brand, and a registered earmark, for sheep.
- (2) Every brand registered under this Act for sheep shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral allotted by the Registrar and every earmark registered for sheep shall consist of a symbol or symbols allotted by the Registrar.
- (3) A registered brand for sheep shall be applied as —
- (a) a firebrand burnt on the horns of the sheep;
 - (b) a tattoo that is applied in the prescribed manner to the prescribed part of the body of the sheep;
 - (c) an eartag that is of such colour or colours, type and shape as the Registrar determines; or
 - (d) a woolbrand placed on the wool of a sheep,
- or in such other form as the Registrar approves.

s. 10

- (4) Where a sheep is branded by means of the application of a woolbrand, the proprietor shall at all times cause the sheep to be legibly so branded.

[Section 9 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 9.]

10. Brands, marks, and signs on wool of sheep to be made with approved fluid

- (1) Where any brand, mark or sign is placed on the wool of a sheep, it may be of any colour except black, but the fluid used to place the brand, mark or sign shall be of a type approved by the Registrar.
- (2) The Registrar shall not approve the use of any fluid pursuant to subsection (1) unless the fluid is of a type that complies with Australian Standard AS4054-1992.
- (3) A person who uses any fluid not approved by the Registrar for the purposes of placing a brand, mark or sign on the wool of a sheep, commits an offence.

[Section 10 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 10.]

11. Additional earmarking of sheep

The proprietor of any sheep who is also the breeder of the sheep may earmark the sheep in the prescribed manner to denote the year of the birth of the sheep.

12. Earmarking of sheep

For the purposes of this Act —

- (a) a registered earmark for sheep shall be made —
- (i) in the left or near ear of any female sheep;
 - (ii) in the right or off ear of any male sheep;
- and

- (b) any other earmark required or permitted to be made by this Act to sheep shall be made —
 - (i) in the right or off ear of any female sheep;
 - (ii) in the left or near ear of any male sheep.

13. Brands and earmarks for cattle

- (1) Every proprietor of cattle or buffalo, on any run, shall apply for, and obtain, a registered brand, or a registered earmark, for cattle or buffalo or both such a brand and earmark.
- (2) Every brand registered under this Act for cattle or buffalo shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral, as allotted by the Registrar, and every earmark registered for cattle or buffalo shall consist of a symbol or symbols allotted by the Registrar.
- (3) Subject to subsection (5), a registered brand for cattle or buffalo shall be applied as a firebrand or a freezebrand or in such other form as the Registrar approves.
- (4) A registered earmark for cattle or buffalo shall be applied to such ear as the Registrar approves.
- (5) A registered brand shall not be applied as a firebrand on the horn of cattle.

[Section 13 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 11.]

14. Brands for horses

- (1) Every proprietor of horses on any run shall apply for, and obtain, a registered brand for horses.
- (2) Every brand registered under this Act for horses shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral, as allotted by the Registrar.
- (3) A registered brand for horses shall be applied as a firebrand or a freezebrand or in such other form as the Registrar approves.

s. 15

15. Brands for swine

- (1) Every proprietor of swine shall apply for, and obtain, a registered brand for swine.

[(2)-(4) repealed]

- (5) Every brand registered under this Act for swine —
- (a) shall consist of 5 numerals in arabic figures as allotted by the Registrar;
 - (b) shall be arranged in the manner approved by the Registrar; and
 - (c) shall be applied as a tattoo.

[Section 15 amended by No. 42 of 1978 s. 4; No. 65 of 1984 s. 7; No. 46 of 1994 s. 12.]

