“the Commission” means the Western Australian Government Railways Commission constituted under the Government Railways Act 1904;

“the Treasurer” means the Treasurer of the State acting for and on behalf of the Crown in right of the State; and expressions

used in this Act have the same respective meanings as in the Agreement.

4. Approval of Agreement

The Agreement is approved and may be carried into effect notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act.

5. Powers of the Commissioners of the Rural and Industries Bank

(1) The Nominee —

- (a) shall be taken to have had power to enter into the Agreement and to make an offer to acquire the unified ordinary stock of the Company;
- (b) is empowered to —
  - (i) do all such things that by or under the Agreement the Nominee may do or be required to do;
  - (ii) acquire all the unified ordinary stock of the Company and to do all such things and carry out such obligations under the provisions of the Companies Act 1948 of the United Kingdom and amendments, as may be necessary to acquire that stock;
- (c) is empowered to do all such things as are incidental to any power conferred on the Nominee by this section and that are, in its opinion, necessary or desirable for the purpose of giving effect to the Agreement; and
- (d) in particular may for the purpose of giving effect to the Agreement create, issue and sell —
  - (i) stock to be called “The Rural and Industries Bank of Western Australia 5½% “A” Debenture Stock” (in this Act called “A” stock); and
  - (ii) stock to be called “The Rural and Industries Bank of Western Australia “B” Debenture Stock” (in this Act called the “B” stock) which the parties to the Agreement have agreed shall be respectively the Government Sterling Bonds and Government Substitutionary Guarantee Bonds for the purposes of the Agreement.

- (2) “A” stock and “B” stock may be created by a resolution to that effect duly passed by the Nominee.

6. Sum secured by stock to be a charge on the Funds of the Bank and guaranteed by State

- (1) The due redemption of the principal moneys secured by the “A” stock and the due payment of interest thereon and the due payment of the principal moneys secured by the “B” stock, are, by virtue of this section,
- (a) charged on and secured upon the Funds of the Bank referred to in section 26 of the Rural and Industries Bank Act 1944<sup>3</sup>; and
  - (b) guaranteed by the Treasurer.
- (2) The Treasurer shall cause any money required for fulfilling any guarantee given by this section and any money required to carry out any obligations of the State arising out of or in connection with the Agreement to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund referred to in section 4 of the Audit Act 1904<sup>4</sup>, and that Account is hereby to the necessary extent appropriated accordingly.
- (3) The principal moneys secured by any “A” stock or “B” stock and the interest on those moneys, if any, rank equally and without any right of priority or preference as between themselves.

[Section 6 amended by No. 6 of 1993 s. 16.]

7. Second Schedule to apply to stock

- (1) The provisions of the Second Schedule apply to “A” stock and “B” stock issued pursuant to this Act.

- (2) A notice of any trust, express, implied or constructive shall not be received by the Nominee, the Registrar of Stock or by an officer or agent of the Nominee in relation to any “A” stock or “B” stock and the Nominee, Registrar of Stock, officer or agent is not bound to see to the execution of any trust to which any of that stock may be subject.

8. Power of Treasurer to give guarantees etc.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act and the Agreement the Treasurer —
- (a) shall guarantee the repayment of all principal moneys and interest thereon, if any, in respect of which “A” stock and “B” stock have been issued under this Act in accordance with the Agreement;
  - (b) may give such directions and do all such other acts and things as he may deem necessary or desirable for the purpose of carrying out or giving effect to the Agreement on the part of the State; and
  - (c) may give such indemnities to the liquidator of the Company (if any) as the liquidator may require before he distributes the assets of the Company to the Nominee or the purchaser.
- (2) For the purposes of facilitating the discharge by the Nominee of its financial obligations under the Agreement, the Treasurer may issue outside the Commonwealth in the name of the State, such securities in favour of the Nominee as the Treasurer may decide.

