Penalty: $5 000.
- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) for the person charged to prove that —
 - (a) the minor produced to the person charged or that person's employee or agent acceptable proof of age before the person charged sold or supplied the film to the minor and the person charged or that person's employee or agent believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was an adult; or
 - (b) the minor was employed by the person charged or that person's employer and the supply took place in the course of that employment.
- (3) A minor who is 15 years of age or older must not buy a film classified RC, X 18+ or R 18+ knowing that it is so classified.
Penalty: $200.
- (4) A person must not sell or supply to a minor under 15 years of age a film classified MA 15+ unless the person is a parent or guardian of the minor.
Penalty: $2 000.
- (5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (4) for the person charged to prove that the person charged or that person's employee or agent believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was 15 years of age or older.

- (6) A person must not supply to a minor a film classified X 18+ or RC or an unclassified film which would, if classified, be classified X 18+ or RC.

Penalty: $15 000 or imprisonment for 18 months.

[Section 79 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 12 and 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 21.]

80. Leaving films in certain places

A person must not leave in a public place or, without the occupier's permission, on private premises —

- (a) an unclassified film that would, if classified, be classified X 18+; or
- (b) a film classified X 18+,

knowing that the film is, or would be, so classified.

Penalty: $5 000.

[Section 80 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 22.]

81. Possession or copying of certain films

- (1) A person must not possess or copy —

- (a) an unclassified film that would, if classified, be classified RC; or
- (b) a film classified RC.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (2) A person must not possess or copy —

- (a) an unclassified film that would, if classified, be classified X 18+, R 18+ or MA 15+; or
- (b) a film classified X 18+,

with the intention of selling the film or the copy, or exhibiting the film or the copy in a public place.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (3) In proceedings for an offence against subsection (2), evidence that a person had possession of, or made, 10 or more copies of a film is evidence that the person intended to sell or exhibit the film and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of that fact.

[Section 81 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 23.]

Division 4 — Computer games

82. Sale or demonstration of computer games in public place

A person must not sell or demonstrate a computer game in a public place unless the computer game —

- (a) is classified;
- (b) is sold or distributed with the same title as that under which it is classified; and
- (c) is sold or distributed in the form, without alteration or addition, in which it is classified.

Penalty: $10 000.

[Section 82 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2).]

83. Display of notice about classification

- (1) A person who sells or demonstrates a computer game in a public place must keep a notice in the approved form about classifications for computer games on display in a prominent place in that public place so that the notice is clearly visible to the public.

Penalty: $1 000.

[(2) repealed]

[Section 83 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 40 and 41(2).]

84. RC computer games

- (1) A person must not sell or demonstrate —
- (a) an unclassified computer game that would, if classified, be classified RC; or
 - (b) a computer game classified RC.

Penalty: $15 000 or imprisonment for 18 months.

- (2) A minor who is 15 years of age or older must not buy a computer game classified RC, knowing that it is so classified.

Penalty: $200.

[Section 84 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2).]

85. Demonstration of MA 15+ computer games

- (1) A person must not demonstrate a computer game classified MA 15+ in a public place.

Penalty: $5 000.

- (2) A person must not demonstrate so that it can be seen from a public place —

- (a) an unclassified computer game that would, if classified, be classified MA 15+; or
- (b) a computer game classified MA 15+.

Penalty: $2 000.

- (3) A person must not demonstrate in a place that is not a public place, in the presence of a minor under 15 years of age —

- (a) an unclassified computer game that would, if classified, be classified MA 15+; or
- (b) a computer game classified MA 15+,

unless that person is a parent or guardian of the minor.

Penalty: $2 000.

- (4) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (3) for the person charged to prove that the person believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was 15 years of age or older.

[Section 85 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 24.]

86. Computer games to bear determined markings and consumer advice

- (1) A person must not sell a computer game unless the determined markings relevant to the classification of the computer game and relevant consumer advice, if any, are displayed on the container, wrapping or casing of the computer game.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (2) A person must not sell an unclassified computer game if the container, wrapping or casing in which the computer game is sold bears a marking that indicates or suggests that the computer game has been classified.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (3) A person must not sell a classified computer game if the container, wrapping or casing in which the computer game is sold bears a marking that indicates or suggests that the computer game is unclassified or has a different classification.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (4) A person must not make a computer game available for playing on a pay and play basis (for example, a coin operated arcade game) unless the determined markings relevant to the classification of the computer game and relevant consumer advice, if any, are displayed on the device used for playing the game.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (5) If 2 or more computer games are available for playing on a device referred to in subsection (4), the determined markings and consumer advice to be displayed on the device are those relevant to the computer game with the highest classification under the Commonwealth Act.

- (6) If —
- (a) a computer game is reclassified under section 39 of the Commonwealth Act; or
 - (b) the Board revokes a classification or consumer advice for a computer game under section 22B(3) of that Act, display of the determined markings and consumer advice applicable to the computer game before that reclassification or revocation is sufficient compliance with this section for a period of 30 days after the decision to reclassify or revoke takes effect.

[Section 86 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 13 and 41(2).]

87. Keeping unclassified or RC computer games with other computer games

- (1) If a person keeps or possesses an unclassified computer game or a computer game classified RC on any premises where classified computer games are sold or demonstrated, the person and the occupier of the premises are each guilty of an offence.
Penalty: $5 000.

- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) for the person charged to prove that the person did not know, and could not reasonably have known, that the computer game was on the premises.

[Section 87 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2).]

88. Sale or supply of certain computer games to minors

- (1) A person must not sell or supply to a minor who is under 15 years of age a computer game classified MA 15+ unless the person is a parent or guardian of the minor.
Penalty: $5 000.

- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) for the person charged to prove that the person charged or that person's employee or agent believed on reasonable grounds that the minor was 15 years of age or older.
- (3) A person must not supply to a minor a computer game classified RC or an unclassified computer game which would, if classified, be classified RC.

Penalty: $15 000 or imprisonment for 18 months.

[Section 88 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 14 and 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 25.]

89. Possession or copying of certain computer games

- (1) A person must not possess or copy —
- (a) an unclassified computer game that would, if classified, be classified RC; or
 - (b) a computer game classified RC.
- Penalty: $10 000.
- (2) A person must not possess or copy an unclassified computer game that would, if classified, be classified MA 15+ with the intention of selling the computer game or the copy or demonstrating the computer game or the copy in a public place.
- Penalty: $10 000.
- (3) A person must not possess or copy a computer game classified MA 15+ with the intention of demonstrating the computer game or the copy in a public place.
- Penalty: $5 000.
- (4) In proceedings for an offence against subsection (2) or (3), evidence that a person had possession of, or made, 10 or more copies of a computer game is evidence that the person intended to sell or demonstrate the computer game and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of that fact.

[Section 89 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 26.]

Division 5 — Advertisements

90. Certain advertisements not to be published

- (1) A person must not publish an unapproved advertisement for a publication or film or computer game.

Penalty: $5 000.

- (2) In subsection (1) —

“unapproved advertisement” means an advertisement that —

- (a) has not been submitted for approval under section 29 of the Commonwealth Act and, if submitted, would be refused approval;
- (b) has been refused approval under section 29 of the Commonwealth Act;
- (c) was approved under section 29 of the Commonwealth Act but the approval was revoked under section 13(5) or 21A of that Act; or
- (d) is approved under section 29 of the Commonwealth Act subject to conditions, and is not published in accordance with those conditions.

[Section 90 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 15 and 41(2).]

91. Certain films and computer games not to be advertised

- (1) A person must not publish an advertisement for —

- (a) an unclassified film, other than a film in relation to which a certificate of exemption has been granted under section 33 of the Commonwealth Act;
- (b) a film classified RC or X 18+;
- (c) an unclassified computer game;
- (d) a computer game classified RC;

- (e) a submittable publication; or
- (f) a publication classified RC.

Penalty: $5 000.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, if a person publishes an advertisement for an unclassified film or an unclassified computer game at the request of another person, that other person alone must be taken to have published it.

[Section 91 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 16 and 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 27.]

92. Screening of advertisements with feature films

A person must not screen in a public place an advertisement for a film during a programme for the exhibition of another film (“the feature film”) unless the feature film has a classification specified in column 1 of an item in the Table and the advertised film has a classification specified opposite it in column 2 of that item.

Table

Item	Column 1 Feature film	Column 2 Advertised film
1	G	G
2	PG	PG or G
3	M	M, PG or G
4	MA 15+	MA 15+, M, PG or G
5	R 18+	R 18+, MA 15+, M, PG or G

Penalty: $2 000.

[Section 92 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 28.]

93. Liability of occupier for certain advertisements

- (1) An occupier of a public place must not screen in the public place an advertisement for a film classified R 18+ or MA 15+.

Penalty: $2 000.

- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) for the person charged to prove that —
- (a) if the advertised film is classified MA 15+, the advertisement was screened during a programme for the exhibition of a film classified R 18+ or MA 15+; or
 - (b) if the advertised film is classified R 18+, the advertisement was screened during a programme for the exhibition of a film classified R 18+.

[Section 93 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 29.]

94. Sale of feature films with advertisements

A person must not sell a film (“the feature film”) that is accompanied by an advertisement for another film unless the feature film has a classification specified in column 1 of an item in the Table and the advertised film has a classification specified opposite it in column 2 of that item.

Table

Item	Column 1 Feature film	Column 2 Advertised film
1	G	G
2	PG	PG or G
3	M	M, PG or G
4	MA 15+	MA 15+, M, PG or G
5	R 18+	R 18+, MA 15+, M, PG or G

Penalty: $2 000.

[Section 94 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 30.]

95. Advertisements with computer games

A person must not sell a computer game (“the main game”) that is accompanied by an advertisement for another computer game unless the main game has a classification specified in column 1 of an item in the Table and the advertised computer game has a classification specified opposite it in column 2 of that item.

Table

Item	Column 1 Main game	Column 2 Advertised computer game
1	G	G
2	PG	PG or G
3	M	M, PG or G
4	MA 15+	MA 15+, M, PG or G

Penalty: $2 000.

[Section 95 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 41(2); No. 10 of 2006 s. 31.]

96. Advertisement to contain determined markings and consumer advice

- (1) A person must not publish an illegal advertisement for a classified publication or a classified film or a classified computer game.

Penalty: $2 000.