15A. Brands and earmarks for goats

- (1) Every proprietor of goats on any run situated wholly or partly in any part of the State specified in section 30(1)(a) shall apply for, and obtain, a registered brand for goats and may, in addition, apply for, and obtain, a registered earmark for goats.
- (2) A proprietor of goats to which subsection (1) does not apply may apply for, and obtain, a registered brand, or a registered earmark, for goats or both such a brand and earmark.
- (3) Every brand registered under this Act for goats shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be applied as —
- (a) a firebrand burnt on the horns of the goat;
 - (b) a tattoo that is applied in the prescribed manner to an ear of the goat; or
 - (c) an eartag that is of such colour or colours, type and shape as the Registrar determines.
- (4) A registered earmark for goats shall consist of a symbol or symbols, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be applied —

(a) to the left ear of any female goat; and

(b) to the right ear of any male goat, and any other earmark required or permitted by this Act to be applied to goats shall be applied —

(c) to the right ear of any female goat; and

[Section 15A inserted by No. 65 of 1984 s. 8; amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 13.]

15B. Brands and earmarks for deer

(1) Every proprietor of deer on any run shall apply for and obtain a registered brand, or a registered earmark, for deer or both such a brand and earmark.

(2) A registered brand for deer shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be applied as a firebrand, a freezebrand, a tattoo to an ear or in such other form as the Registrar approves.

(3) A registered earmark for deer shall consist of a symbol or symbols, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be applied —

(a) if the deer has a registered brand applied as a tattoo to an ear, to the other ear; or

(b) to such ear as the Registrar approves.

[Section 15B inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 14.]

15C. Brands and earmarks for camelids

(1) Every proprietor of camelids on any run —

(a) shall apply for and obtain a registered brand for camelids; and

(b) may, in addition, apply for and obtain a registered earmark for camelids.

s. 16

- (2) A registered brand for camelids shall consist of an arrangement of 2 letters and a numeral, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be —
- (a) applied in the prescribed manner as a tattoo to an ear of the camelid; or
 - (b) impressed on an eartag that is of such colour or colours, type and shape as the Registrar approves.
- (3) A registered earmark for camelids shall consist of a symbol or symbols, as allotted by the Registrar, and shall be applied —
- (a) to the left ear of any female camelid; and
 - (b) to the right ear of any male camelid,
- and any other earmark required or permitted by this Act to be applied to camelids shall be applied —
- (c) to the right ear of any female camelid; and
 - (d) to the left ear of any male camelid.

[Section 15C inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 14.]

16. Private markings for goats, sheep and cattle

A proprietor of goats, sheep, cattle, buffalo, deer or camelids may, in addition to marking them with his registered brand and registered earmark —

- (a) in the case of sheep, cattle, buffalo or deer, mark them, either by means of a woolbrand, freezebrand or firebrand, with any numeral or numerals in arabic figures, or mark them with an age mark or cullmark for flock or herd reference or age purposes;
- (b) in the case of goats, sheep or camelids, place on the appropriate ear of the animal any other private reference mark, which shall not be registered; and

- (c) in the case of cattle or buffalo, the owner may place on the ear not allocated for the application of a registered earmark, the cullmark or age mark provided for in paragraph (a), and any mark made pursuant to this section shall be made in such a manner and in such a position as to render it clearly distinguishable from any registered brand or registered earmark.

[Section 16 amended by No. 65 of 1984 s. 9; No. 46 of 1994 s. 15.]

17. Legibility, size, and form of certain brands and earmarks

- (1) Every registered brand on cattle, buffalo, horses or deer shall —
 - (a) be clearly legible at all stages of the growth of the animal; and
 - (b) when the animal is fully grown, be not less than the prescribed minimum size for such a brand.
- (2) Every registered earmark on cattle, buffalo or deer shall —
 - (a) be clearly legible at all stages of growth of the animal; and
 - (b) when the animal is fully grown, measure not less, in any dimension, than the prescribed size for such an earmark.
- (3) Any registered earmark on a goat, sheep or camelid shall be of the prescribed size for such an earmark.
- (4) Any registered earmark applied to goats, sheep, cattle, buffalo, deer or camelids shall be made by means of a punch or pliers of a type approved by the Registrar.