9. Power of Treasurer to provide Nominee with funds to meet sums secured by stock

Where the Nominee issues any “A” stock or “B” stock or both in accordance with the Agreement, the Treasurer shall make to the Nominee advances of amounts of money sufficient to enable the Nominee to pay, as and when they become due for repayment, the principal moneys and interest thereon or any instalment of the principal moneys in respect of which any such bonds have been so issued.

10. Power of Treasurer to assume liability for certain debts of the Midland Railway Company of Western Australia Limited

Where at any time after the Completion Date, the Commonwealth Development Bank of Australia, Provident and Pensions Holdings Proprietary Limited and the E.S. & A. Nominees (Australia) Proprietary Limited at the request of the Treasurer, each release the Company from the debts and interest thereon, if any, owing by the Company to it, the Treasurer shall assume the liability for the debt and interest on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon before that date by the Treasurer and the Commonwealth Development Bank of Australia, Provident and Pensions Holdings Proprietary Limited and E.S. & A. Nominees (Australia) Proprietary Limited, as the case may be.

11. Indemnity

The Nominee and any attorney or agent of the Nominee and the Registrar of Stock is hereby indemnified by the Treasurer in respect of any act done in good faith by the Nominee, attorney, agent or the Registrar of Stock for the purpose of carrying the Agreement into effect and in respect of any losses, costs or damages incurred by the Nominee, attorney, agent or Registrar of Stock as a result of, or arising out of, that act.

12. Power of the Commission to lease Midland railway

- (1) The Commission may lease upon such terms and conditions as the Commission and the Company may agree upon, the railway in the State owned by the Company, including all land owned by it upon which the railway is constructed or any such land that is used in connection with or for the purposes of that railway and all buildings, fixed assets, locomotives, road service vehicles, rolling stock of whatsoever kind and all necessary, proper and usual works and conveniences of whatsoever kind so owned and so used, all of which are in this section called “the Midland railway”.

- (2) On and after the Vesting Date and during the currency of any lease of the Midland railway to the Commission pursuant to subsection (1) —
- (a) the railway shall be deemed to have been duly opened for traffic under the Government Railways Act 1904;
  - (b) the railway shall be deemed to be a Government railway within the meaning of that Act; and
  - (c) the provisions of that Act, subject to the provisions of the Agreement and this section, apply to the railway.

13. Seniority of employees

- (1) For the purposes of giving effect to and implementing The Schedule to the Agreement in respect of the seniority to be granted to any employee of the Company who is employed in a permanent capacity within the meaning of section 3 of the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act 1945<sup>5</sup>, in any department, agency or instrumentality of the State, the provisions of this section apply.
- (2) Where following negotiation between the representatives of the vendor and of the purchaser referred to in clause one of The Schedule to the Agreement, the representatives have reached agreement as to the seniority to be granted to any employee referred to in subsection (1) —
- (a) the terms of the agreement shall be reduced to writing;
  - (b) effect shall be given to the agreement according to its tenor; and
  - (c) the employee has that seniority notwithstanding the provisions of the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act 1945<sup>5</sup>, or of any other Act.
- (3) Where the representatives referred to in subsection (2) do not reach agreement as to the seniority to be granted to any employee referred to in that subsection, within a period of 60 days from and including the Vesting Date, the employee may at any time within 30 days after the expiration of that period, request in writing a Stipendiary Magistrate appointed or deemed to be appointed under the Stipendiary Magistrates Act 1957, and appointed by the Governor for the purpose, to determine the seniority of the employee.

- (4) The Stipendiary Magistrate —
- (a) shall hear and determine any request made to him pursuant to this section as soon as practicable after the receipt by him of the request;
  - (b) shall hear and determine the request in such manner as he determines; and
  - (c) has for the purpose all the powers of a Royal Commission under the Royal Commissioners Powers Act 1902<sup>6</sup> and in applying that Act to the Stipendiary Magistrate a reference to the Chairman of a Royal Commission under that Act shall be read as a reference to the Stipendiary Magistrate.
- (5) In determining the seniority of an employee pursuant to this section the Stipendiary Magistrate shall, in addition to any other matters that he considers relevant to the case, have regard to the following —
- (a) the terms of the Agreement;
  - (b) the length of service of the employee with the Company and in particular the length of service in the grade or class in which he was last employed by the Company; and
  - (c) the representations by the representatives of the vendors, the Company, the purchaser, the employee making the request and the industrial unions of workers concerned, and such other persons as the Stipendiary Magistrate thinks fit to hear at the hearing of the request of the employee.
- (6) The determination of the Stipendiary Magistrate under this section as to the seniority of the employee is final and conclusive and effect shall be given thereto according to its

