Division 1A — When person taken to be instructor or in charge of vehicle

[Heading inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 42.]

49AA. Circumstances in which person taken to be instructor or in charge of motor vehicle

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, unless the contrary is shown, a person is to be taken to be an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver if the person is —
 - (a) seated beside the learner driver in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver; or
 - (b) if there is no seat directly beside the learner driver —
 - (i) seated in the seat nearest the learner driver that faces forward in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver; or
 - (ii) standing near the learner driver in a motor vehicle driven by the learner driver;or
 - (c) riding in a side car attached, or on a pillion seat fitted, to a motor cycle driven by the learner driver.
- (2) Without limiting the circumstances in which a person is in charge of a motor vehicle, an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver is, for the purposes of this Part

(other than sections 49AB and 66A), to be taken to be in charge of the motor vehicle driven by the learner driver.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect any liability of a learner driver for any offence committed by that person while driving or being in charge of a vehicle.

[Section 49AA inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 42.]

Division 1 — Driving of vehicles: general offences

[Heading inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 6.]

49AB. Term used: circumstances of aggravation

- (1A) In this section an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver is not to be taken, under section 49AA, to be in charge of the motor vehicle driven by the learner driver.
- (1) For the purposes of this Division, a person commits an offence in circumstances of aggravation if at the time of the alleged offence —
- (a) the person was unlawfully driving the vehicle concerned without the consent of the owner or person in charge of the vehicle; or
 - (b) the person was driving the vehicle concerned on a road at 45 km/h or more above the speed limit; or
 - (c) the person was driving the vehicle concerned to escape pursuit by a police officer.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c) it does not matter whether the pursuit was proceeding, or had been suspended or terminated, at the time of the alleged offence.

[Section 49AB inserted by No. 59 of 2012 s. 4; amended by No. 59 of 2012 s. 12; No. 25 of 2016 s. 43; No. 51 of 2016 s. 6.]

49. Driving while unlicensed or disqualified

- (1) A person who —
- (a) drives a motor vehicle on a road while not authorised under the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 Part 2 to do so; or
 - (b) employs or permits another person to drive a motor vehicle as described in paragraph (a),

commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection:

- (a) unless subsection (3) applies —
 - (i) for a first offence, 6 PU;
 - (ii) for a subsequent offence, 12 PU;
- (b) if subsection (3)(d), but no other paragraph of subsection (3), applies —
 - (i) a fine of not less than 4 PU or more than 30 PU; and
 - (ii) imprisonment for not more than 12 months, and the court may order that the offender be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not more than 3 years;
- (c) if subsection (3)(a), (b), (ca), (c) or (da) applies —
 - (i) for a first offence, a fine of not less than 8 PU or more than 40 PU, and imprisonment for not more than 12 months;
 - (ii) for a subsequent offence, a fine of not less than 20 PU or more than 80 PU, and imprisonment for not more than 18 months, and the court shall order that the offender be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 9 months and not more than 3 years.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 1 Driving of vehicles: general offences

s. 49

- (2) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (1) to prove that the motor vehicle was driven in accordance with —
- (a) regulations referred to in the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 11(1); or
 - (b) a necessity permit under section 49A.
- (3) If an offence under subsection (1)(a) is committed by a person —
- (a) who has applied for, but has been refused, an Australian driver licence of a kind required; or
 - (b) who, at the time of the commission of the offence, is disqualified from holding or obtaining an Australian driver licence of a kind required, other than for the reason described in paragraph (d), whether or not the person has ever held an Australian driver licence of the kind required; or
 - (ca) who has held an Australian driver licence of a kind required but ceased to hold the licence of that kind most recently held other than —
 - (i) because the person had, before the time of the commission of the offence, voluntarily surrendered the licence most recently held; or
 - (ii) because the licence expired; or
 - (iii) for the reason described in paragraph (d);or
 - (c) whose authority to drive, whether under an Australian driver licence or otherwise, is for the time being suspended other than for the reason described in paragraph (d); or
 - (da) who is a member of a class of persons prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph by regulations made for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 5A; or

(d) who is no longer authorised to drive because of penalty enforcement laws, as described in subsection (9), a police officer may, without a warrant, arrest the person.

(4) A person who would only come within a description in subsection (3)(a), (b), (ca) or (c) because of a decision for the review of which an application had been made is excluded from that description if the application had been made, but not determined, when the offence under subsection (1)(a) was committed.

(5) If a person to whom the CEO has been ordered under the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 30(1) to grant an extraordinary licence commits an offence under subsection (1)(a) —

- (a) before the extraordinary licence is granted; or
- (b) when the extraordinary licence has expired and has not been renewed, neither the order nor any extraordinary licence granted affects subsection (3).

(6) An offence under subsection (1) is a subsequent offence if the offender has previously been convicted of any offence under that subsection as in force at any time, except that, if subsection (3)(a), (b), (ca) or (c) applies to an offence under subsection (1)(a), the offence is a subsequent offence only if the person has previously been convicted of a relevant offence.

(7) In subsection (6) —

relevant offence means —

- (a) an offence under subsection (1)(a) as in force after the commencement of section 7 of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2006⁺ being an offence to which subsection (3)(a), (b), (ca) or (c) applied; or
- (b) an offence under subsection (1)(a) as in force at a time before the commencement of section 7 of the Road

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

s. 49A

*Traffic Amendment Act 2006*¹ being an offence that would have been taken into account in determining whether another offence committed before that commencement, in circumstances mentioned in section 49(2)(a)(ii) or (iii) or (2)(b) as then in force, would have been a first or subsequent offence.

- (8) A period of disqualification ordered under subsection (1) is cumulative upon —
- (a) any other period of disqualification to which the person may then be subject; or
 - (b) any period for which the operation of a driver's licence held by the person may currently be suspended.
- (9) When subsection (3)(d) refers to a person who is no longer authorised to drive because of penalty enforcement laws, it means that the person —
- (a) has been disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence under section 19 or 43 of the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994; or
 - (b) is the subject of any disqualification or suspension under a law of another jurisdiction that is prescribed to be a corresponding law for the purposes of this subsection.

[Section 49 inserted by No. 54 of 2006 s. 7; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 10 and 37; No. 2 of 2015 s. 11; No. 25 of 2016 s. 62.]

49A. Person breaching s. 49(1)(a) having lost licence etc. due to penalty enforcement laws, police may caution etc.

- (1) This section applies if a police officer finds a person (the driver) committing an offence under section 49(1)(a) in the circumstances referred to in section 49(3)(d).

- (2) If this section applies and the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that, at the time of committing the offence, the driver —
- (a) did not know of the circumstances referred to in section 49(3)(d); and
 - (b) had not been cautioned previously under this section since those circumstances came about, the police officer may decline to charge the driver with an offence under section 49(1)(a) and may instead issue a caution to the driver.

- (3) The caution must be in a prescribed form.
- (4) If this section applies and it appears to the police officer that it would be impracticable, or may jeopardise the safety of any person, for the driver to immediately cease driving —
- (a) if the police officer issues a caution, the caution must include a necessity permit; and
 - (b) in any other case, the police officer may grant the driver a necessity permit.

- (5) In subsection (4) —

necessity permit means a permit for the driver to drive by the shortest practicable route to a place specified in the permit.

[Section 49A inserted by No. 54 of 2006 s. 8.]

s. 54

authority (as defined in the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 3(1)) is required —

- (a) while driving a motor vehicle on a road, to carry —
 - (i) the official document that is evidence of that licence or authorisation; and
 - (ii) if the official document is not in the English language, a translation of it into the English language verified by a person or body approved by the CEO;
 - and
 - (b) to produce that document for inspection at the request of any police officer.
- (2) If the person fails to comply with any condition to which the licence or authorisation is subject that can lawfully be complied with in this State, the person commits an offence.

Penalty:

- (a) for a first offence, 8 PU;
- (b) for a subsequent offence, 16 PU.

[Section 50A inserted by No. 54 of 2006 s. 10; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 11A (as amended by No. 10 of 2015 s. 14), 36 and 37.]

[53. Deleted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 11.]

54. Driver in incident occasioning bodily harm to stop, ensure assistance and give information

- (1) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning bodily harm to another person, the driver must stop immediately after the occurrence of the incident and for as long as is necessary to comply with subsections (2) and (6).

(2) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning bodily harm to another person (a victim), the driver must ensure that each victim receives all the assistance, including medical aid, that is necessary and practicable in the circumstances.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits a crime.

Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for —

- (a) 20 years, if the incident occasioned death and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years;
- (b) 14 years, if the incident occasioned grievous bodily harm but not death and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years;
- (c) 10 years, in any other case and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months.

Summary conviction penalty in a case to which paragraph (c) applies: imprisonment for 3 years and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months.

[(4) deleted]

(5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (3) for the accused to prove that the accused was not aware of the occurrence of the incident.

- (6) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning bodily harm to another person (a victim), the driver must, if required to do so by a victim, a representative of a victim, or a police officer, give the driver's name and address and, if known to the driver, the name and address of a responsible person for the vehicle.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 30 PU.

- (7) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (3) or (6) for the accused to prove that the accused could not comply with a requirement in the relevant provision because of an injury suffered by the accused in the incident.

[Section 54 inserted by No. 39 of 2007 s. 20; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 5.]

55. Driver in incident occasioning property damage to stop and give information

- (1) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident in which any property is damaged, the driver must stop immediately after the occurrence of the incident and for as long as is necessary to comply with subsection (4).

Penalty: a fine of 30 PU.