[Section 17 amended by No. 75 of 1972 s. 3; No. 65 of 1984 s. 10; No. 46 of 1994 s. 16.]

18. Offences relating to branding and earmarking

- (1) A person shall not —
- (a) mark, imprint, or use upon stock —
 - (i) any registered brand or registered earmark of which he is not the owner; or
 - (ii) any brand or earmark that is not registered under this Act and is intended or likely to be, or capable of being, confused with or represented as being a registered brand or registered earmark;
 - (b) use upon stock or have in his possession or upon his run any branding iron, pliers, or any other instrument for branding or earmarking stock by which any brand or earmark, other than the brand or earmark of which he is the owner, or other than a cullmark or age mark, may be imprinted or marked upon stock;
 - (c) brand any stock with his registered brand or earmark any stock with his registered earmark except in the manner specified by or under this Act;
 - (d) remove any branding iron, pliers or other branding or earmarking instrument from the run for which it is registered; or
 - (e) remove any eartag, not his registered eartag, from the ear of any goat, sheep or camelid on a run, unless —
 - (i) any eartag so removed is destroyed within 14 days of removal; and
 - (ii) the registered eartag, if any, of the owner is inserted in place of the removed tag.
- (2) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this section commits an offence against this Act.

[Section 18 amended by No. 65 of 1984 s. 11; No. 46 of 1994 s. 17; No. 73 of 1994 s. 4; No. 57 of 1997 s. 114(1) and (2).]

Part III — Registration

19. Application

The provisions of this Part and Part IV relating to brands apply, with such modifications and adaptations as are necessary, to earmarks for goats, sheep, cattle, buffalo, deer and camelids.

[Section 19 amended by No. 65 of 1984 s. 12; No. 46 of 1994 s. 18.]

20. Registrar, deputy registrars, and the register

- (1) The Governor may from time to time —
 - (a) appoint a person to be the Registrar of brands for the purposes of this Act;
 - (b) appoint one or more persons to be deputy registrars of brands for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (c) revoke any appointment made under paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) Any deputy registrar shall be subject to the control and direction of the Registrar, but may, subject to any direction to the contrary from the Registrar, do any act or thing which by this Act the Registrar is required or permitted to do.
- (3) The Registrar shall keep a register, in the form and manner prescribed, of all brands registered under this Act.
- (4) If a person applies to the Registrar in the form approved by the Registrar, the Registrar shall provide to that person —
 - (a) any information in the register concerning any registered brand; or
 - (b) on payment of the fee prescribed for the type of copy or extract required, a copy of, or an extract from, the register.

[Section 20 amended by No. 42 of 1978 s. 5; No. 65 of 1984 s. 13; No. 46 of 1994 s. 19.]

s. 21

21. Applications for, and allocations of, brands

- (1) Any person requiring a brand shall deliver to the Registrar an application in the prescribed form, accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) Subject to this section, an applicant for a brand may insert in his application a list of combinations of any 2 letters and a numeral, any one of which he desires to have allotted to him, and the Registrar may allot to the applicant any of the combinations on the list that is at the time standing unallotted in the register, but if all the combinations contained in such list have been allotted, the Registrar may allot to the applicant the first unallotted brand standing in the register.
- (3) When any run is situated partly in Western Australia and partly in South Australia or the Northern Territory of Australia, the Registrar may, on such terms and conditions as he considers necessary, allow the use of any South Australian or Northern Territory brand, as the case requires, for that run, if the use of that brand is not likely, in his opinion to cause confusion or to mislead.
- (4) Subject to section 22, where the Registrar is satisfied that an application for a brand has been made in accordance with this Act, and has accordingly allotted a brand to the applicant in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section, the Registrar shall endorse on the application and record in the register particulars of that brand.

[Section 21 amended by No. 42 of 1978 s. 6; No. 46 of 1994 s. 20.]