tenor, notwithstanding the provisions of the Government Employees (Promotions Appeal Board) Act 1945<sup>5</sup>, or of any other Act.

14. Regulations

The Governor may make such regulations as he deems necessary for carrying the purposes and provisions of this Act and the Agreement into effect.

(a) The Directors of the existing London Board and of the Local Board including the General Manager other than for normal fees up to Completion Date

(b) The staff of the London Office

(2) The Purchaser acknowledges that since negotiations between the parties of the first and second parts commenced profits have been made by the Company and agrees that from these profits a sum to be approved by the Vendors and the Purchaser may be provided by the Company to meet and discharge the liabilities to the Reversionary Certificate holders and to the Directors of the existing London Board and Local Board (including the General Manager) and London Staff mentioned in sub-clause (1) of this clause and this Contract shall be conditional on approval being given in the terms of this sub-clause

First Schedule

11. After the Completion Date the members of the existing London Board and the existing Local Board shall at the request of the Purchaser tender their resignation from office but until so requested shall remain and carry out the duties of Directors for a period not exceeding one calendar month

12. Until the Completion Date the Vendors will cause the business of the Company to be carried on in a proper and businesslike manner and as far as practicable in the manner such business has heretofore been carried on

13. It is hereby agreed and declared by the parties hereto (other than the Nominee):

(a) That if and when the railway of the Company is vested in or taken over by the Purchaser (the date of which vesting or taking over is hereinafter called "the Vesting Date") the general rules and stipulations contained in the Schedule hereto so far as practicable and reasonable shall apply as regards the employees (except members of the Local Board as such) of the Company employed in Western Australia immediately before the Vesting Date

(b) That the said general rules and stipulations shall apply with all necessary adaptations and modifications to such employees of the Company at the Completion Date whose services are terminated on the ground of redundancy after the Completion Date and before the Vesting Date

14. Unless the Completion Date occurs before the Thirty first day of December One thousand nine hundred and sixty three the Purchaser Nominee or the Vendors may determine this Contract by notice in writing given by the Purchaser (who is hereby appointed agent for the Nominee for giving or receiving notices referred to in this clause) to the London Board of the Company or by the London Board to the Purchaser as the case may be and upon such determination the same shall become void and of no effect without giving rise to any claim for damages or otherwise by any party against the other or others or by any assenting stockholder against any party hereto

IN WITNESS whereof the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first before written

THE SCHEDULE

1. (1) The Purchaser undertakes to offer employment in State Departments agencies or instrumentalities to all employees of the Company employed in Western Australia immediately before the Vesting Date on conditions not less favourable on the whole than those which the employees enjoyed in their employment with the Company

(2) The Purchaser undertakes to make a similar offer to any employee of the Company at the Completion Date whose services are terminated on the ground of redundancy after the Completion Date and before the Vesting Date. The rules and stipulations of this Schedule shall apply with all necessary adaptations and modifications to any such employee mentioned in this sub-paragraph

(3) The offers referred to in the preceding sub-clauses shall be made in such manner as shall ensure continuity of employment to the employees concerned

(4) The actual terms and conditions of employment (including seniority to be granted to the Company's employees in the service of the Purchaser) to be offered by the Purchaser to employees of the Company in pursuance of the undertaking referred to in the preceding sub-paragraphs of this clause shall be the subject of negotiation between representatives of the Vendors and of the Purchaser
2. Any employee who does not desire to transfer to the Purchaser's service at the Vesting Date will be paid by the Purchaser in cash all amounts due to him for long service leave and accrued leave and also the amount standing accrued to him under the Company's Staff Gratuity Scheme
3. The Company's Staff Gratuity Scheme shall mean the arrangement at present in force covering the Company's employees in Western Australia (excluding the General Manager and members of the Local Board) where by those employees are deemed to earn a lump sum Retiring Allowance at the rates set out hereunder