- (2) If in the opinion of the court an offence under subsection (1) is of a sufficiently serious nature the court may make an order disqualifying the offender from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for such period as it thinks fit.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (1) for the accused to prove that the accused was not aware of the occurrence of the incident.
- (4) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident in which any property is damaged, the driver must, if required to do so by a person whose property was damaged in the incident or a representative of that person or a police officer, give the driver's name and address and, if known to the driver, the name and address of a responsible person for the vehicle.

Penalty: a fine of 30 PU.

- (5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (1) or (4) for the accused to prove that the accused could not comply with a requirement in that subsection because of an injury suffered by the accused in the incident.

[Section 55 inserted by No. 39 of 2007 s. 20; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37.]

56. Driver in incident occasioning bodily harm or property damage to report incident to police

- (1) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning bodily harm to the driver or another person, the driver must report the incident forthwith to —
- (a) the officer in charge of a police station; or
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police in a manner approved by the Commissioner.
- (2) If a person contravenes subsection (1) and the incident occasioned death or grievous bodily harm, the person commits a crime.

Penalty: imprisonment for 10 years and in any event the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months.

Summary conviction penalty: imprisonment for 12 months and in any event the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months.

- (3) If a person contravenes subsection (1) and the incident did not occasion death or grievous bodily harm, the person commits an offence.

Penalty: imprisonment for 12 months and in any event the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months.

- (4) If a vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident in which any property is damaged the driver must report the incident forthwith to —
- (a) the officer in charge of a police station; or
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police in a manner approved by the Commissioner.

Penalty:

- (a) for a first offence, a fine of 8 PU;
- (b) for a subsequent offence, a fine of 16 PU.

- (5) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (2), (3) or (4) for the accused to prove that —
- (a) the accused could not comply with a requirement in the relevant provision because of an injury suffered by the accused in the incident; or
 - (b) a police officer attended at the scene of the incident and took the necessary particulars of the incident.
- (6) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection (4) for the accused to prove —
- (a) that the accused had reasonable cause for believing that the total value of the damage did not exceed the amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection; and

- (b) that the owner, in each case, of any property damaged was present or represented at the place where and at the time when, or immediately after, the incident occurred.

[Section 56 inserted by No. 39 of 2007 s. 20; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 6.]

57. Owner etc. of vehicle occasioning bodily harm etc. to help police identify driver etc.

- (1) Where the use of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or been an immediate or proximate cause of, the death of a person or bodily harm to a person, a responsible person for the vehicle and any person to whom the possession or control of the vehicle was entrusted shall, if required by a police officer, give any information which it is in his power to give which may lead to the identification of the person who was driving or who was in charge or control of the vehicle at the time when the use of the vehicle occasioned or was an immediate or proximate cause of the death or bodily harm.
- (2) A person who is required under subsection (1) by a police officer to give information must not in response to the request give false information.

Penalty: applicable to subsections (1) and (2), a fine of 60 PU or imprisonment for 12 months.

[Section 57 amended by No. 105 of 1981 s. 19; No. 11 of 1988 s. 24; No. 50 of 1997 s. 13; No. 39 of 2000 s. 31; No. 39 of 2007 s. 21; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37.]

[58, 58A. Deleted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 12.]

59. Dangerous driving causing death or grievous bodily harm

- (1) If a motor vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, another person and the driver was, at the time of the incident, driving the motor vehicle —
- (a) while under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (ba) while under the influence of drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (bb) while under the influence of alcohol and drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (b) in a manner (which expression includes speed) that is, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, dangerous to the public or to any person, the driver commits a crime and is liable to the penalty in subsection (3).

Summary conviction penalty in a case in which the incident does not occasion the death of another person:
imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of 720 PU and in any event the court convicting the person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years.

- (2A) For an offence against this section that was committed before the day on which the Manslaughter Legislation Amendment Act 2011 section 6(1) came into operation¹ amending subsection (1), subsection (1) applies as if that amendment had not been made.
- (2) For the purposes of this section —
- [(a) deleted]*

- (b) it is immaterial that the death or grievous bodily harm might have been avoided by proper precaution on the part of a person other than the person charged or might have been prevented by proper care or treatment; and
 - (c) when an incident occasions grievous bodily harm to a person and that person receives surgical or medical treatment, and death results either from the harm or the treatment, the incident is deemed to have occasioned the death of that person, although the immediate cause of death was the surgical or medical treatment if the treatment was reasonably proper in the circumstances and was applied in good faith.
- (3) A person convicted on indictment of an offence against this section is liable —
- (a) if the offence is against subsection (1)(a), (ba) or (bb), or the offence is against subsection (1)(b) and is committed in circumstances of aggravation, to a fine of any amount and to imprisonment for —
 - (i) 20 years, if the person has caused the death of another person; or
 - (ii) 14 years, if the person has caused grievous bodily harm to another person;
 - or
 - (b) in any other circumstances, to a fine of any amount and to imprisonment for —
 - (i) 10 years, if the person has caused the death of another person; or
 - (ii) 7 years, if the person has caused grievous bodily harm to another person, and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 1 Driving of vehicles: general offences

s. 59A

- (4A) A court sentencing a person for an offence against this section committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c) must —
- (a) sentence the person to a term of imprisonment of at least 12 months; and
 - (b) not suspend the term of imprisonment.
- (4B) Subsection (4A) applies whether the person was convicted on indictment or summarily and despite the Sentencing Act 1995 Part 5.
- (4) On the summary trial of a person charged with an offence against this section the person may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 59A, 59BA(1), 61 or 62.

[Section 59 amended by No. 89 of 1978 s. 12; No. 82 of 1982 s. 9; No. 11 of 1988 s. 24; No. 37 of 1991 s. 6(2); No. 1 of 1992 s. 6; No. 50 of 1997 s. 13; No. 4 of 2004 s. 58; No. 44 of 2004 s. 5; No. 39 of 2007 s. 22; No. 29 of 2008 s. 38; No. 58 of 2011 s. 6; No. 59 of 2012 s. 6; No. 2 of 2015 s. 4; No. 25 of 2016 s. 23.]

59A. Dangerous driving causing bodily harm

- (1) If a motor vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning bodily harm to another person and the driver was, at the time of the incident, driving the motor vehicle —
- (a) while under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (ba) while under the influence of drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (bb) while under the influence of alcohol and drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or

- (b) in a manner (which expression includes speed) that is, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, dangerous to the public or to any person, the driver commits an offence.
- (2) For the purposes of this section —
- [(a) deleted]
- (b) it is immaterial that the bodily harm might have been avoided by proper precaution on the part of a person other than the person charged or might have been prevented by proper care or treatment.
- (3) Subject to subsection (3a), a person convicted of an offence against subsection (1) is liable —
- (a) for a first offence, to a fine of 180 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months;
- (b) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of 360 PU or to imprisonment for 18 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 18 months.
- (3a) In the case of an offence under subsection (1)(a), (ba) or (bb), or an offence under subsection (1)(b) committed in circumstances of aggravation, the offence is a crime and a person convicted of it is liable to a fine of any amount and imprisonment for 10 years and in any event the court convicting the person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years.
- Summary conviction penalty: imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of 720 PU and in any event the court convicting the person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 18 months.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 1 Driving of vehicles: general offences

s. 59BA

- (4A) A court sentencing a person for an offence against this section committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c) must —
- (a) sentence the person to a term of imprisonment of at least 6 months; and
 - (b) not suspend the term of imprisonment.
- (4B) Subsection (4A) applies whether the person was convicted on indictment or summarily and despite the Sentencing Act 1995 Part 5.
- (4) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 59BA(1), 61 or 62.

[Section 59A inserted by No. 89 of 1978 s. 13; amended by No. 82 of 1982 s. 10; No. 11 of 1988 s. 24; No. 50 of 1997 s. 13; No. 50 of 2003 s. 92(2); No. 44 of 2004 s. 6; No. 39 of 2007 s. 23; No. 59 of 2012 s. 7; No. 2 of 2015 s. 5; No. 25 of 2016 s. 24.]

59BA. Careless driving causing death, grievous bodily harm or bodily harm

- (1) If a motor vehicle driven by a person (the driver) is involved in an incident occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm or bodily harm to, another person and the driver was, at the time of the incident, driving the motor vehicle without due care and attention, the driver commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 3 years or a fine of 720 PU and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 3 months.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) —
- (a) it is immaterial that the death, grievous bodily harm or bodily harm might have been avoided by proper precaution on the part of a person other than the person charged or might have been prevented by proper care or treatment; and

- (b) when an incident occasions grievous bodily harm to a person and that person receives surgical or medical treatment, and death results either from the harm or the treatment, the incident is deemed to have occasioned the death of that person, although the immediate cause of death was the surgical or medical treatment if the treatment was reasonably proper in the circumstances and was applied in good faith.
- (3) A person charged with an offence against subsection (1) may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 62.

[Section 59BA inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 25.]