22. Confusing or misleading brands

- (1) No brand shall be registered which, in the opinion of the Registrar, is likely to cause confusion or mislead.
- (2) Where 2 brands are registered which are, in the opinion of the Registrar, likely to cause confusion or to mislead, he may, after notice to the owners, cancel the registration of either or both brands.

- (3) No fee shall be charged in respect of the cancellation of a brand pursuant to this section or an application to register a new brand in place of the brand so cancelled.

23. Certificate of registration of brand

- (1) Upon the registration of any brand, the Registrar shall deliver to the applicant a certificate of the registration thereof, in the prescribed form.
- (2) If an application is made to the Registrar in the form approved by the Registrar —
- (a) by the person in whose name the original certificate was issued; and
 - (b) accompanied by the prescribed fee,

the Registrar shall issue to the person a duplicate certificate.

[Section 23 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 21.]

24. Expiry of registration of ownership of brands

The registration of the ownership of a brand under section 21, or the re-registration of the ownership of a brand under section 28(2), expires 5 years after the date of registration or re-registration, as the case may be, unless the registration or re-registration has been re-registered or cancelled before then.

[Section 24 inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 22.]

Part IV — Transfers and cancellations

25. Transfer of brands

- (1) Any owner of a registered brand who wishes to transfer the right to the registered brand to another person, and that other person, may make and sign a memorandum for the purpose in the prescribed form, and may deliver the memorandum to the Registrar together with the prescribed fee.
- (2) Upon receiving a memorandum duly made and signed under subsection (1) and the prescribed fee, the Registrar shall —
 - (a) cancel the original registration of the brand to which the memorandum relates; and
 - (b) register that brand in the name of the transferee,and thereupon such transferee shall be the owner of the registered brand for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) A person shall sign the memorandum referred to in subsection (1) in the presence of a justice who shall also sign the memorandum to attest that person's signature.

[Section 25 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 23.]

26. Ownership of brand exclusive

The owner for the time being of any brand shall be the only person entitled to use the same.

27. Evidence

The fact that any head of stock is branded with any registered brand shall be prima facie evidence that such head of stock belongs to the owner of the brand or to the owner of the waybill on which the registered brand is printed.

28. Cancellation

- (1) The Registrar may cancel the registration of the ownership of any brand if —
- (a) the owner applies in writing for the cancellation of the brand or notifies the Registrar in writing that he has no further use for the brand and does not require the use of any brand in its place;
 - (b) he serves on the owner notice that registration will be cancelled unless, within a period of 3 months next after service of the notice, the owner shows cause why the registration should not be cancelled to the Registrar, and, within that period, he receives a response to the notice claiming to show cause for reasons which the Registrar regards as not being satisfactory; or
 - (c) having served notice on the owner as provided in paragraph (b), and having received no response to the notice, the Registrar causes to be published in a newspaper circulating in the locality of the run or farm, shown in the register as that for which the brand is required to be used, a further notice that registration will be cancelled unless, within a period of 30 days next after the day of the appearance of the further notice in the newspaper, the owner shows cause why the registration should not be cancelled, and, during that period of 30 days, the Registrar —
 - (i) receives a response to the further notice claiming to show cause for reasons which the Registrar regards as not being satisfactory; or
 - (ii) does not receive any response at all to the further notice.
- (2) Re-registration of the ownership of brands may be applied for and effected in the prescribed manner and on payment of the prescribed fee for the brand (or brands) shown in the register as used by an owner on the owner's run (or runs).

s. 29

- (3) Subject to section 7(2), the Registrar shall not re-register the ownership of a brand that is used on a run to a person who is the owner of another registered brand that is, or other registered brands that are, used on that run.
- (4) When the registration of the ownership of a brand —
- (a) is cancelled under subsection (1); or
 - (b) expires under section 24, not having been re-registered under subsection (2), the brand is to be regarded as an unallotted brand until re-allotted under section 21.

[Section 28 amended by No. 46 of 1994 s. 24.]

29. Record of transfers and cancellations

The Registrar shall maintain a record of all transfers and cancellations of registered brands.