- (2) In subsection (1) —

“illegal advertisement” means an advertisement that does not —

- (a) contain the determined markings relevant to the classification of the publication or film or computer game and relevant consumer advice, if any; and

- (b) display the determined markings and consumer advice —
 - (i) in the manner determined by the Director under section 8 of the Commonwealth Act; and
 - (ii) so as to be clearly visible, having regard to the size and nature of the advertisement.
- (3) If —
 - (a) a publication, film or computer game is reclassified under section 39 or 97A of the Commonwealth Act; or
 - (b) the Board revokes a classification or consumer advice for a publication, film or computer game under section 22B(3) of that Act, display of the determined markings and consumer advice applicable to the publication, film or computer game before that reclassification or revocation is sufficient compliance with subsection (1) for a period of 30 days after the decision to reclassify or revoke takes effect.

[Section 96 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 17 and 41(2).]

97. Misleading or deceptive advertisements

- (1) A person must not publish an advertisement for an unclassified publication or an unclassified film or an unclassified computer game with a marking that indicates or suggests that the publication, film or computer game is classified.
Penalty: $2 000.
- (2) A person must not publish an advertisement for a classified publication or a classified film or a classified computer game with a marking that indicates or suggests that the publication, film or computer game is unclassified or has a different classification.
Penalty: $2 000.

- (3) If —
- (a) a publication, film or computer game is reclassified under section 39 or 97A of the Commonwealth Act; or
 - (b) the Board revokes a classification for a publication, film or computer game under section 22B(3) of that Act, display of the determined markings applicable to the publication, film or computer game before that reclassification or revocation is sufficient compliance with subsection (2) for a period of 30 days after the decision to reclassify or revoke takes effect.

[Section 97 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 18 and 41(2).]

97A. Advertising of sale of publications

- (1) A registered person may display in that person's registered premises a notice in the approved form that publications classified Category 1 restricted or Category 2 restricted are available for sale on those premises.
- (2) Except as provided in this section, a person must not in a public place publish or cause to be published anything likely to be understood as conveying that the person publishes or supplies publications classified Category 1 restricted or Category 2 restricted.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (2) for the person charged to prove that the advertising is done in good faith solely for the purpose of so informing only persons, or the employees or agents of persons, whose business is or includes the sale of publications.
- (4) In subsection (1) —

“approved form” means a notice approved by the Minister.

[Section 97A inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 19.]

98. Classification symbols etc. to be published with advertisements

A person must not publish a publication containing an advertisement for —

- (a) a film;
- (b) a computer game; or
- (c) a publication classified Category 1 restricted or Category 2 restricted, unless the publication also contains a list of the classification symbols and determined markings for publications, films or computer games respectively.

Penalty: $2 000.

[Section 98 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 20 and 41(2).]

Division 6 — Computer services

99. Interpretation

In this Division —

“code of practice” means a code of practice, as amended from time to time, that is approved and published under section 100;

[Section 102B inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 22; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

102C. Calling in computer games for classification

- (1) If—

s. 102C

- (a) the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe that a computer game is likely to contain contentious material; and
- (b) the computer game is being published in Western Australia, or the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe that it will be published in Western Australia, the Director or the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the publisher of the game, require the publisher to submit an application for classification of the game.

- (2) If —
 - (a) the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe that a computer game is not an exempt computer game; and
 - (b) the computer game is being published in Western Australia, or the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe that it will be published in Western Australia, the Director or the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the publisher of the computer game, require the publisher to submit an application for classification of the computer game.

- (3) The Director must cause notice of his or her decision under subsection (1) or (2) to be published in the Commonwealth Gazette.
- (4) The Minister must cause notice of his or her decision under subsection (1) or (2) to be published in the Government Gazette.
- (5) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must, within 3 business days after receiving the notice, comply with the notice.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (6) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (5) to prove that the accused did not intend —
- (a) to publish the computer game in Western Australia; or
 - (b) to cause, authorise, permit or license the computer game to be published in Western Australia.

[Section 102C inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 22; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

102D. Calling in advertisements

- (1) The Director or the Minister may, by notice in writing given to —
- (a) the publisher of a publication that —
 - (i) the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe is a submittable publication; and
 - (ii) is being published in Western Australia, or the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe will be published in Western Australia;
 - (b) the publisher of a classified film that is being published in Western Australia, or that the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe will be published in Western Australia; or
 - (c) the publisher of a computer game that is being published in Western Australia, or that the Director or the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe will be published in Western Australia, require the publisher to submit to the Board for approval a copy of every advertisement used or intended to be used in connection with the publishing.

- (2) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must, within 3 business days after receiving the notice, comply with the notice.

s. 102E

Penalty: $10 000.

- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) to prove that the accused did not intend —
- (a) to publish the publication, film or computer game in Western Australia; or
 - (b) to cause, authorise, permit or license the publication, film or computer game to be published in Western Australia.

[Section 102D inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 22; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

102E. Calling in a publication, film or computer game for reclassification

- (1) If —
- (a) the Board proposes to reclassify a publication, film or computer game under section 39 of the Commonwealth Act; and
 - (b) the publisher of the publication, film or computer game resides in Western Australia or has an office in Western Australia, the Director or the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the publisher, require the publisher to submit a copy of the publication, film or computer game for the purpose of reclassifying it.

- (2) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must, within 3 business days after receiving the notice, comply with the notice.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) to prove that the accused did not have a copy of the publication, film or computer game.