59B. Ancillary matters and defences for sections 59, 59A and 59BA

- (1) For the purposes of sections 59, 59A and 59BA(1), the circumstances in which a motor vehicle is involved in an incident occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm or bodily harm to, a person include those in which the death or harm is occasioned through —
- (a) the motor vehicle overturning or leaving a road while the person is being conveyed in or on the motor vehicle (whether as a passenger or otherwise); or
 - (b) the person falling from the motor vehicle while being conveyed in or on it (whether as a passenger or otherwise); or
 - (c) an impact between any object or thing and the motor vehicle while the person is being conveyed in or on the motor vehicle (whether as a passenger or otherwise); or

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 1 Driving of vehicles: general offences

s. 59B

- (d) an impact between the person and the motor vehicle; or
 - (e) an impact of the motor vehicle with another vehicle or an object or thing in, on or near which the person is at the time of impact; or
 - (f) an impact with any object on or attached to the motor vehicle; or
 - (g) an impact with any object that is in motion through falling from the motor vehicle.
- (2) For the purposes of sections 59, 59A and 59BA(1), a motor vehicle is also involved in an incident occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm or bodily harm to, a person if the death or harm is occasioned through the motor vehicle —
- (a) causing an impact between other vehicles or between another vehicle and any object, thing or person; or
 - (b) causing another vehicle to overturn or leave a road; or
 - (c) causing a person being conveyed in or on another vehicle to fall from that other vehicle.

[(3), (4) deleted]

- (5) In any proceeding for an offence against section 59 or 59A a person who had at the time of the alleged offence a blood alcohol content of or above 0.15 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood shall be deemed to have been under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of a motor vehicle at the time of the alleged offence.
- (6) In any proceeding for an offence against section 59 or 59A it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the death, grievous bodily harm or bodily harm occasioned by the incident was not in any way attributable (as relevant) —
- (a) to the fact that the person charged was under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or alcohol and drugs; or

(b) to the manner (which expression includes speed) in which the motor vehicle was driven.

- (7) In any proceeding for an offence against section 59BA(1) it is a defence for the person charged to prove that the death, grievous bodily harm or bodily harm occasioned by the incident was not in any way attributable to the level of care and attention with which the motor vehicle was driven.

[Section 59B inserted by No. 44 of 2004 s. 7; amended by No. 39 of 2007 s. 4; No. 59 of 2012 s. 8; No. 25 of 2016 s. 26.]

60. Driving in reckless manner

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a motor vehicle is driven in a reckless manner if it is driven in a manner (which expression includes speed) that is inherently dangerous or that is, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, dangerous to the public or to any person.

(1A) A person commits an offence if the person wilfully drives a motor vehicle in a reckless manner in —

- (a) a confiscation zone; or
(b) any other place.

[(1b), (1c), (1D) deleted]

- (2) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 60A, 61, 62 or 62A.

 - (a) in a confiscation zone; or
 - (b) on any other length of road.
- (3) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 60(1A), 61 or 62.

[Section 60A inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 8.]

60B. Penalties for offences against sections 60 and 60A

- (1) In this section —
offence means an offence against section 60 or 60A.
- (2) A person convicted of an offence is liable —
 - (a) for a first offence, to a fine of 120 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and
 - (b) for a second offence, to a fine of 180 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and
 - (c) for a third or subsequent offence, to a fine of 240 PU or to imprisonment for 12 months.
- (3) In any event, a court convicting a person —
 - (a) of a first offence, must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 6 months; and
 - (b) of a second offence, must order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months; and

- (c) of a third or subsequent offence, must order that the person be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.
- (4) If an offence is committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c), the offence is a crime.
Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 5 years.
Summary conviction penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 2 years.
- (5) A court sentencing a person for an offence committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c) must —
- (a) sentence the person to a term of imprisonment of at least 6 months; and
 - (b) not suspend the term of imprisonment; and
 - (c) for a first or second offence — order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years; and
 - (d) for a third or subsequent offence — order that the offender is permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.
- (6) Subsection (5) applies whether the person was convicted on indictment or summarily and despite the Sentencing Act 1995 Part 5.
- (7) A reference in subsection (5)(c) or (d) to an offence is a reference to the offence whether or not committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c).
[Section 60B inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 8.]

60C. Arrest without warrant for driving in reckless manner or at reckless speed

A police officer who reasonably suspects that a person has committed an offence against section 60 or 60A may, without a warrant, arrest the person.

[Section 60C inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 8.]

61. Dangerous driving

- (1) Every person who drives a motor vehicle in a manner (which expression includes speed) that is, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, dangerous to the public or to any person commits an offence.
- (2) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 62 or 62A.
- (3) A person convicted of an offence against this section is liable —
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies —
 - (i) for a first offence — to a fine of 60 PU;
 - (ii) for a subsequent offence — to a fine of 120 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 12 months;
 - (b) if the offence is committed in the circumstance of aggravation referred to in section 49AB(1)(c) — to a fine of 720 PU or to imprisonment for 3 years; and, in any event, the court convicting the person must order that the offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by him against section 59, 59A, 60, as in force from time to time, or 60A shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first or subsequent offence.

[Section 61 amended by No. 11 of 1988 s. 24; No. 78 of 1995 s. 147; No. 50 of 1997 s. 13; No. 50 of 2003 s. 92(2); No. 54 of 2006 s. 13; No. 23 of 2009 s. 6; No. 59 of 2012 s. 10; No. 51 of 2016 s. 9.]

61A. Defence for police officers driving in reckless manner in certain circumstances

- (1) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against section 59(1)(b), 59A(1)(b), 60(1A) or 61(1) if the accused satisfies the court that, at the time of the alleged commission of the offence —
 - (a) the accused was on official duty as a police officer; and
 - (b) the driving was substantially in accordance with the Commissioner's policies and guidelines relating to driving, applicable at the time of the driving, and any direction given under such a policy or guideline; and
 - (c) having regard to all of the circumstances of the case, it was reasonable, and in the public interest, for the accused to have driven the motor vehicle in the manner that he or she did.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the application of any other defence the accused may have.

[Section 61A inserted by No. 59 of 2012 s. 11; amended by No. 59 of 2012 s. 12; No. 51 of 2016 s. 10.]

61B. Defence for certain officers driving at reckless speed

The driver of a motor vehicle is not guilty of an offence under section 60A if—

(a) either—

- (i) the driver is on official duty as a police officer and the driving is substantially in accordance with the Commissioner's policies and guidelines relating to driving, applicable at the time of the driving, and any direction given under such a policy or guideline; or
- (ii) the driver is on official duty responding to a fire or fire alarm; or
- (iii) the driver is on official duty responding to an emergency or rescue operation where it is reasonable to assume that human life is likely to be in danger; or
- (iv) the motor vehicle is an ambulance and is being used to answer an urgent call or to convey a person to a place for the provision of urgent medical treatment;

and

- (b) the driver is taking reasonable care; and
- (c) the vehicle is displaying a blue or red flashing light or sounding an alarm unless, in the circumstances, it is reasonable for a light not to be displayed or an alarm not to be sounded.

62B. Providing driving instruction: blood alcohol content

- (1) An instructor who provides driving instruction to a learner driver while having a blood alcohol content of or above 0.05 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood commits an offence.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of not less than 6 PU or more than 10 PU.

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 2A Providing driving instruction to learner drivers: alcohol and drug related offences

s. 62B

- (2) Subsection (4) applies to an instructor who —
- (a) holds an extraordinary licence as defined in the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 3(1); or
 - (b) has, within the last 3 years, ceased to be subject to an order disqualifying the instructor from holding or obtaining a driver's licence imposed for an offence against section 63 or 67, or for a second or subsequent offence against section 64, committed after the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997; or
 - (c) has, within the last 3 years, been granted a driver's licence in a case where the instructor did not hold a driver's licence because it had been cancelled under a cancellation provision as a result of an order disqualifying the instructor from holding or obtaining a driver's licence imposed for an offence against section 63 or 67, or for a second or subsequent offence against section 64, committed after the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997; or
 - (d) is a member of a class of persons prescribed for the purposes of section 64A(2)(g) by regulations made for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 5A.
- (3) In subsection (2)(c) —
- cancellation provision means —
- (a) a provision of the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 Part 3 Division 2 under which a driver's licence may be cancelled; or
 - (b) section 75(2a) or (2b) of this Act as in force at any time before those provisions were deleted by the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Act 2012 section 20.

- (4) An instructor to whom this subsection applies who provides driving instruction to a learner driver while having any blood alcohol content commits an offence.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of not less than 6 PU or more than 10 PU.
- (5) An instructor who provides driving instruction to a learner driver in respect of a motor vehicle that has a GCM that is 22.5 tonnes or more while having any blood alcohol content commits an offence.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of not less than 6 PU or more than 10 PU.
- (6) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (4) or (5) for the accused to prove that the accused's blood alcohol content was not to any extent caused by any of the following —
- (a) the consumption of an alcoholic beverage (otherwise than for the purposes of religious observance);
 - (b) the consumption or use of any other substance (for example, food or medicine) for the purpose of consuming alcohol.
- (7) A person charged with an offence against subsection (1) may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against subsection (4) or (5) if, at the time of the alleged offence, the person was a person to whom subsection (4) or (5) applied.

[Section 62B inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 44; amended by No. 25 of 2016 s. 45.]

62C. Providing driving instruction with prescribed illicit drug in oral fluid or blood

- (1) An instructor who provides driving instruction to a learner driver while a prescribed illicit drug is present in the instructor's oral fluid or blood commits an offence.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of not less than 6 PU or more than 10 PU.

- (2) If in any proceeding for an offence against this section it is proved that a certain drug was present in the accused's body at any time within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the time that the accused was providing the driving instruction, the presence of that drug in the accused's body at the time the accused was providing the driving instruction is to be taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (3) If a person takes a prescribed illicit drug mistakenly believing it to be another drug, that mistake is not a defence in any proceeding for an offence against this section if that other drug is also a drug within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of drug in section 65.

Division 2 — Driving of vehicles: alcohol and drug related offences

[Heading inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 9.]

