- (2) An application for an authority may be made —
 - (a) in writing (a formal application); or

- (3) A formal application must be in a physical form, signed by the applicant.
- (4) However if it is impracticable in the circumstances for a physical document to be delivered to the authorising officer, a formal application may take the form of —
 - (a) a fax; or
 - (b) an email or other electronic document, in which case the document need not be signed.
- (5) An urgent application may be made in person, by telephone or any other electronic means.
- (6) Nothing in this Division prevents an application for an authority being made in respect of a controlled operation that has been the subject of a previous application.
- (7) In any application, whether formal or urgent, the applicant must —
 - (a) provide sufficient information to enable the authorising officer to decide whether or not to grant the application; and
 - (b) state whether or not the proposed operation, or any other controlled operation in respect of the same criminal activity, has been the subject of an earlier application for an authority or variation of an authority and, if so, whether or not the authority or variation was granted.

- (a) that a relevant offence has been, is being or is likely to be committed; and
- (b) that the authority is within the administrative responsibility of the law enforcement agency; and
- (c) that any unlawful conduct involved in conducting the operation will be limited to the maximum extent consistent with conducting an effective controlled operation; and
- (d) that the operation will be conducted in a way that will minimise the risk of more illicit goods being under the control of persons, other than law enforcement officers, at the end of the operation than are reasonably necessary to enable the officers to achieve the purpose of the controlled operation; and
- (e) that the proposed controlled conduct will be capable of being accounted for in a way that will enable the reporting requirements of Division 4 to be complied with; and
- (f) that the operation does not involve any participant in the operation inducing or encouraging another person to engage in criminal activity of a kind that the other person could not reasonably have been expected to engage in unless so induced or encouraged; and
- (g) that any conduct involved in the operation will not —
 - (i) seriously endanger the health or safety of any person; or
 - (ii) cause the death of, or serious injury to, any person; or
 - (iii) involve the commission of a sexual offence against any person; or

- (iv) result in unlawful loss of or serious damage to property (other than illicit goods).

13. Further matters to be taken into account — cross-border controlled operations

In addition to section 12, an authority to conduct a cross-border controlled operation must not be granted unless the authorising officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds —

- (a) that the controlled operation will be, or is likely to be, conducted —
 - (i) in this jurisdiction and in one or more participating jurisdictions; or
 - (ii) in one or more participating jurisdictions;
- and
- (b) that the nature and extent of the suspected criminal activity are such as to justify the conduct of a controlled operation —

14. Further matters to be taken into account — local controlled operations

In addition to section 12, an authority to conduct a local controlled operation must not be granted unless the authorising officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds —

 - (b) may refuse the application.
- (2) Sections 12, 13 and 14 apply to an application for a variation of authority under this section in the same way as they apply to an application for authority under section 11.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), a variation of authority must not be granted unless the authorising officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the variation will not authorise a significant alteration of the nature of the authorised operation concerned.

21. Form of variation of authority

- (1) A variation of authority may be made —
 - (a) in writing (a formal variation of authority) to the principal law enforcement officer for the authorised operation, or another law enforcement officer on behalf of the principal law enforcement officer, as the case requires; or
 - (b) orally (an urgent variation of authority) to the principal law enforcement officer for the authorised operation, or another law enforcement officer on behalf of the principal law enforcement officer, as the case requires, if the person making the variation is satisfied that the delay caused by making a formal variation of authority may affect the success of the operation.

 - (b) authorises each civilian participant, if any, to engage in the particular controlled conduct, if any, specified in the authority in respect of that participant.
- (2) In the case of a local controlled operation, the authority authorises each participant to engage in the conduct referred to in subsection (1) in this jurisdiction but not in any other jurisdiction.

- (3) In the case of a cross-border controlled operation, the authority authorises each participant to engage in the conduct referred to in subsection (1) —
 - (a) in this jurisdiction and in one or more participating jurisdictions; or
 - (b) in one or more participating jurisdictions,subject to any corresponding law of that participating jurisdiction.
- (4) The authority to engage in controlled conduct given to a participant cannot be delegated to any other person.

25. Retrospective authority

- (1) This section applies to local controlled operations but not to cross-border controlled operations.
- (2) If a participant in an authorised operation engages in unlawful conduct (other than controlled conduct) in the course of the operation, the principal law enforcement officer for the operation may, within 24 hours (or any longer period that the authorising officer may, in exceptional circumstances, allow) after the participant engages in that conduct, apply to the authorising officer for retrospective authority for the conduct.
- (3) An application under this section may be made in such manner as the authorising officer permits.
- (4) The authorising officer may require the principal law enforcement officer to furnish such additional information concerning the relevant conduct as is necessary for the authorising officer's proper consideration of the application.

 - (a) may grant retrospective authority in accordance with the application; or
 - (b) may refuse the application.
- (6) Retrospective authority must not be granted unless the authorising officer is satisfied —

- (a) that the participant who engaged in the conduct believed on reasonable grounds —
 - (i) that there was a substantial risk to the success of the authorised operation; or
 - (ii) that there was a substantial risk to the health or safety of a participant in the operation, or any other person, as a direct result of the conduct of the authorised operation; or
 - (iii) that criminal activity other than the criminal activity in respect of which the authorised operation is being conducted had occurred, or was likely to occur, and that there was a substantial risk that evidence relating to that criminal activity would be lost, and the participant could not avoid that risk otherwise than by engaging in the relevant conduct; and
 - (b) that, at all times prior to those circumstances arising, the participant had been acting in good faith; and
 - (c) that the participant had not foreseen, and could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen, that those circumstances would arise; and
 - (d) that, had it been possible to foresee that those circumstances would arise, authority for the relevant conduct would have been sought; and
 - (e) that it was not reasonably possible in those circumstances for the participant to seek a variation of the authority for the operation to authorise the relevant conduct.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not allow retrospective authority to be granted with respect to any conduct that —
- (a) seriously endangered the health or safety of any person; or
 - (b) caused the death of, or serious injury to, any person; or
 - (c) involved the commission of a sexual offence against any person; or
 - (d) resulted in unlawful loss of or serious damage to property (other than illicit goods).
- (8) The authorising officer's power to grant a retrospective authority under this section cannot be delegated to any other person.

26. Corruption and Crime Commission to be notified of retrospective authorities

- (1) An authorising officer who grants a retrospective authority under section 25 must provide the Corruption and Crime Commission with written details of the retrospective authority and the circumstances justifying that authority.
- (2) The details must be provided as soon as practicable after the retrospective authority is granted but, in any case, no later than 7 days after it is granted.
- (3) The Corruption and Crime Commission may require the authorising officer to furnish such further information concerning the retrospective authority as is necessary for the Corruption and Crime Commission's proper consideration of it.

27. Protection from criminal responsibility for controlled conduct during authorised operations

Despite any other written law of this jurisdiction, a participant who engages in conduct (whether in this jurisdiction or elsewhere) in an authorised operation in the course of, and for the purposes of, the operation is not, if engaging in that conduct is an offence, criminally responsible for the offence if —

- (a) the conduct is authorised by, and is engaged in accordance with, the authority for the operation; and
- (b) the conduct does not involve the participant inducing or encouraging another person to engage in criminal activity of a kind that the other person could not reasonably be expected to engage in unless so induced or encouraged; and
- (c) the conduct does not involve the participant engaging in any conduct that is likely to —
 - (i) cause the death of, or serious injury to, any person; or
 - (ii) involve the commission of a sexual offence against any person;and
- (d) if the participant is a civilian participant, he or she acts in accordance with the instructions of a law enforcement officer.