[Section 102E inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 22; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

102F. Obtaining copies for review

- (1) If —
- (a) an application is made for a review of a classification decision under the Commonwealth Act by a person who is not the original applicant for classification of the publication, film or computer game concerned;
 - (b) the Board or the Review Board does not have a copy of the publication, film or computer game and a copy is not available to it; and
 - (c) the original applicant or the publisher of the publication, film or computer game resides in Western Australia or has an office in Western Australia, the Director or the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the original applicant or publisher, require the original applicant or publisher to make a copy of the publication, film or computer game available for the purpose of review.

- (2) A person to whom a notice under this section is given must, within 3 business days after receiving the notice, comply with the notice.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) to prove that the accused did not have a copy of the publication, film or computer game.

[Section 102F inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 22; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Part 8 — Exemptions and exceptions

103. Supply etc. not offence in certain circumstances

Nothing in Part 7 makes it an offence to supply, display or to be in possession of an article for the purpose of classification or law enforcement.

104. Defences for possession in certain circumstances

- (1) In proceedings for an offence against Part 7 relating to possession of an article it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the person had possession of the article to which the charge relates, in good faith —
 - (a) for the purpose or with the intention of delivering it into the possession of a person lawfully entitled to have possession of it;
 - (b) for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act or any other enactment in relation to the article;
 - (c) for the purpose of giving legal advice in relation to the article;
 - (d) for the purpose of giving legal advice, or making representations, in relation to any proceedings; or
 - (e) in accordance with, or for the purpose of complying with, any decision or order made in relation to the article by the Director, the Minister, or any court.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the effect of sections 103, 105, 106 and 110, or prejudices any defence that is open to a person charged with an offence under Part 7 to raise apart from subsection (1).

[Section 104 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 23.]

105. Exemption of certain articles and computer services

- (1) The Director may, on application, direct in writing that Part 7 does not apply, to the extent and subject to any condition specified in the direction, to or in relation to any publication, film, computer game or advertisement.

- (2) The Minister may, on application or on his or her own initiative, direct in writing that Part 7 does not apply, to the extent and subject to any condition specified in the direction, to or in relation to any article or any computer service within the meaning of section 99.

[Section 105 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 24.]

106. Exemption of approved organization

- (1) The Minister or the Director may, on application under subsection (2), direct in writing that Part 7 does not apply, or any of the provisions of that Part do not apply, to an organization approved under section 108 in relation to the exhibition of a film at an event, where the film and the event are specified in the direction.
- (2) An application may be made by an approved organization and must —
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) specify the film that the organization intends to exhibit and the event at which the film is to be exhibited; and
 - (c) be accompanied by —
 - (i) a synopsis of the story or events depicted in the film; and
 - (ii) the prescribed fee.
- (3) The Minister or Director, as the case may be, must notify an organization in writing of a decision to refuse an application for an exemption within 30 days after the date of the decision and must give reasons for the decision.

[Section 106 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 25.]

s. 107

107. Ministerial directions or guidelines

In considering whether to make a direction under section 105 or 106, the Minister or the Director must give effect to any directions or guidelines issued by the Minister in relation to the application of Part 7.

[Section 107 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 26.]

108. Organization may be approved

- (1) The Minister, by notice published in the Government Gazette, or the Director, by notice published in the Commonwealth Gazette, may, on application, approve an organization for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) In considering whether to approve an organization, the Minister or Director must have regard to —
 - (a) the purpose for which the organization was formed;
 - (b) the extent to which the organization carries on activities of a medical, scientific, cultural or artistic nature;
 - (c) the reputation of the organization in relation to the screening of films; and
 - (d) the conditions as to admission of persons to the screening of films by the organization.
- (3) An approval takes effect on the date of publication of the notice referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) An approval may be revoked by the person who gave the approval if, because of a change in any matter referred to in subsection (2), that person considers that it is no longer appropriate that the organization be approved.
- (5) An approval given by the Director may be revoked by the Minister if the Minister considers that it is not appropriate that the organization be approved.

- (6) The Minister or Director, as the case may be, must notify an organization in writing of a decision —
- (a) to refuse an application for approval; or
 - (b) to revoke an approval,
- within 30 days after the date of the decision and must give reasons for the decision.
- (7) Notification of revocation of an approval may be given to the organization or published in the Government Gazette.
- (8) Revocation of an approval takes effect on the date on which the notice is given or published or on a later date specified in the notice.

[Section 108 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 27.]

109. Appeal

- (1) If the Director makes a decision —
- (a) to refuse an application for approval;
 - (b) to revoke an approval; or
 - (c) to refuse an application for an exemption,
- the organization may, within 28 days after notice of the decision has been given, appeal against the decision to the Minister.
- (2) An appeal is instituted by giving notice in writing of the appeal, setting out the grounds and facts on which the appellant relies.
- (3) On an appeal under this section, the Minister must consider the notice of appeal and —
- (a) affirm the decision appealed against;
 - (b) vary the decision appealed against; or
 - (c) set aside the decision and make a decision that the Minister thinks just,

and may exercise any power conferred on the Minister by this Part.

s. 110

- (4) The Minister must notify an appellant in writing of his or her decision within 30 days after the date of the decision.
- (5) No appeal lies against a decision of the Minister under this Part.
[Section 109 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 28.]