63. Driving under the influence of alcohol etc.

- (1) A person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle —
- (a) while under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (b) while under the influence of drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle; or
 - (c) while under the influence of alcohol and drugs to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle, commits an offence, and the offender may be arrested without warrant.

- (2) A person convicted of an offence against this section is liable —
- (a) for a first offence —
 - (i) if the person has been previously convicted of an offence against section 64, to a fine of —
 - (I) not less than the minimum fine that would apply if the offence were against that section instead of this section; and
 - (II) not more than 50 PU,and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than the minimum period of disqualification that would apply if the offence were against that section instead of this section;
 - (ii) in any other case, to a fine of not less than 18 PU or more than 50 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 10 months;
- and
- (b) for a second offence, to a fine of not less than 42 PU or more than 70 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 30 months; and
 - (c) for a third or subsequent offence, to a fine of not less than 42 PU or more than 100 PU or to imprisonment for 18 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

s. 63

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by him against section 64AB or 67AA or section 67 as in force after the coming into operation of section 16 of the Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982[†] shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first, second, third or subsequent offence.

(4) The charging of a person with an offence against this section shall not limit the operation of section 66, but the person charged shall immediately be told by the person laying the charge that —

- (a) he has the right to be examined by a medical practitioner nominated by him, if one is available; and
- (b) he has the right to communicate with a legal practitioner and another person nominated by him, and if he desires to exercise any of those rights, every reasonable facility to do so shall be afforded him.

- (4a) The rights and requirements in subsection (4) do not apply unless the person is under arrest or otherwise in custody at the time of being charged.
- (4b) The right in subsection (4)(a), and the requirements relating to it, do not apply if a sample of the person's blood has been taken pursuant to section 66, 66B or 66E before the person is charged.
- (5) In any proceeding for an offence against this section a person who had at the time of the alleged offence a blood alcohol content of or above 0.15 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood shall be deemed to have been under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of a motor vehicle at the time of the alleged offence.

- (6) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of —
- (a) an offence against section 64, 64AA, 64AB or 64AC; or
 - (b) an offence against section 64A(1) or 64AAA(1) if, at the time of the alleged offence, the person was a person to whom section 64A(1) applied; or
 - (c) an offence against section 64A(4) or 64AAA(2) if, at the time of the alleged offence, the motor vehicle concerned was a motor vehicle to which section 64A(4) applied.
- (7) In any proceedings for an offence against subsection (1)(b), it is a defence for the accused to prove —
- (a) that the drugs, under the influence of which the accused is alleged or appears on the evidence to be, were —
 - (i) taken by him pursuant to a prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner or dentist; or
 - (ii) administered to him by a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner or dentist,for therapeutic purposes; and
 - (b) that he was not aware, and could not reasonably have been expected to be aware, that those drugs were likely to render him incapable of having proper control of a motor vehicle.

 $<$ signifies less than

- (2b) For the purposes of this section, an offence is a second or subsequent offence against this section irrespective of the blood alcohol content on the occasion of the commission of any previous offence against this section.
- (2c) For the purposes of this section, where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by the person against section 63, 64, 64A or 67 shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first, second or subsequent offence.
- (3) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of —
- (a) an offence against section 64A(1) or 64AAA(1) if, at the time of the alleged offence, the person was a person to whom section 64A(1) applied; or

- (b) an offence against section 64A(4) or 64AAA(2) if, at the time of the alleged offence, the motor vehicle concerned was a motor vehicle to which section 64A(4) applied.

s. 64A

- (c) is subject to an order disqualifying the person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence imposed for an offence against section 63 or 67, or for a second or subsequent offence against section 64, committed after the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997⁺; or
 - (d) does not hold a driver's licence because it has been cancelled under a cancellation provision as a result of an order disqualifying the person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence imposed on the person upon being convicted of an offence committed after the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997⁺; or
 - (e) holds an extraordinary licence as defined in the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 3(1); or
 - (f) is a recently disqualified driver; or
 - (g) is a member of a class of persons prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph by regulations made for the purposes of the Road Traffic (Authorisation to Drive) Act 2008 section 5A.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), a person is a recently disqualified driver if, within the last 3 years, the person —
- (a) has ceased to be subject to; or
 - (b) has been granted a driver's licence in a case where the person did not hold a driver's licence because it had been cancelled under a cancellation provision as a result of, an order disqualifying the person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence imposed for an offence against section 63 or 67, or for a second or subsequent offence against section 64, committed after the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997⁺.

- (4) A person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle to which this subsection applies while having a blood alcohol content of or above 0.02 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood commits an offence.

Penalty: not less than 3 PU or more than 6 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting a person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 3 months.

- (4A) Subsection (4) does not apply to a person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle described in subsection (5)(a) or (d) if the person —
- (a) is a person of a class prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (b) is driving or attempting to drive the vehicle in the course of responding to an incident as defined in the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1998 section 3.
- (5) Subsection (4) applies to a motor vehicle —
- (a) that is equipped to seat more than 12 adult persons (including the driver), if, at the relevant time, the vehicle is carrying passengers, whether or not the passengers are being carried for hire or reward; or
 - (b) that is an omnibus as defined in the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 4(1), but is not a vehicle referred to in paragraph (a), if, at the relevant time, the vehicle is carrying passengers for hire or reward; or
 - (c) on which taxi plates issued under the Taxi Act 1994 are being used, or in respect of which a taxi-car licence has been issued under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part IIIB, if, at the relevant time, the vehicle is carrying passengers for hire or reward; or
 - (d) that has a GCM that is 22.5 tonnes or more; or
 - (e) that is of a class prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph, if, at the relevant time, the vehicle is being used to transport dangerous goods as

Road Traffic Act 1974

64AAA. Certain persons driving with any blood alcohol content

- (1) A person to whom section 64A(1) applies who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle while having any blood alcohol content commits an offence.
Penalty: not less than 3 PU or more than 6 PU.
- (2) A person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle to which section 64A(4) applies while having any blood alcohol content commits an offence.
Penalty: not less than 3 PU or more than 6 PU.
- (2A) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle described in section 64A(5)(a) or (d) if the person —
- (a) is a person of a class prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph; and

- (b) is driving or attempting to drive the vehicle in the course of responding to an incident as defined in the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1998 section 3.
- (3) It is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (1) or (2) for the accused to prove that the accused's blood alcohol content was not to any extent caused by any of the following —
 - (a) the consumption of an alcoholic beverage (otherwise than for the purposes of religious observance);
 - (b) the consumption or use of any other substance (for example, food or medicine) for the purpose of consuming alcohol.

[Section 64AAA inserted by No. 14 of 2011 s. 9; amended by No. 22 of 2012 s. 139.]

64AB. Driving while impaired by drugs

- (1) A person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle while impaired by drugs commits an offence, and the offender may be arrested without warrant.
- (2) A person convicted of an offence against this section is liable —
 - (a) for a first offence, to a fine of not less than 18 PU or more than 50 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting the person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 10 months; and
 - (b) for a second offence, to a fine of not less than 42 PU or more than 70 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and, in any event, the court convicting the person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 30 months; and

person shall order that the person be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by the person against section 63 or 67AA or section 67 as in force after the coming into operation of section 16 of the Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982⁺ shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first, second, third or subsequent offence.
- (4) Section 63(4) to (4b) extend to the charging of a person with an offence against this section.
- (5) The accused may be convicted of an offence against this section if the prosecutor proves that —
 - (a) the accused drove or attempted to drive a motor vehicle; and
 - (b) one or more drugs were present in the accused's body at the time of that driving or attempted driving; and
 - (c) the conduct, condition or appearance of the accused at or after the time of that driving or attempted driving, or during a driver assessment, was consistent with conduct, a condition or an appearance associated with a person who has consumed or used that drug or those drugs; and
 - (d) the conduct or condition associated with a person who has consumed or used that drug or those drugs would be inconsistent with the person being capable of having proper control of a motor vehicle.
- (6) A person charged with an offence against this section may, instead of being convicted of that offence, be convicted of an offence against section 63 or 64AC.

- (7) If in any proceeding for an offence against this section it is proved that a certain drug was present in the accused's body at any time within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the time of the driving or attempted driving of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence, the presence of that drug in the accused's body at the time of that driving or attempted driving is taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (8) In any proceeding for an offence against this section it is a defence for the accused to prove in respect of the drug, or each drug, referred to in subsection (5) —
- (a) that the drug was —
 - (i) taken pursuant to a prescription of a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner or dentist; or
 - (ii) administered by a medical practitioner, nurse practitioner or dentist, for therapeutic purposes; and
 - (b) that where the drug was received or obtained by the accused in a packaged form, the packaging of the drug did not include a label advising that the drug was likely to result in conduct or a condition that would be inconsistent with the person being capable of having proper control of a motor vehicle; and
 - (c) that the accused was not aware, and could not reasonably have been expected to be aware, that the drug was likely to result in conduct or a condition that would be inconsistent with the person being capable of having proper control of a motor vehicle.
- (9) Subsection (8) has effect despite subsection (5).

[Section 64AB inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 6; amended by No. 35 of 2010 s. 152; No. 14 of 2011 s. 10; No. 25 of 2016 s. 31.]