[Section 29 inserted by No. 42 of 1978 s. 8.]

Part V — Rules of branding

30. Branding or earmarking cattle and branding horses

- (1) Subject to this section, every proprietor shall brand each of his cattle, buffalo, horses and deer with his registered brand —
 - (a) if the run on which it is kept is situated in the South-West Division of the State as described in Schedule 1 to the Land Administration Act 1997 or in any part of the local government districts of Dundas, Esperance, Westonia, Merredin or Ravensthorpe outside that Division — before it attains the age of 6 months or is removed from the run, whichever first occurs;
 - (b) if the run on which it is kept is situated elsewhere in the State — before it attains the age of 18 months or is removed from the run, whichever first occurs.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires —
 - (a) a cattle calf under the age of 2 weeks to be branded or earmarked before it is removed from the run for the purpose of sale if, when it is so removed —
 - [(i) deleted]
 - (ii) the prescribed details of identification of the calf appear on an appropriate waybill;

or

 - (b) a cattle calf (other than a calf referred to in paragraph (a)), or a foal, under the age of 6 months to be branded or earmarked before it is removed from the run for the purpose of sale if, when it is so removed —
 - (i) it is accompanied by, and it is to be sold with, its mother; and
 - (ii) in the case of a calf, the prescribed details of identification appear on an appropriate waybill.

s. 31

- (3) It is sufficient compliance with subsection (1) in its application to cattle, buffalo or deer, if the animal is marked with a registered earmark within the appropriate time specified therein in relation to branding, in lieu of being branded with a registered brand.
- (4) The proprietor of any stud cattle or stud deer may, within such time specified in the foregoing provisions of this section for the branding or earmarking of cattle or deer as is appropriate to the particular case, mark the cattle or deer in the prescribed manner with his Breed Society mark, and thereupon no further branding or earmarking of the cattle or deer is required by this Act while the cattle or deer remain on the run or are removed from the run for the purpose of display at an agricultural show or the purpose of sale as registered stud cattle or stud deer.
- (5) The proprietor of any stud horse may, within such time as is specified in this section for the branding of horses, mark the horse in the prescribed manner with his Breed Society mark, and thereupon no further branding of the horse is required by this Act.

[Section 30 amended by No. 30 of 1979 s. 4; No. 57 of 1992 s. 2; No. 46 of 1994 s. 25; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 31 of 1997 s. 83(1); No. 57 of 1997 s. 114(3); No. 25 of 2000 s. 21.]

31. Earmarking and branding of sheep

- (1) Subject to subsections (4) and (6) every proprietor shall legibly earmark each of his sheep with the registered earmark before the sheep —
 - (a) is weaned;
 - (b) attains the age of 6 months; or
 - (c) is removed from the run,whichever first occurs.

- (2) Subject to subsections (4) and (6), every proprietor of sheep shall —
- (a) if the run on which the sheep are kept is situated in any part of the State specified in section 30(1)(a), brand each of his sheep with his registered brand —
 - (i) forthwith after the sheep is shorn for the first time; or
 - (ii) before the sheep is removed from the run, whichever first occurs; or
 - (b) if the run on which the sheep are kept is situated elsewhere in the State, brand each of his sheep with his registered brand before the sheep is removed from the run.

[(3) repealed]

- (2) Any drover or carrier who —
- (a) refuses on demand by a Police officer or stock Inspector to produce his waybill or the permit, a copy of the permit or a written statement, signed by the proprietor of the stock, of the number and date of issue of the permit for the stock under section 49, 49A or 49B; or
 - (b) refuses on demand to stop when ordered to do so by a Police officer or stock Inspector,
- commits an offence.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a drover or carrier does not commit an offence against this Act if he moves stock pursuant to a direction given by the proprietor or other person for the time being having the custody and control of stock prescribed for the purpose of this section, if the drover or carrier has in his possession and produces upon request made by a Police officer or stock Inspector a note in the form approved by the Director containing such entries as are required by the form.
- (4) Where a drover or carrier complies with a direction referred to in subsection (3) and delivers to the consignee of the stock moved pursuant to that direction a copy of the note referred to in subsection (3), the drover or carrier, as the case may be, is entitled to recover his charges for the movement of the stock.