Wages Employees: One fifth of one month's pay for every year of service

Salaried Officers: One fourth of one month's pay for every year of service

Executive Officers: Two fifths of one month's pay for every year of service

“Pay” for the purpose of this Scheme means the average wage or salary (exclusive of overtime or any special allowance) calculated by taking the employee’s wage or salary at date of termination of service with the Company and at one year and at two years prior to this date and obtaining the average of these three amounts. The lump sum retiring allowance calculated as described herein plus or minus some discretionary amount decided upon by the Local Board having regard to the quality of the service rendered by the employee is paid to the employee on his retirement from the Company’s service

For the purposes of this Schedule the lump sum retiring allowance shall be calculated as above without the addition or deduction of any discretionary amount

Provided that for the purposes of this Schedule no employee with less than five years service with the Company at the Vesting Date shall be deemed a beneficiary in the said Scheme.

Provided further that the said Gratuity Scheme except as referred to in this Schedule shall in no way be continued by the Purchaser nor will any employee of the Company be entitled to any claim thereto other than as mentioned in this Schedule

4. (1) The Purchaser will appoint a Magistrate to hear and determine appeals (other than with respect to seniority) in accordance with clause 5 of this Schedule

(2) The decision of the Magistrate will be final and binding on the employee and the Purchaser as if it were the decision of a single arbitrator appointed by the parties under the Arbitration Act 1895 as amended

The Magistrate may make rules as to and decide the procedure to be followed at the hearing or consideration of appeals and decide whether the appeals will be by viva voce hearing or in writing.

5. Where any employee considers that in relation to himself the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Schedule have not been complied with he may within three calendar months from and including the Vesting Date appeal against his treatment to a Magistrate appointed under paragraph 4 of this Schedule

No such appeal shall be heard unless and until the employee agrees in writing that the decision of the Magistrate shall be final and binding as set out in paragraph 4 of this Schedule

6. The Magistrate referred to in paragraph 4 hereof shall cease to receive appeals three calendar months after the Vesting Date
7. Length of service by any employee with the Company shall be counted as service with the Purchaser for the purpose of qualifying for entrance to the Superannuation Fund constituted under the Superannuation and Family Benefits Act 1938 as amended (herein called “the W.A. Government Superannuation Fund”) but without prejudice to any requirements as to fitness of health and other requirements or conditions for such entrance
8. The amount standing accrued to each employee under the Company’s Staff Gratuity Scheme at the Vesting Date shall unless otherwise agreed by the Purchaser be held in trust to be paid with interest as hereinafter mentioned to him (or his personal representatives) on his ceasing to be employed by the Purchaser. While the amount is so held in trust it shall accumulate compound interest at the rate of £4½ per centum per annum
9. Should any employee at any time desire payment of the gratuity due to him to be used for the purchase of units in the W.A. Government Superannuation Fund then the Purchaser shall after proof of his intention so to do pay the amount of gratuity applied for to such W.A. Government Superannuation Fund such amount being not more than the total amount of gratuity to employee’s credit.
10. (1) Before Completion Date the Vendors shall cause to be prepared and completed due and proper records and statements of all accrued leave including annual leave long service leave and sick leave with respect to every employee of the Company employed in Western Australia immediately before the Completion Date and shall permit the Purchaser by his agents from time to time to inspect and take copies of such records and statements
- The said records and statements shall be kept and maintained up to date by the Company until the Vesting Date and on that date all of the said records and statements shall be delivered to the Purchaser
- (2) At the Vesting Date each employee transferred to the Purchaser’s employment shall be credited with all accrued leave due to him on account of service with the Company including annual leave long service leave and sick leave.