64AC. Driving with prescribed illicit drug in oral fluid or blood

- (1) A person who drives or attempts to drive a motor vehicle while a prescribed illicit drug is present in the person's oral fluid or blood commits an offence.
- (2) A person convicted of an offence against this section is liable —
 - (a) for a first offence, to a fine of not more than 10 PU; and
 - (b) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of not less than 10 PU or more than 20 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting the person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 6 months.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by the person against section 67AB shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first, second or subsequent offence.
- (4) If in any proceeding for an offence against this section it is proved that a certain drug was present in the accused's body at any time within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the time of the driving or attempted driving of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence, the presence of that drug in the accused's body at the time of that driving or attempted driving is taken to be proved in the absence of proof to the contrary.
- (5) If a person takes a prescribed illicit drug mistakenly believing it to be another drug, that mistake is not a defence in any proceeding for an offence against this section if that other drug is also a drug within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of drug in section 65.

65A. Using breath sample to find blood alcohol content

- (1) For the purposes of sections 59 to 73, inclusive, if the concentration of alcohol in a person's breath is a particular number of grams of alcohol per 210 litres of breath the person's blood alcohol content is to be regarded as being that number of grams of alcohol per 100 ml of blood.
- (2) For the purposes of section 72(2)(a) and the definition of breath analysing equipment in section 65, apparatus is to be regarded as being for the purpose of ascertaining a person's blood alcohol content by analysis of a sample of the person's breath whether the apparatus gives the blood alcohol content directly as the analysis result or enables it to be derived under subsection (1).
- (3) For the purposes of the definition of preliminary test in section 65, apparatus is to be regarded as being for the purpose of providing an indication of the kind mentioned in that definition whether the apparatus gives the indication directly or enables it to be derived under subsection (1).

[Section 65A inserted by No. 39 of 2007 s. 10; amended by No. 25 of 2016 s. 9.]

66. Breath, blood or urine sample, police powers to require etc.

(1) A police officer may require the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle, or any person he has reasonable grounds to believe was the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle, to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary test in accordance with the directions of the police officer, and for the purposes of this subsection may require that person to wait at the place at which the first-mentioned requirement was made.

(1aa) A police officer may —

- (a) call upon the driver of a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle;
- (b) direct the driver of a motor vehicle to wait at a place indicated by the police officer, in order that a requirement may be made under subsection (1).

(1a) Where a police officer —

- (a) has reasonable grounds to believe that the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of, personal injury or damage to property; and
- (b) does not know, or has doubt as to, who was the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use, the police officer may require any person who he has reasonable grounds to believe may have been the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at that time to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary test in accordance with the directions of the police officer, and for the purposes of this subsection may require that person to wait at the place at which the first-mentioned requirement was made.

(1b) Where a person required under subsection (1) or (1a) to provide a sample of breath for a preliminary test is in a motor vehicle, a police officer may require the person to leave the vehicle for the purpose of providing the sample.

(2) Where —

(a) a person having provided a sample of his breath for a preliminary test —

(i) it appears to a police officer that the preliminary test indicates that the person has a blood alcohol content of or above 0.05 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood; or

(ii) it appears to a police officer that the preliminary test indicates that there is alcohol present in the blood of the person and the police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is a person to whom section 62B(4) or (5) or 64A(1) applies or that the motor vehicle concerned is a motor vehicle to which section 64A(4) applies;

or

(b) a person having been so required, refuses or fails to provide, or appears to a police officer to be incapable of providing a sample of his breath for a preliminary test or refuses or fails to provide, or appears to a police officer to be incapable of providing, a sample of his breath in sufficient quantity to enable a preliminary test to be carried out; or

(c) a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has committed an offence against section 63; or

(i) has reasonable grounds to believe that an offence against section 59(1)(a), (ba) or (bb) or 59A(1)(a), (ba) or (bb) has been committed; and

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 2 Driving of vehicles: alcohol and drug related offences

s. 66

- (ii) does not know, or has doubt as to, who was the driver of the motor vehicle concerned, but has reasonable grounds to believe that a person may have been the driver of the motor vehicle; or
- (cb) a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that —
 - (i) an offence against section 59(1)(a), (ba) or (bb) or 59A(1)(a), (ba) or (bb) has been committed by a learner driver; and
 - (ii) a person may have been an instructor providing driving instruction to that learner driver at the time of that offence;
- or
- (d) a police officer —
 - (i) has reasonable grounds to believe that the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of, personal injury or damage to property; and
 - (ii) does not know, or has doubt as to, who was the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use, but has reasonable grounds to believe that a person may have been the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at that time and that, if he was, he has committed an offence against section 63; or
- (e) a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that —
 - (i) the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of, personal injury or damage to property; and
 - (ii) a learner driver was driving or attempting to drive the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use; and

- (iii) a person may have been an instructor providing driving instruction to the learner driver at that time; and
- (iv) at that time, the person would have committed an offence against section 63 if the person had been driving a motor vehicle, a police officer may require that person to provide a sample of his breath for analysis or to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood for analysis or to allow a sample of blood to be so taken and to provide a sample of his urine for analysis, pursuant to the provisions of subsections (4), (5) and (6a), and for the purposes of this subsection may require that person to accompany a police officer to a police station or some other place, and may require that person to wait at any such police station or place.

- (3) A person who is required to supply a sample of his breath for a preliminary test or for analysis shall comply with that requirement by providing the sample of his breath into approved apparatus in accordance with the directions of a police officer or an authorised person, as the case may be.
- (4) A person shall not be required under subsection (2) to provide a sample of his breath for analysis if it appears to a police officer that —
 - [(a) deleted]*
 - (b) the sample of breath could not be provided within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place; or
 - (c) because of his physical condition he is incapable of providing the specimen of breath or a specimen of breath in sufficient quantity for analysis.

(5) Where —

- (a) a police officer might require a person to provide a sample of his breath for analysis under subsection (2) but is precluded from so doing by subsection (4) or section 68(11); or
- (b) a police officer might, by virtue of subsection (1) or (1a), require a person to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary test but it appears to the police officer that the physical condition of the person is such as to render him incapable of providing a sample of his breath in accordance with the directions of the police officer for a preliminary test, then the police officer may require the person to allow a prescribed sample taker nominated by the police officer to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis or where the person is incapable of complying with that requirement, that police officer may cause a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the blood of the person for analysis.

(6) A person shall not be required to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood, and a prescribed sample taker shall not be caused to take a sample of the blood of a person under subsection (5) if it appears to the police officer that the sample cannot be taken within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place.

(6a) Where —

- (a) a police officer might, by virtue of subsection (2)(c), (ca), (cb), (d) or (e), require a person to provide a sample of his breath for analysis but is precluded from so doing by subsection (4); and

- (b) under subsection (5), the police officer requires the person to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood for analysis, the police officer may also require the person to provide the prescribed sample taker with a sample of his urine for analysis.

- (7) Subsection (8B) applies if a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that —
 - (a) the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of serious bodily harm to, or the death of, a person; and
 - (b) a person (the person) may have been the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use.

- (8A) In subsection (7) — serious bodily harm, in relation to a person, means bodily harm that the police officer has reasonable grounds to believe is likely to require the attendance of the person at a hospital (whether or not that is practicable).

- (8B) If this subsection applies, a police officer may —

- (a) require the person to do one or both of the following —
 - (i) allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis;
 - (ii) provide a sample of the person's urine for analysis;

or

- (b) where the person is incapable of complying with that requirement — cause a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis.

- (8C) For the purposes of subsection (8B), a police officer may require the person to accompany a police officer to a police station or some other place, and may require the person to wait at the police station or place.

- (8) A police officer must not make a requirement under subsection (8B)(a), or cause a prescribed sample taker to take a sample under subsection (8B)(b), if it appears to the police officer that the sample cannot be taken or provided within 12 hours after the time of the presence or use of the motor vehicle referred to in subsection (7)(a).

66A. Drug impairment, police powers to require driver assessment for etc.

- (1A) In this section an instructor providing driving instruction to a learner driver is not to be taken, under section 49AA, to be in charge of the motor vehicle driven by the learner driver.
- (1) A police officer may require —
- (a) the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle; or

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 2 Driving of vehicles: alcohol and drug related offences

s. 66A

- (b) any person the police officer has reasonable grounds to believe was the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle, to undergo an assessment of drug impairment if a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is, or was while driving or attempting to drive the motor vehicle, impaired by something, other than alcohol alone, affecting the person's capacity to drive a motor vehicle.

- (2) Where a police officer —
- (a) has reasonable grounds to believe that the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of, personal injury or damage to property; and
- (b) does not know, or has doubt as to, who was the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use, but has reasonable grounds to believe —

- (c) that the person may have been the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at that time; and
- (d) that the person was at that time impaired by something, other than alcohol alone, affecting the person's capacity to drive a motor vehicle, a police officer may require the person to undergo an assessment of drug impairment.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) or (2) a police officer may require a person who is required to undergo a driver assessment to wait at the place at which the requirement was made.
- (4) Where a person required under subsection (1) or (2) to undergo a driver assessment is in a motor vehicle, a police officer may require the person to leave the vehicle for the purpose of undergoing the assessment.

- (5) A person who is required to undergo a driver assessment shall comply with that requirement by undergoing the assessment in accordance with the directions of a police officer.
- (6) A person shall not be required to undergo a driver assessment if it appears to a police officer that —
 - (a) the driver assessment could not be conducted within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place; or
 - (b) because of the person's physical condition the person is incapable of undergoing the driver assessment.
- (7) A driver assessment shall be conducted by a police officer in accordance with regulations prescribing the procedure for assessing drug impairment.

66B. Blood or urine sample for drug analysis, police powers to require etc.