110. Publication to prescribed person or body

Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, a person may publish to a prescribed person or a prescribed body, or to a person or body of a prescribed class or description of persons or bodies —

- (a) a film that is not classified or is classified RC, X 18+, R 18+ or MA 15+;
- (b) a computer game that is not classified or is classified RC or MA 15+; or
- (c) a submittable publication or a publication classified Category 1 restricted, Category 2 restricted or RC.

[Section 110 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 29; No. 10 of 2006 s. 32.]

Part 9 — Enforcement

Division 1 — General matters

[Heading inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 30.]

111. Interpretation

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a thing is connected with a particular offence if —
 - (a) the offence has been committed with respect to it;
 - (b) it will afford evidence of the commission of the offence;
or
 - (c) it was used, or it is intended to be used, for the purpose of committing the offence.
- (2) In this Part, a reference to an offence includes a reference to an offence that there are reasonable grounds for believing will be committed.

112. Entry, inspection and seizure without warrant

- (1) The Minister may appoint a person as an authorised person for the purposes of subsection (2).
- (2) A member of the police force, or an authorised person, may without a warrant, at any reasonable time, enter any place where the business of selling, distributing, exhibiting or demonstrating publications, films or computer games, or operating a computer service, is carried on and inspect any articles and records kept on the premises.
- (3) A member of the police force who has entered a place under subsection (2) may seize any thing that the member reasonably suspects is connected with an offence against this Act that is found on or in the place.

113. Obstruction

A person must not delay, obstruct or otherwise hinder a member of the police force, or an authorised person, in the performance of his or her functions under this Act.

Penalty: $1 000.

114. False or misleading statements

A person must not —

- (a) state anything to the Registrar or an authorised person that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) omit from a statement made to the Registrar or an authorised person anything without which the statement is, to the person's knowledge, misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: $1 000.

[Section 114 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

115. Proceedings against body corporate

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence under this Act and it is proved that the offence occurred with the consent or connivance of any director, employee or agent of the body, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, commits that offence.
- (2) If the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

- (3) If, in a proceeding for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show that —
- (a) the conduct was engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) the director, employee or agent had that state of mind.
- (4) If a director, employee or agent of a body corporate engages in conduct on behalf of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority, the body corporate must be taken, for the purposes of a prosecution for an offence against this Act, also to have engaged in the conduct unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

116. Commencement of prosecution for offence

- (1) A prosecution for an offence against a provision of Division 2, 3 or 4 of Part 7 in relation to a publication, film or computer game that is unclassified at the time of the alleged offence —
- (a) must not be commenced until the publication, film or computer game has been classified or the accused, by notice under section 141A, agrees that the publication, film or computer game if classified would have been the classification agreed; and
 - (b) may be commenced not later than 12 months after the date on which —
 - (i) the publication, film or computer game was classified; or
 - (ii) the accused returned the notice under section 141A,whichever is relevant.

- (2) A prosecution for an offence against section 60 may be commenced at any time.

[Section 116 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 31; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

117. Forfeiture

- (1) A court convicting a person of an offence under this Act may order the forfeiture to the Crown of —

- (a) any thing used to commit the offence; and
- (b) any other thing, the subject of the offence.

- (2) The court may make an order under subsection (1) —

- (a) whether or not the thing has been seized; and
- (b) if the thing has been seized — whether or not the thing has been returned to its owner.

- (2a) If —

- (a) a film classified RC or X 18+;
- (b) a publication or computer game classified RC; or
- (c) child pornography, has been lawfully seized under this Part but at the expiration of 12 months after the seizure no person has been charged with an offence in relation to the seized thing, the thing is forfeited to the Crown.

- (3) If a thing, other than a thing referred to in subsection (2a)(a), (b) or (c) or section 117A(1), has been seized under section 112 or under a search warrant but no person has been charged with an offence in respect of the thing an authorised person or a member of the police force must apply, within 60 days after the seizure, to a justice for the issue of a summons under subsection (4).
- (4) On an application under subsection (3), the justice must issue a summons requiring the occupier of the place from which, or the person from whom, the thing was seized, or both, to show cause to the Magistrates Court why the thing should not be forfeited to the Crown.

- (5) The court may permit a person who claims to be the author, publisher, printer, manufacturer or owner of the publication, film or computer game seized to appear in the proceeding, whether a notice has been given to the person or not.
- (6) On the hearing of a summons —
 - (a) if the court is satisfied that —
 - (i) an offence against this Act has been committed in respect of the thing; and
 - (ii) it is desirable that the thing be forfeited, the court must order that the thing is forfeited to the Crown; or
 - (b) if the court is not so satisfied, it must order that the thing be delivered to the person apparently entitled to possession immediately before the thing was seized.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8) a thing that is forfeited to the Crown under this Act may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with as instructed by the Registrar.
- (8) Where a thing is ordered to be forfeited to the Crown under this section, the Registrar must not direct the destruction of that thing before the expiration of the time allowed for instituting an appeal against the order, or, if an appeal is lodged within that time, before the determination of the appeal.

[Section 117 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 32 and 39; No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 10 of 2006 s. 33.]