[Section 50 amended by No. 75 of 1972 s. 9; No. 91 of 1984 s. 2; No. 46 of 1994 s. 33.]

Part IX — Miscellaneous

[51. Repealed by No. 42 of 1978 s. 9.]

52. Possession of stock not branded or earmarked as required

Any person who has in his possession or control any stock which is not branded or not earmarked, or not branded and not earmarked, as the case requires, in accordance with the requirements of this Act, commits an offence in respect of every head of such stock.

53. Brands and earmarks not to be altered or removed

- (1) A person who takes delivery of a consignment of stock shall not, within 6 months of so taking delivery, remove any registered brand that is upon the stock at the time of so taking delivery, but nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing a person from removing a registered brand in the form of a woolbrand from sheep in the ordinary course of shearing the sheep and branding the sheep after shearing with his registered brand or from re-branding with his registered brand any sheep on which the woolbrand had become illegible prior to the time of his taking delivery of the sheep.
- (2) A person shall not remove a registered eartag from any goat, sheep, deer or camelid that is on agistment away from the run of the owner of the animal, and where any eartag on such an animal is lost from the ear during agistment, only the tag of the lawful owner may be used in replacement of the lost eartag.

[Section 53 amended by No. 65 of 1984 s. 17; No. 46 of 1994 s. 34.]

53A. Marking of spayed bovine females

A person who is the proprietor of a spayed bovine female animal shall mark it or cause it to be marked in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

[Section 53A inserted by No. 42 of 1978 s. 10.]

53B. Marking of prescribed stock

A person who is the proprietor of stock prescribed for the purposes of this section may, and if required by regulation shall, cause it to be marked in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

[Section 53B inserted by No. 9 of 1980 s. 2.]

54. Offences relating to brands and marks

(1) Any person who —

[(b) deleted]

(c) removes a registered eartag, not his registered eartag, from the ear of any goat, sheep or camelid except as provided in section 18(1)(e);

(d) has in his possession the skin of any sheep from which the ears or portion of the ears have been removed, except where —

(i) the portion of the ear or the portions of ears, as the case may be, have been removed in the course of the lawful branding or earmarking of the sheep; or

(ii) the ear or ears have been removed from the skin immediately prior to the subjecting of the skin to a tanning process or to the export of the skin;

s. 55

- (e) has in his possession any skins of any sheep the ears of which have been cropped, cut, sliced or otherwise mutilated to which he cannot prove ownership;
- (f) marks any stock on the ear or wilfully mutilates, crops, slices or in any other manner cuts the ear of any stock, except as required or permitted by this Act; or
- (g) has in his possession any stock which has been branded or earmarked contrary to section 18(1)(a)(ii), commits an offence against this Act.

- (2) It is a defence to any charge under subsection (1)(d) if the accused proves that —
 - (a) the skins came into his possession in the course of his business as an agent or owner;
 - (b) he took all reasonable precautions to prevent the skins from coming into his possession; and
 - (c) on becoming aware that he had the skins in his possession, he promptly gave to a Police officer or an Inspector all information in his power relating to the person from whom, and the date and circumstances under which, the skins came into his possession.

[Section 54 amended by No. 75 of 1972 s. 10; No. 65 of 1984 s. 18; No. 46 of 1994 s. 35; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

55. Evidence of proprietorship

On the trial of any person charged with stealing any stock, it shall be competent for the Attorney General or other officer prosecuting on behalf of the Crown to prove that the brand or earmark, or both, appearing upon the animals alleged to have been stolen is the brand or earmark, or the brand and earmark, as the case may be, of the person stated in the information to be the proprietor or of some person through whom such alleged proprietor claims and such proof shall be prima facie evidence of proprietorship.