- (1) Where —
 - (a) a person having undergone a driver assessment, it appears to a police officer that the assessment indicates that the person is drug impaired; or
 - (b) a person refuses or fails to undergo a driver assessment having been required to do so; or
 - (c) a police officer might require a person to undergo a driver assessment but is precluded from doing so by section 66A(6)(b),a police officer may require the person —
 - (d) to allow a prescribed sample taker nominated by the police officer to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis; or

- (e) to provide a prescribed sample taker nominated by the police officer with a sample of the person's urine for analysis, or to do both of those things, and for the purposes of this subsection may require the person to accompany a police officer to a place, and may require the person to wait at that place.

- (2) Where a person is incapable of complying with a requirement under subsection (1)(d), a police officer may cause a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis.
- (3) Where a person is apparently unconscious or seriously injured a police officer shall facilitate the provision of medical assistance for the person.
- (4) A person shall not be required —
- (a) to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood; or
- (b) to provide a prescribed sample taker with a sample of the person's urine, under subsection (1), and a prescribed sample taker shall not be caused to take a sample of a person's blood under subsection (2), if it appears to the police officer that the sample cannot be taken or provided, as the case may be, within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place.

[Section 66B inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 9; amended by No. 51 of 2010 s. 8; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 40.]

66C. Preliminary oral fluid test, police powers to require etc.

- (1) A police officer may require the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle, or any person he has reasonable grounds to believe was the driver or person in charge of a motor vehicle, to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test.

- (2) A police officer may —
- (a) call upon the driver of a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle;
 - (b) direct the driver of a motor vehicle to wait at a place indicated by the police officer, in order that a requirement may be made under subsection (1).

- (3) Where a police officer —
- (a) has reasonable grounds to believe that the presence of a motor vehicle has occasioned, or its use has been an immediate or proximate cause of, personal injury or damage to property; and
 - (b) does not know, or has doubt as to, who was the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of that presence or use, the police officer may require any person who he has reasonable grounds to believe may have been the driver or person in charge of the motor vehicle at that time to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) or (3) a police officer may require a person who is required to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test to wait at the place at which the requirement was made.
- (5) Where a person required to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test is in a motor vehicle, a police officer may require the person to leave the vehicle for the purpose of undergoing the test.
- (6) A person who is required to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test shall comply with that requirement by undergoing the test in accordance with the directions of a police officer.

- (7) A preliminary oral fluid test shall be conducted by a police officer in accordance with regulations prescribing the procedure for those tests.

[Section 66C inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 9; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37.]

66D. Oral fluid sample, police powers to require etc.

- (1) Where —
- (a) a person having undergone a preliminary oral fluid test, it appears to a police officer that the test indicates that the person's oral fluid contains a prescribed illicit drug; or
 - (b) a person refuses or fails to undergo a preliminary oral fluid test having been required to do so, a police officer may require the person to provide a sample of the person's oral fluid for drug testing, and for the purposes of this subsection may require the person to accompany a police officer to a place, and may require the person to wait at that place.

- (2) A person who is required under subsection (1) to provide a sample of oral fluid for drug testing shall comply with that requirement by providing the sample in accordance with the directions of an authorised drug tester.
- (3) A person shall not be required under subsection (1) to provide a sample of oral fluid for drug testing if it appears to a police officer that —
- (a) the sample of oral fluid could not be provided within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place; or
 - (b) because of the person's physical condition the person is incapable of providing the sample of oral fluid.

- (4) Where, under subsection (1), a person provides a sample of oral fluid for drug testing, an authorised drug tester shall —
- (a) collect the sample in the manner prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) conduct drug testing of the sample by an approved device in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the regulations.

66E. Blood sample instead of oral fluid sample, police powers to require etc.

- (1) Where a police officer might, under section 66D(1), require a person to provide a sample of oral fluid for drug testing but is precluded from doing so by section 66D(3)(b), a police officer may require the person to allow a prescribed sample taker nominated by the police officer to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis, and for the purposes of this subsection may require the person to accompany a police officer to a place, and may require the person to wait at that place.
- (2) Where a person is incapable of complying with a requirement under subsection (1), a police officer may cause a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis.
- (3) Where a person is apparently unconscious or seriously injured a police officer shall facilitate the provision of medical assistance for the person.
- (4) A person shall not be required to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of the person's blood under subsection (1), and a prescribed sample taker shall not be caused to take a sample of a person's blood under subsection (2), if it appears to the police officer that the sample cannot be taken or provided, as the case may be, within 4 hours after the time at which driving, attempted driving, use or management of a vehicle in circumstances giving rise to the requirement is believed to have taken place.

[Section 66E inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 9; amended by No. 51 of 2010 s. 9; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 40.]

66F. Prescribed sample takers authorised to take blood samples

- (1) Where under section 66, 66B or 66E a police officer —
 - (a) requires a person to allow a prescribed sample taker nominated by the police officer to take a sample of the person's blood for analysis; or
 - (b) causes a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of a person's blood for analysis, this section authorises the prescribed sample taker to take that sample.

- (2) No action lies against a person who is a prescribed sample taker by reason only of the person taking a sample of another person's blood for analysis under section 66, 66B or 66E.

[Section 66F inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 9; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 40.]

67. Failure to comply with s. 66 requirement to provide sample, allow sample to be taken or to accompany police officer

- (1) In this section requirement means a requirement of a police officer made pursuant to section 66.
- (2) A person, other than a person to whom section 68A(3) applies, who fails to comply with a requirement —
 - (a) to provide a sample of his breath for analysis; or

- (b) to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood for analysis; or
- (c) to provide a prescribed sample taker with a sample of his urine for analysis; or
- (d) to accompany a police officer to a police station or some other place, and to wait at that place, commits an offence, and the offender may be arrested without warrant.

- (3) Subject to subsection (3a), a person convicted of an offence against this section is liable —
 - (a) for a first offence —
 - (i) if the person has been previously convicted of an offence against section 64, to a fine of —
 - (I) not less than the minimum fine that would apply if the offence were against that section instead of this section and the person's blood alcohol content were above 0.14 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood; and
 - (II) not more than 50 PU, and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than the minimum period of disqualification that would apply if the offence were against that section instead of this section and the person's blood alcohol content were above 0.14 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood;
 - (ii) in any other case, to a fine of not less than 18 PU or more than 50 PU; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 10 months;

- (b) for a second offence, to a fine of not less than 42 PU or more than 70 PU or to imprisonment for 9 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 30 months;
- (c) for any subsequent offence, to a fine of not less than 42 PU or more than 100 PU or to imprisonment for 18 months; and, in any event, the court convicting that person shall order that he be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

(3a) If when a requirement is made a police officer —

- (a) advises the person concerned that the police officer believes that the motor vehicle of which the person was, or is believed to have been, the driver has been involved in an incident occasioning the death of, or grievous bodily harm or bodily harm to, another person; and
- (b) explains to the person the consequences under this subsection of failure to comply with the requirement, an offence against this section of failing to comply with that requirement is a crime and a person convicted of it is liable to a fine of any amount and imprisonment for 14 years and in any event the court convicting the person shall order that the person be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 2 years.

Summary conviction penalty in a case in which the incident does not occasion the death of another person:
imprisonment for 18 months or a fine of 160 PU and in any event the court convicting the person shall order that he be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of not less than 18 months.

(3B) For an offence against this section that was committed before the day on which the Manslaughter Legislation Amendment Act 2011 section 7(1) came into operation⁺ amending subsection (3a), subsection (3a) applies as if that amendment had not been made.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), where a person is convicted of an offence against this section any offence previously committed by him against section 63 shall be taken into account and be deemed to have been an offence against this section (but not to the exclusion of any other previous offence against this section) in determining whether that first-mentioned offence is a first, second, third or subsequent offence but any offence committed by him against this section as in force before the coming into operation of section 16 of the Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982[†] shall not be taken into account for that purpose.
- (5) It shall be a defence to a prosecution for an offence against this section if the accused satisfies the court that there was some substantial reason for his failure to comply other than a desire to avoid providing information that might be used as evidence.
- (6) Without limiting the generality of subsection (5) it shall be a defence to a prosecution for failing to comply with a requirement mentioned in subsection (2)(c) if the accused satisfies the court that he attempted to comply with the requirement.

- (6) Without limiting the generality of subsection (5), it is a defence to a prosecution for failing to comply with a requirement under section 66, to provide a urine sample, if the accused satisfies the court that the accused attempted to comply with the requirement.
- (7) Without limiting the generality of subsection (5), it is a defence to a prosecution for failing to comply with a requirement to provide a sample of breath for a preliminary test if the accused satisfies the court that the accused complied with a requirement under section 66, to provide a sample of breath for analysis or to allow a sample of blood to be taken for analysis, that arose out of —
 - (a) the accused's failure to comply with the requirement to provide a sample of breath for a preliminary test; or

- (b) the circumstances that gave rise to the requirement to provide a sample of breath for a preliminary test.

[Section 68A inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 52.]