117A. Forfeiture of copies of seized publications, films and computer games

- (1) Subject to the making of an order under subsection (7), if —
 - (a) proceedings are commenced for an offence under section 61, 62, 63(1), 73, 81(1) or (2), 84(1) or 89(1) in relation to 10 or more different products (“the seized products”); and

- (b) the seized products were seized on the same day from the same premises, then —

- (c) any other copies of the seized products seized on that day from those premises (“the seized copies”) may be retained by the Crown until the proceedings referred to in paragraph (a) are finished; and
- (d) if 10 or more of the seized products are forfeited to the Crown as a result of those proceedings, all of the seized copies of those products not the subject of those proceedings are, at the expiry of the prescribed period, also forfeited to the Crown.
- (2) If the owner of any seized copies of products liable to forfeiture under subsection (1)(d) makes a written request to the Commissioner of Police within 2 months after 10 or more seized products are forfeited to the Crown as a result of proceedings referred to in subsection (1)(a), that person must be allowed to view the seized copies at a time and place fixed by the Commissioner of Police.
- (3) The owner of any seized copy liable to forfeiture under subsection (1)(d) may, within the prescribed period, apply to a justice for an order for return of the seized copy.
- (4) An applicant for an order under this section must give notice of the application to the Commissioner of Police.
- (5) The Commissioner of Police is a party to any proceedings for an order under this section.
- (6) If an application is made for an order under this section, the seized copies may be retained by the Crown until the application is determined but the operation of subsection (1)(d) is suspended until the application is determined.

- (7) The justice may, on an application under this section, order that a seized copy to which the application relates be returned to its owner if satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that —
- (a) in the case of a publication, the publication is not a submittable publication or is classified with a classification other than RC;
 - (b) in the case of a film, the film is classified with a classification other than X 18+ or RC;
 - (c) in the case of a computer game, the computer game is classified with a classification other than RC; and
 - (d) an offence under section 61, 62, 63(1), 73, 81(1) or (2), 84(1) or 89(1) was not committed in relation to the publication, film or computer game.
- (8) In this section —
- “prescribed period” means —
- (a) 2 months after the date on which 10 or more of the products seized on the same day from the same premises are forfeited to the Crown as a result of proceedings referred to in subsection (1)(a); or
 - (b) if the owner requests permission to view the seized products, 2 months from the time fixed by the Commissioner of Police for the viewing;
- “products” means publications, films or computer games, and includes a combination of such products.
- (9) For the purposes of this section —
- (a) copies of the same publication, film or computer game do not constitute different products; and
 - (b) a publication, film or computer game is taken to be a copy of a product if —
 - (i) it is in the same form and has the same cover and identifying markings as the product; or
 - (ii) on a viewing, it is substantially the same as the product.

[Section 117A inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 33; amended by No. 10 of 2006 s. 34.]

117B. Classification of seized items at request of defendant

(1) If —

- (a) a publication, film or computer game has been seized under this Act and is in the possession or control of the prosecution; and
- (b) the owner of the publication, film or computer game, or a person charged with an offence relating to the publication, film or computer game, wishes to submit an application for classification of the publication, film or computer game, the prosecution must, at the request of the person, forward the person's application with the publication, film or computer game, or a copy of the publication, film or computer game to the Board on behalf of the person.

- (2) Despite subsection (1), the prosecution may refuse to forward the application until all fees payable to the Board for the classification and the postage costs associated with the application are given to the prosecution.

[Section 117B inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 33.]

Division 2 — Infringement notices

[Heading inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117C. Infringement notices

In this Division —

“designated person” in section 117D, 117E, 117F or 117G means a person appointed under section 117J to be a designated person for the purposes of the section in which the term is used.

[Section 117C inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117D. Giving of infringement notice

A member of the police force or a designated person who has reason to believe that a person has committed a prescribed offence under this Act may, within 35 days after the alleged offence is believed to have been committed, give an infringement notice to the alleged offender.

[Section 117D inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117E. Content of infringement notice

- (1) An infringement notice is to be in the prescribed form and is to —
 - (a) contain a description of the alleged offence;
 - (b) advise that if the alleged offender does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence in a court, the amount of money specified in the notice as being the modified penalty for the offence may be paid to a designated person within a period of 28 days after the giving of the notice; and
 - (c) inform the alleged offender as to who are designated persons for the purposes of receiving payment of modified penalties.
- (2) In an infringement notice the amount specified as being the modified penalty for the offence referred to in the notice is to be the amount that was the prescribed modified penalty at the time the alleged offence is believed to have been committed.
- (3) The modified penalty that may be prescribed for an offence is not to exceed 20% of the maximum penalty that could be imposed for that offence by a court.

[Section 117E inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

117F. Extension of time

A designated person may, in a particular case, extend the period of 28 days within which the modified penalty may be paid and the extension may be allowed whether or not the period of 28 days has elapsed.

[Section 117F inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117G. Withdrawal of infringement notice

- (1) A designated person may, whether or not the modified penalty has been paid, withdraw an infringement notice by sending to the alleged offender a notice in the prescribed form stating that the infringement notice has been withdrawn.
- (2) If an infringement notice is withdrawn after the modified penalty has been paid, the amount is to be refunded.

[Section 117G inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117H. Benefit of paying modified penalty

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if the modified penalty specified in an infringement notice has been paid within 28 days or such further time as is allowed and the notice has not been withdrawn.
- (2) If this subsection applies it prevents the bringing of proceedings and the imposition of penalties to the same extent that they would be prevented if the alleged offender had been convicted by a court of, and punished for, the alleged offence.
- (3) Payment of a modified penalty is not to be regarded as an admission for the purposes of any proceedings, whether civil or criminal.