56. Transfer of brands or earmarks to mortgagees

- (1) The owner of any registered brand or earmark, or both, may transfer to the mortgagee of any stock of which that owner is the proprietor the right to use, sell, and transfer the brand or earmark, or both, as the case requires, upon such terms and conditions as are set forth in the deed or instrument of mortgage.
- (2) Notice of any deed or instrument referred to in subsection (1) and renewal of notice before the expiration of each period of 3 years the first of which commences with the original notice, may be given to the Registrar and if so given shall be entered in the register, and no transfer of, or other dealing with, the brand or earmark to which the deed or instrument relates shall be registered before the withdrawal or cancellation of registration of such notice or renewal, without the prior consent of the mortgagee.
- (3) The mortgagee under a mortgage referred to in subsection (1) may execute a transfer of any brand or earmark referred to in the mortgage, and the registration of such transfer shall, for all purposes and as against all persons, except between the owner and mortgagee, be conclusive as to the right of the mortgagee to effect such transfer.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the term “mortgage” means any deed, memorandum, or other instrument whereby security for payment of money is granted over any stock, and all charges and liens given or created by any statute as a security for payment of money, and the term “stock” includes the progeny thereof.

57. Certificate to be prima facie proof

A certificate purporting to be signed by the Registrar containing a statement as to the registration, transfer or cancellation of any brand, shall in any action, suit, prosecution or trial be received as prima facie evidence of such registration, transfer or cancellation.

[Section 57 inserted by No. 42 of 1978 s. 11.]

s. 58

58. Registered brand or earmark prima facie evidence of ownership

For the purposes of any prosecution or action under or independently of this Act, any registered brand or earmark upon any stock shall be prima facie evidence of the ownership of such brand and of the ownership of the stock.

59. Division of State into districts

- (1) The Minister may, by order published in the Government Gazette, divide the State into 2 or more districts in relation to one or more classes of stock.
- (2) Where, pursuant to subsection (1), the State has been divided into districts in relation to one or more classes of stock, the Registrar may register any brand or earmark for use on the appropriate stock by the owner thereof exclusively in any such district, and in that event —
 - (a) the certificate of registration of any brand or earmark and the register shall indicate the district in which a brand or earmark may be used by the owner thereof;
 - (b) an owner using a brand or earmark upon any stock outside the district within which the brand may be used shall be guilty of an offence against this Act; and
 - (c) the Registrar may refuse to register any brand or earmark for use in any district where, in his opinion, such a brand or earmark is likely to cause confusion or mislead by reason of a similar brand or earmark being registered for use in an adjoining district.

[Section 59 amended by No. 42 of 1978 s. 12; No. 65 of 1984 s. 19; No. 46 of 1994 s. 36.]

60. Offences

- (1) Any person who fails to comply with, or contravenes, any provision of this Act commits an offence.

- (2) A court of summary jurisdiction dealing with an offence under this Act is to be constituted by a magistrate.

[Section 60 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

60A. Prosecutions to be commenced within 3 years

A prosecution for an offence under this Act may be commenced at any time within 3 years after the commission of the offence.

[Section 60A inserted by No. 46 of 1994 s. 37.]

61. Penalties

Any person who commits an offence against this Act is liable on summary conviction —

- (a) to a penalty of not more than $5 000; or
- (b) to imprisonment for 12 months, or to both such a fine and imprisonment.

[Section 61 amended by No. 9 of 1980 s. 3; No. 20 of 1989 s. 3; No. 46 of 1994 s. 38.]

62. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations for any purpose for which regulations are contemplated, required or permitted by this Act and for any other purpose which in his opinion are necessary or convenient for giving effect to the provisions of, and for the full administration of, this Act.

- (1a) The regulations may —
- (a) prescribe any animal to be stock for the purposes of this Act; and