68. Breath sample, analysis of etc.

- (1) Where, pursuant to section 66, a person provides a sample of his breath for analysis the analysis shall be made by breath analysing equipment.
 - (1a) If the breath analysing equipment is not self-testing breath analysing equipment subsections (1b) to (4) shall have effect in relation to the analysis.
 - (1b) The breath analysing equipment shall be operated by an authorised person and shall be operated in accordance with the regulations relating to analysis by breath analysing equipment of the relevant type.
- (2) At the conclusion of the analysis the authorised person shall determine in accordance with the regulations whether the breath analysing equipment is in proper working order.
- (3) Subject to subsection (11), if the breath analysing equipment is determined not to be in proper working order a police officer may again require the person to provide a sample of his breath for analysis or to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood for analysis under section 66(2).
- (4) If the breath analysing equipment is determined to be in proper working order —
 - (a) the result indicated by the breath analysing equipment at the conclusion of the analysis shall be the analysis result and the person's blood alcohol content given by or derived under section 65A from the analysis result shall be deemed to be the person's blood alcohol content at the time the sample of breath was provided; and
 - (b) the authorised person shall complete, sign, and hand to the person a statement in writing of the analysis result (which may be by way of an indication on a scale) and of the date and time of the analysis.

- (5) If the breath analysing equipment is self-testing breath analysing equipment subsections (6) to (10) shall have effect in relation to the analysis.
- (6) The breath analysing equipment shall be operated by an authorised person and shall be operated in accordance with the regulations relating to analysis by self-testing breath analysing equipment of the relevant type.
- (7) Subject to subsection (11), if the breath analysing equipment does not indicate a result in the prescribed manner at the conclusion of the analysis, a police officer may again require the person to provide a sample of his breath for analysis or to allow a prescribed sample taker to take a sample of his blood for analysis under section 66(2).
- (8) If the breath analysing equipment indicates a result in the prescribed manner at the conclusion of the analysis, the result so indicated shall be the analysis result and the person's blood alcohol content given by or derived under section 65A from the analysis result shall be deemed to be the person's blood alcohol content at the time the sample of breath was provided.
- (9) Subject to subsection (10), the authorised person shall complete, sign, and hand to the person a statement in writing of the analysis result and of the date and time of the analysis.
- (10) If the manner of indication of a result prescribed for the purposes of subsections (7) and (8) is the printing of a statement by the breath analysing equipment, the authorised person may comply with the requirements of subsection (9) by signing and dating the statement so printed and handing it to the person.
- (11) If the person has provided 2 samples of his breath for analysis under section 66(2) and the analysis of each sample has failed, the person shall not be required to provide another sample of his breath for analysis under section 66(2).

- (12) For the purposes of subsection (11) an analysis of a sample of breath shall be regarded as having failed if, and only if —
- (a) the analysis is made by breath analysis equipment that is not self-testing breath analysing equipment and the breath analysing equipment is determined not to be in proper working order; or
 - (b) the analysis is made by self-testing breath analysing equipment and the breath analysing equipment does not indicate a result in the prescribed manner.

[Section 68 amended by No. 121 of 1987 s. 8; No. 39 of 2000 s. 36; No. 39 of 2007 s. 12; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 40.]

69. Blood sample, taking and analysis of

- (1) Where, pursuant to the provisions of section 66, 66B or 66E, a prescribed sample taker takes a sample of a person's blood for analysis the sample shall be taken in accordance with the regulations, or otherwise in a proper manner, and shall be divided into 2 parts, each of which shall be deemed to be a sample of the person's blood for the purposes of this Act.
- (1a) If, instead of a sample of a person's blood being taken and divided into 2 parts, 2 samples of the person's blood are taken one immediately after the other, and in a manner prescribed in the regulations —
- (a) the taking of those 2 samples is to be regarded as the taking of a single sample at the time at which the first of the 2 samples began to be taken; and
 - (b) each of the 2 samples taken is to be regarded as a part into which the single sample has been divided.
- (2A) The prescribed sample taker must ensure that both samples are delivered to a police officer.
- (2B) One of the samples must be delivered, on behalf of the person from whom the samples were taken, to the Chemistry Centre

(WA) by a police officer or a person appointed or engaged for that purpose.

- (2) Where a sample of blood is analysed for alcohol by an analyst in accordance with the regulations the blood alcohol content of the sample shall be the analysis result and shall be deemed to be the person's blood alcohol content at the time the sample of blood was taken.

[Section 69 amended by No. 105 of 1981 s. 19; No. 39 of 2000 s. 36; No. 54 of 2006 s. 20; No. 6 of 2007 s. 12; No. 39 of 2007 s. 13; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 35 and 40.]

69A. Urine sample, taking of

- (1) Where pursuant to section 66 or 66B a person provides a prescribed sample taker with a sample of his urine for analysis the sample shall be collected in prescribed equipment and shall be divided into 2 parts, each of which shall be deemed to be a sample of the person's urine for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The prescribed sample taker must ensure that both samples are delivered to a police officer.
- (3) One of the samples must be delivered, on behalf of the person who provided the samples, to the Chemistry Centre (WA) by a police officer or a person appointed or engaged for that purpose.

[Section 69A inserted by No. 82 of 1982 s. 17; amended by No. 39 of 2000 s. 36; No. 6 of 2007 s. 13; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 36 and 40.]

69B. Oral fluid sample, taking of

- (1) If the drug testing of a sample of a person's oral fluid under section 66D(4)(b) indicates, in the opinion of the authorised drug tester who conducted the drug testing, that the person's oral fluid contains a prescribed illicit drug, the sample shall be divided into 2 parts, each of which shall be deemed to be a sample of the person's oral fluid for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) The authorised drug tester must ensure that both samples are delivered to a police officer.
- (3) One of the samples must be delivered, on behalf of the person who provided the samples, to the Chemistry Centre (WA) by a police officer or a person appointed or engaged for that purpose.
[Section 69B inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 14; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 25 of 2016 s. 37.]

70A. Blood, urine or oral fluid sample: delivery of person's sample to Chemistry Centre (WA)

- (1) A sample of blood, urine or oral fluid delivered to the Chemistry Centre (WA) on behalf of a person under section 69(2B), 69A(3) or 69B(3) must be retained, and appropriately stored, by the Chemistry Centre (WA) until the person requests the sample.
- (2) The person may, within 3 months after the day on which the sample was delivered to the Chemistry Centre (WA), request that the sample be delivered to an analyst (as defined in the Misuse of Drugs Act 1981 section 3(1)) nominated by the person, for analysis.
- (3) The cost of delivering the sample is to be paid for by the person.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), the Chemistry Centre (WA) need not store the sample for more than 3 months.

[Section 70A inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 38.]

70B. Evidence of delivery of blood, urine or oral fluid samples

- (1) In proceedings for an offence against section 62B, 62C, 63, 64, 64AA, 64A, 64AAA, 64AB or 64AC, evidence of the delivery of a sample to an analyst or drug analyst may be given in the form of a certificate in which a person who took delivery of the sample sets out the prescribed particulars of the delivery of the sample to the person together with their signature.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 2 Driving of vehicles: alcohol and drug related offences

s. 70

- (2) In the absence of evidence to the contrary —
 - (a) it is to be presumed that each signature on the certificate is the signature of the person of whom it purports to be the signature; and
 - (b) the certificate is evidence of its contents.
- (3) Except with the consent of the accused, evidence of the delivery of a sample to a person in the form of a certificate cannot be given in the proceedings and, if it is given, is not admissible, unless a copy of the certificate is given to the accused at least 28 days before the proceedings.
- (4) If a copy of the certificate has been given as required by subsection (3), the accused cannot challenge or call into question a matter set out in the certificate unless —
 - (a) notice in writing of the accused's intention is given to the prosecutor at least 14 days before the proceedings; or
 - (b) the court, in the interests of justice, gives the accused leave to so do.
- (5) A notice under subsection (4)(a) must specify the matter that is to be challenged or called into question.

[Section 70B inserted by No. 25 of 2016 s. 38; amended by No. 25 of 2016 s. 53.]

70. Evidentiary provisions

- (1) Without affecting the admissibility of any other evidence that may then be given, in any proceeding for an offence against section 62B, 64, 64AA, 64A or 64AAA, or for an offence against this or any other Act in which the question whether a person was or was not, or the extent to which he was, under the influence of alcohol at any material time is relevant, evidence may be given of —
 - (a) the provision of a sample of breath by the person for analysis, if provided within 4 hours after the driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence; and

- (b) the analysis of the sample of breath by breath analysing equipment operated by an authorised person; and
 - (c) the determination that breath analysing equipment that was not self-testing breath analysing equipment was in proper working order; and
 - (ca) the manner in which self-testing breath analysing equipment indicated the result of an analysis; and
 - (d) the taking of a sample of blood from the person by a prescribed sample taker, if taken within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence; and
 - (e) the analysis of the sample of blood for alcohol by an analyst; and
 - (f) the analysis result obtained pursuant to section 68 or 69.
- (2) In any proceeding such as is mentioned in subsection (1), a certificate in the prescribed form —
- (a) purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police, certifying that a person therein named is, or was at the material time, an authorised person; or
 - (b) purporting to be signed by the chief executive officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA), certifying that a person therein named is, or was at the material time, an analyst; or
 - (ba) purporting to be signed by an authorised person —
 - (i) certifying that a person therein named provided a sample of breath for analysis on a date and at a time stated therein; and
 - (ii) certifying that a sample of breath so provided was analysed by apparatus operated by him and that apparatus was breath analysing equipment, other than self-testing breath analysing equipment, within the meaning of section 65; and