[Section 117H inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117I. Application of penalties collected

An amount paid as a modified penalty is, subject to section 117G(2), to be dealt with as if it were a penalty imposed by a court as a penalty for an offence.

[Section 117I inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

117J. Appointment of designated persons

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, appoint persons or classes of persons to be designated persons for the purposes of section 117D, 117E, 117F or 117G or for the purposes of 2 or more of those sections.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may appoint, under that subsection, persons or classes of persons appointed under the Public Service Act 1999 of the Commonwealth, or an Act enacted in substitution for that Act, to be designated persons for the purposes of section 117D.
- (3) A person who is authorised to give infringement notices under section 117D is not eligible to be a designated person for the purposes of any of the other sections.

[Section 117J inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 34.]

[Part 10 (s. 118-128) repealed by No. 30 of 2003 s. 35.]

Part 11 — Registration of persons and premises

128A. Registrar

- (1) The Minister is to appoint a person employed under Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 to be the Censorship Registrar.
- (2) A person may hold the office of Registrar in conjunction with any other office in the Public Service.
- (3) The Registrar has the functions that are conferred by this Act.
[Section 128A inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 36.]

129. Registered person

- (1) Any person who is carrying on or intends to carry on the business of publishing publications may apply to the Registrar to be registered for the purpose of selling publications classified Category 1 restricted or Category 2 restricted, or both.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Registrar must grant an application for registration made under this Part.
- (3) The Registrar may refuse to grant an application for registration on the grounds that —
 - (a) the applicant, or where the applicant is a body corporate, an individual concerned with the control and management of the body corporate, has been convicted of an offence against this Act that renders the applicant an unsuitable person to be registered;
 - (b) the applicant, or where the applicant is a body corporate, an individual concerned with the control and management of the body corporate, has previously been registered under this Part and the Registrar cancelled or refused to renew that registration;
 - (c) the applicant, or where the applicant is a body corporate, an individual concerned with the control and management of the body corporate, is not of good character and a fit and proper person to be registered; or

- (d) the application contains or is accompanied by information that is false or misleading to a significant extent.

[Section 129 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 37 and 39.]

130. Registered premises

- (1) An applicant for registration under section 129 must specify in the application each of the premises at which the applicant carries on, or proposes to carry on, the business of publishing publications.
- (2) Where the Registrar grants an application for registration under section 129, the Registrar is to register the premises specified in the application in the name of the registered person.
- (3) A registered person may at any time apply to the Registrar in the approved form for premises at which the registered person proposes to carry on the business of publishing publications to be registered and the Registrar is to register those premises in the name of the registered person.

[Section 130 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

131. Form of application

- (1) An application for registration or renewal of registration must be —
 - (a) in writing;
 - (b) in a form approved by the Minister in writing;
 - (c) signed by or on behalf of the applicant;
 - (d) accompanied by the prescribed fee; and
 - (e) accompanied by such information as the Registrar requires.

s. 132

- (2) The Registrar may require an applicant to provide such information as the Registrar considers necessary in any particular case, and may require the applicant to verify the information by statutory declaration.

[Section 131 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

132. Notice of decision

If the Registrar refuses to grant an application for registration under section 129, or refuses to register premises under section 130, the Registrar must give notice in writing of that decision to the applicant.

[Section 132 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

133. Certificates of registration

- (1) On registering a person under this Part the Registrar must issue to the person a certificate of registration in the approved form.
- (2) A certificate of registration has effect for the period that the person to whom it is issued is registered under this Part.
- (3) In the absence of evidence to the contrary a certificate of registration is evidence that —
- (a) the person to whom the certificate is issued is a registered person; and
 - (b) that premises specified in the certificate are registered premises.
- (4) In subsection (1) —
- “approved form” means a form approved by the Minister in writing.

[Section 133 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

134. Duration of registration

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), registration of a person under this Part has effect for a period of 12 months and may be renewed from time to time for further periods of 12 months.
- (2) The Registrar may cancel or refuse to renew the registration of a person if —
 - (a) the registered person has been convicted of an offence against this Act; or
 - (b) the certificate was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.
- (3) If the Registrar proposes to cancel or refuse to renew registration of a person the Registrar must give the registered person notice in writing of the proposal to cancel or refuse to renew the registration and the reasons for the proposal.
- (4) A notice given under subsection (3) must state that within 14 days after the notice is given the person to whom it is given may make representations in writing to the Registrar concerning the matter, and the Registrar is not to determine the matter without considering any representations received within that period.
- (5) If the Registrar cancels or refuses to renew the registration of a person the Registrar must give notice in writing of that decision to the registered person.
- (6) Premises registered in the name of a registered person cease to be registered premises when that person ceases —
 - (a) to be a registered person; or
 - (b) to carry on business at those premises.

