18. Extended period of registration

The period for section 15(3)(b) is a period of 3 years.

19. Refund of portion of registration fees for subsequently sterilised dogs

- (1) If an unsterilised dog is registered for a period of one year and is sterilised within that period, the owner is entitled to a refund for that registration period of an amount equal to the difference between the registration fee paid for that year and the registration fee which would have been payable for a sterilised dog.
- (2) If an unsterilised dog is registered for a period of 3 years and is sterilised in the first year of that period, the owner is entitled to a refund for that registration period of an amount equal to the difference between the registration fee paid for those 3 years and the 3 year registration fee that would have been payable for a sterilised dog.
- (3) If an unsterilised dog is registered for a period of 3 years and is sterilised in the second year of that period, the owner is entitled to a refund for that registration period of an amount equal to the difference between two-thirds of the registration fee paid for those 3 years and two-thirds of the 3 year registration fee that would have been payable for a sterilised dog.

- (4) If an unsterilised dog is registered for a period of 3 years and is sterilised in the third year of that period, the owner is entitled to a refund for that registration period of an amount equal to the difference between one-third of the registration fee paid for those 3 years and one-third of the 3 year registration fee that would have been payable for a sterilised dog.
- (5) If an unsterilised dog is registered for its lifetime and is sterilised in the 3 year period immediately after that registration, the owner is entitled to a refund of an amount equal to the fee that would have been payable for registering the dog for a period of 3 years if it were sterilised.

20. Application for registration, evidence for concessional rates

- (1) An application under section 16(1) is to be in the form of Form 4.
- (2) Persons intending to claim concessional rates of registration fee may be required to furnish satisfactory evidence as to eligibility.
- (3) The fee payable in respect of the registration of a dog must be assessed at the appropriate concessional rate for a sterilised dog if —
 - (a) there is produced to the registration officer a certificate signed by a veterinarian, or a statutory declaration stating, that the dog has been effectively sterilised; or
 - (b) the registration officer is satisfied that there is a sterilisation tattoo on an ear of the dog.
- (4) For subregulation (3), a sterilisation tattoo must consist of a broken circle having a diameter of not less than 8 mm, with a bisecting broken line not less than 15 mm in length.

Example:

21. Certificate of registration

The training programme for section 33(1)(b) is that known as the "Greyhounds as Pets Program" conducted by the WA Greyhound Racing Association.

29. Collars for dangerous dogs

- (1) For section 33GA(1)(a), a collar worn by a commercial security dog must have alternating red and silver stripes, each stripe being 25 mm wide and set at an angle of 45 degrees to the rim of the collar, with one of those colours being fluorescent so that the collar is visible in darkness.
- (2) For section 33GA(1)(b), a collar worn by a dangerous dog other than a commercial security dog must have alternating red and yellow stripes, each stripe being 25 mm wide and set at an angle of 45 degrees to the rim of the collar, with one of those colours being fluorescent so that the collar is visible in darkness.
- (3) For section 33GA(1)(a) and (b), a collar worn by a dangerous dog must —
 - (a) be made of durable materials; and
 - (b) be capable of being securely fastened; and
 - (c) be capable of being attached to a leash; and
 - (d) have a minimum width —
 - (i) in the case of a dog weighing less than 10 kg, 15 mm; or
 - (ii) in the case of a dog weighing 10 kg or more but less than 20 kg, 25 mm; or
 - (iii) in the case of a dog weighing 20 kg or more but less than 40 kg, 40 mm; or
 - (iv) in the case of a dog weighing 40 kg or more, 50 mm.
- (4) A person must not put on a dog, or allow a dog to wear, a collar of a kind required to be worn by a dangerous dog or resembling such a collar unless the dog is a dangerous dog and the collar is of a kind required to be worn by that kind of dangerous dog.

Penalty for an offence under this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

Modified penalty for an offence under this subregulation: $100.

30. Warning signs about dangerous dogs

- (1) For section 33GA(5), a warning sign must —
- (a) be a white rectangle measuring 200 mm by 300 mm; and
 - (b) be made of a durable material; and
 - (c) contain the word “WARNING” in white capital letters 30 mm high on a red rectangular panel measuring 190 mm by 45 mm near the top of the rectangle referred to in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) contain below the panel referred to in paragraph (c) a red circle 160 mm in diameter containing a picture of the black head and neck of a dog 100 mm high wearing a collar mentioned in regulation 29(2) (whether in colour or black and white); and
 - (e) contain below the circle referred to in paragraph (d) the words “DANGEROUS DOG” in capital letters 20 mm high.

Example:

- (2) A person must not display in or at premises, other than premises where a dangerous dog is ordinarily kept or ordinarily permitted to live, a sign resembling a warning sign required by section 33GA(5).

Penalty for an offence under this subregulation: a fine of $1 000.

34. Modified penalties for offences under the regulations

An offence under these regulations that has following its penalty provision the words “modified penalty” is an offence that is prescribed for section 45A(1)(b), and the modified penalty specified immediately after the penalty provision is the modified penalty payable in respect of that offence if dealt with under regulation 35.

35. Dealing with alleged offenders without prosecuting them

- (1) Where an authorised person has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence mentioned in regulation 33 or 34, the authorised person may serve on the alleged offender a notice in the form of Form 8 (an infringement notice) informing the alleged offender that, if he or she does not wish to be prosecuted in court for the alleged offence, he or she may pay to the local government specified in the notice, within the time specified in the notice, the amount prescribed as the modified penalty.
- (2) An infringement notice may be served on an alleged offender personally or by posting it to his or her address as ascertained from the alleged offender, at the time of or immediately following the occurrence giving rise to the allegation of the offence, or as recorded by the local government under the Act.
- (3) Where a person who receives an infringement notice fails to pay the prescribed penalty within the time specified in the notice, or within such further time as may in any particular case be allowed, the person must be regarded as having declined to have the allegation dealt with by way of a modified penalty.
- (4) An alleged offender on whom an infringement notice has been served may, within the time specified in that notice or such further time as may in any particular case be allowed, send or deliver to the local government specified in that notice the amount of the prescribed penalty, with or without a reply as to the circumstances giving rise to the allegation, and then —

- (a) the local government may appropriate that amount in satisfaction of the penalty and issue an acknowledgment; or
 - (b) the local government, or an authorised person acting on behalf of the local government, may withdraw the infringement notice under subregulation (5) and refund the amount so paid.
- (5) An infringement notice may, whether or not the prescribed penalty has been paid, be withdrawn by the local government, or an authorised person acting on behalf of the local government, by the sending of a notice in the form of Form 9 to the alleged offender at the address specified in the notice or his or her last known place of residence or business and in that event any amount received by way of modified penalty must be refunded and any acknowledgment of the receipt of that amount must for the purposes of any proceedings in respect of the alleged offence be regarded as not having been issued.
- (6) A person appointed under section 29(1) to exercise the power of an authorised person to serve infringement notices under subregulation (1) is not eligible to be appointed under that subsection to exercise the power of an authorised person to withdraw infringement notices under subregulation (5).