[Section 134 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

s. 135

135. Register

- (1) The Registrar is to cause to be compiled and maintained a register of all registered persons showing in respect of each person —
 - (a) the name of the registered person;
 - (b) the business name, if any, under which the registered person carries on or intends to carry on business;
 - (c) the address of each of the premises registered in the name of the registered person; and
 - (d) such other particulars as are prescribed.
- (2) The register may be kept or prepared in such form as the Registrar thinks fit.
- (3) The Registrar must, as the occasion requires, make such amendments, additions, alterations and corrections in the register as may be necessary to make the register an accurate record of the particulars of all persons and premises registered under this Part.
- (4) The register must be kept in the office of the Registrar.
- (5) The Registrar may permit any person, on payment of the prescribed fee (if any), to inspect the register during office hours and to copy part or all of the register.

[Section 135 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

136. Change of particulars

Where a person registered under this Part —

- (a) ceases to carry on business at registered premises; or

- (b) commences to carry on the business of publishing publications under a business name other than a business name specified on the register, that person must, within 7 days of that event occurring, give notice of that event in writing to the Registrar.

Penalty: $200.

[Section 136 amended by No. 30 of 2003 s. 39.]

[137. Repealed by No. 30 of 2003 s. 40.]

Part 12 — General

[138, 139. Repealed by No. 30 of 2003 s. 40.]

140. Power to demand name, age and address

- (1) A person who —
- (a) displays, sells or supplies a publication to another person or is about to display, sell or supply a publication to another person; and
 - (b) has reasonable cause to suspect that the other person has contravened or is about to contravene a provision of Part 7, may demand the name, age and address of that other person.

- (2) A person who —
- (a) exhibits, sells or supplies a film to another person or is about to exhibit, sell or supply a film to another person; and
 - (b) has reasonable cause to suspect that the other person has contravened or is about to contravene a provision of Part 7, may demand the name, age and address of that other person.

s. 141A

- (d) an advertisement described in the certificate is approved or has been refused approval or has not been approved, is evidence of, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary is proof of, the facts stated in the certificate.

[Section 141 inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 38.]

141A. Proof of classification by agreement

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a person is charged with an offence against this Act, the prosecution may, prior to the trial, give the accused a notice —
 - (a) setting out —
 - (i) the title or apparent title (if any) of the publication, film or computer game; and
 - (ii) particulars of the offence in relation to which the notice is served;
 - (b) stating that the accused is entitled to view the publication, film or computer game;
 - (c) inviting the accused to indicate, by completing and signing a statement to that effect set out in the notice and returning the notice to an address set out in the notice, that the accused agrees that, on a specified date, the publication, film or computer game —
 - (i) was classified at the specified classification;
 - (ii) was unclassified but would, if classified, have been of the specified classification; or
 - (iii) was unclassified,as the case may require; and
 - (d) stating that if the accused does not indicate his or her agreement in accordance with paragraph (c) within the period specified in the notice (being not less than the prescribed period), the accused will, if found guilty of the offence specified in the notice, be liable to pay an amount equal to —

- (i) if the offence in relation to which the notice is served involves an allegation that on a specified date, a publication, film or computer game was unclassified but would, if classified, have been of a particular classification — the fee for classification of the publication, film or computer game; or
 - (ii) if the offence in relation to which the notice is served involves an allegation that, on a specified date, a publication, film or computer game was classified at a particular classification or was unclassified — the fee for obtaining a certificate of a kind described in section 141 specifying the classification of the publication, film or computer game at that date or stating that the publication, film or computer game was unclassified at that date.
- (2) This section does not apply where the offence with which a person is charged involves an allegation that a publication, film or computer game was unclassified but would, if classified, be classified at a classification other than X 18+ or RC.
- (3) A person served with a notice under this section must, on making a written request to the prosecution within 14 days from the date of service of the notice, be allowed to view the publication, film or computer game the subject of the notice at a time and place fixed by the prosecution.
- (4) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, a notice under this section containing a statement, completed and signed by the accused, that the accused agrees that, on a specified date, the publication, film or computer game —
- (a) was classified at the specified classification;

s. 141A

- (b) was unclassified but would, if classified, have been of a specified classification; or
- (c) was unclassified,

is evidence of, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary is proof, of the matter agreed.

(5) If —

- (a) a person served with a notice under this section does not deliver the notice, duly completed and signed, to the address specified in the notice within the period specified in the notice; and
- (b) the person is found guilty of the offence specified in the notice, the prosecution is entitled, on application to the court making the finding of guilt, to recover from the person an amount equal to the fee described in the notice.

(6) In proceedings in which an application referred to in subsection (5) is made, a certificate signed or purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police and stating that —

- (a) a person was served with a notice set out in the certificate and did not return the notice, duly completed and signed, to the address specified in the notice within the period specified in the notice; and
- (b) that a specified amount was paid as the fee described in the notice, is evidence of, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary is proof of, the facts stated in the certificate.

(7) If —

- (a) a notice is served under this section in relation to an offence involving an allegation that a publication, film or computer game was unclassified but would, if classified, have been of a specified classification;

- (b) the person served with the notice does not return the notice, duly completed and signed, to the address specified in the notice within the period specified in the notice; and
- (c) the publication, film or computer game is subsequently classified at a higher classification than the classification specified in the notice, this section applies as if the notice had specified that higher classification.

- (8) In this section —

“prescribed period” means 14 days from the date of service of the notice or, if the person served with the notice requests that he or she be allowed to view the publication, film or computer game the subject of the notice, 14 days from the time fixed by the prosecution for the viewing.

[Section 141A inserted by No. 30 of 2003 s. 38; amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82; No. 10 of 2006 s. 35.]