- (iii) certifying that the breath analysing equipment was operated by him in the prescribed manner and that all regulations relating to analysis by breath analysing equipment of the relevant type were complied with; and
 - (iv) setting out the analysis result obtained from the analysis; and
 - (v) certifying that the breath analysing equipment was determined by him in accordance with the regulations to be in proper working order on the occasion of its operation; and
 - (vi) certifying that in accordance with section 68(4)(b) he completed, signed, and handed to the person by whom the sample of breath was provided, a statement as required by that paragraph; and
 - (vii) certifying that he was at the material time an authorised person;
- or
- (bb) purporting to be signed by an authorised person —
 - (i) certifying that a person therein named provided a sample of breath for analysis on a date and at a time stated therein; and
 - (ii) certifying that the sample of breath so provided was analysed by apparatus operated by him and that apparatus was self-testing breath analysing equipment within the meaning of section 65; and
 - (iii) certifying that the breath analysing equipment was operated by him in the prescribed manner and that the regulations relating to analysis by self-testing breath analysing equipment of the relevant type were complied with; and

- (iv) certifying that the breath analysing equipment indicated a result in the prescribed manner at the conclusion of the analysis; and
- (v) setting out the analysis result obtained from the analysis; and
- (vi) certifying that in accordance with section 68(9) he completed, signed, and handed to the person by whom the sample of breath was provided, a statement as required by that subsection, or that he complied with the requirements of that subsection by signing, dating, and handing to the person, a statement printed by the breath analysing equipment; and
- (vii) certifying that he was at the material time an authorised person;

- (c) purporting to be signed by a technologist of a body approved by the Minister, certifying that identified sampling equipment comprises the prescribed items, that those items have been prepared by him and are sterile and fit for the purpose of taking a sample of blood for analysis if used not later than a specified date; or
- (d) purporting to be signed by a prescribed sample taker, certifying that an identified sample of blood was taken from a named person, on a date and at a time therein specified, in accordance with the regulations using identified sampling equipment, which was received in a described condition from an identified person; or
- (e) purporting to be signed by an analyst, certifying either or both of the following, namely, that an identified sample of blood taken from a named person was analysed for alcohol in accordance with the regulations, and the analysis result obtained from the analysis, is prima facie evidence of the matters therein certified or set out, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner of Police, the chief executive officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA), an authorised person, a technologist, a prescribed sample taker or an analyst (as is relevant).

- (2a) In any proceeding such as is mentioned in subsection (1), evidence by an authorised person that —
- (a) the apparatus operated by him pursuant to section 68 was self-testing breath analysing equipment within the meaning of section 65; or
 - (b) self-testing breath analysing equipment was operated by him in the prescribed manner and the regulations relating to analysis by self-testing breath analysing equipment of the relevant type were complied with; or
 - (c) self-testing breath analysing equipment indicated a result in the prescribed manner on the occasion of its operation, is prima facie evidence of that fact.

- (3) In any proceeding such as is mentioned in subsection (1), evidence by an authorised person that —
- (a) the apparatus operated by him pursuant to section 68 was breath analysing equipment, other than self-testing breath analysing equipment, within the meaning of section 65; or
 - (b) breath analysing equipment was operated by him in the prescribed manner and all regulations relating to analysis by breath analysing equipment of the relevant type were complied with; or
 - (c) breath analysing equipment that was not self-testing breath analysing equipment and was determined by him in accordance with the regulations to be in proper working order on the occasion of its operation, is prima facie evidence of that fact.

- (3a) Without affecting the admissibility of any other evidence that may then be given, in any proceeding for an offence against section 62C or 64AC, or for an offence against this or any other Act in which the question whether a person was or was not, or the extent to which he was, under the influence of or impaired by drugs at any material time is relevant, evidence may be given of —
- (a) the taking of a sample of blood from the person by a prescribed sample taker, if taken within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence; and
 - (b) the provision of a sample of urine by the person for analysis, if provided within 4 hours, or 12 hours if the sample was taken under section 66(8B), after the driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence; and
 - (c) the analysis of a sample of blood or urine for drugs by a drugs analyst and the result obtained from the analysis; and
 - (d) the conduct, condition or appearance of the person at or after the time of the driving or attempted driving of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence or during a driver assessment; and
 - (e) conduct, a condition or an appearance associated with a person who has consumed or used a particular drug or particular drugs; and
 - (f) the usual effect that conduct or a condition associated with a person who has consumed or used a particular drug or particular drugs has on a person's capacity to have proper control of a motor vehicle; and
 - (g) the provision of a sample of oral fluid by the person under section 66D, if provided within 4 hours after the

- driving, attempted driving, use or management of a motor vehicle that gave rise to the alleged offence; and
- (h) the analysis for drugs by a drugs analyst of a sample of oral fluid provided under section 66D, and the result obtained from the analysis.
- (3b) In any proceedings such as is mentioned in subsection (3a), a certificate in the prescribed form —
- (a) purporting to be signed by the chief executive officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA) certifying that a person named therein is, or was at the material time, a drugs analyst; or
 - (b) purporting to be signed by a technologist of a body approved by the Minister, certifying that identified sampling equipment comprises the prescribed items, that those items have been prepared by him and are sterile and fit for the purpose of taking a sample of blood for analysis if used not later than a specified date; or
 - (c) purporting to be signed by a technologist of a body approved by the Minister, certifying that identified sampling equipment comprises the prescribed items, that those items have been prepared by him and are sterile and fit for the purpose of the collection of a sample of a person's urine for analysis if used not later than a specified date; or
 - (d) purporting to be signed by a prescribed sample taker, certifying that an identified sample of blood was taken from a named person, on a date and at a time therein specified, in accordance with the regulations using identified sampling equipment, which was received in a described condition from an identified person; or
 - (e) purporting to be signed by a prescribed sample taker, certifying that an identified sample of urine was provided by a named person on a date and at a time therein specified and was collected using identified sampling equipment which was received in a described condition from an identified person; or

- (f) purporting to be signed by a drugs analyst certifying either or both of the following —
- (i) that an identified sample of blood, urine or oral fluid taken from or provided by a named person was analysed for drugs;
 - (ii) the analysis result obtained from the analysis;
- or
- (g) purporting to be signed by an approved expert describing conduct, a condition or an appearance associated with a person who has consumed or used a drug or drugs specified in the certificate; or
- (h) purporting to be signed by an approved expert setting out the usual effect that conduct or a condition associated with a person who has consumed or used a particular drug or particular drugs has on a person's capacity to have proper control of a motor vehicle; or
- (i) purporting to be signed by a police officer describing the conduct, condition or appearance of a person at or after the time the person drove or attempted to drive a motor vehicle; or
- (j) purporting to be signed by a police officer certifying the following —
- (i) that the police officer conducted a driver assessment on a person named in the certificate on a date and at a time stated in the certificate;
 - (ii) that the assessment was conducted in accordance with the regulations,
- and describing the conduct, condition or appearance of the person during the assessment; or
- (k) purporting to be signed by an authorised drug tester certifying that, under section 66D, an identified sample of oral fluid was collected by the authorised drug tester in accordance with the regulations from a named person on a date and at a time specified in the certificate using identified sampling equipment which was received in a described condition from an identified person, is prima facie evidence of the matters therein certified or set out, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was such chief executive officer, or was such a technologist, or was a prescribed sample taker, drug analyst, approved expert, police officer or authorised drug tester.

- (3c) In any proceeding for an offence against section 67(2)(a) or 68A a certificate in the prescribed form purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police, certifying that a person therein named is, or was at the material time, an authorised person is prima facie evidence of the matters therein certified, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner of Police.
- (3d) In any proceeding for an offence against section 67A(1) or 68A of failing to comply with a requirement made pursuant to section 66D(1) a certificate in the prescribed form purporting to be signed by the Commissioner of Police certifying that a person therein named is, or was at the material time, an authorised drug tester is prima facie evidence of the matters therein certified, without proof of the signature of the person purporting to have signed it or proof that the purported signatory was the Commissioner of Police.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as precluding or restricting the introduction of any competent evidence, whether in addition to, or independent of, any evidence for which provision is made by this section, bearing on the question of whether a person was or was not guilty of an offence against this or any other Act.

- (5) Except at the instance, or with the consent, of the accused in any proceeding such as is mentioned in subsection (3a), a certificate mentioned in subsection (3b)(f), (g) or (h) shall not be adduced, and if adduced shall not be admitted, in that proceeding unless a copy of the certificate is proved to have been served on the accused at least 28 days before the day on which the certificate is adduced.
- (5a) If subsection (5) has been complied with in relation to a certificate, the accused shall not challenge or call into question any matter certified or set out in the certificate unless —
- (a) notice of the accused's intention to do so is proved to have been served on the prosecutor at least 14 days before the day on which the certificate is adduced; or
 - (b) the court, in the interests of justice, gives the accused leave to do so.
- (5b) A notice under subsection (5a)(a) must specify the matter that is to be challenged or called into question.
- (5c) Except at the instance, or with the consent, of that person, evidence that a person underwent a preliminary oral fluid test and of any indication provided by such a test shall not be adduced, and if adduced shall not be admitted, in any proceedings other than proceedings for an offence against section 67AB, 67A or 68A.
- (5d) Except as provided by subsection (3a) or (3b) or at the instance, or with the consent, of that person, evidence that a person provided a sample of the person's oral fluid for drug testing shall not be adduced, and if adduced shall not be admitted, in any proceedings other than proceedings for an offence against section 67AB, 67A or 68A.
- (5e) Except at the instance, or with the consent, of that person, evidence of the result of the drug testing of a sample of a person's oral fluid by an approved device, shall not be adduced, and if adduced shall not be admitted, in any proceedings other than proceedings for an offence against section 67AB, 67A or 68A.

- (6) Except at the instance, or with the consent, of that person, evidence that a person provided a sample of his breath for a preliminary test and of any indication provided by such a test shall not be adduced, and if adduced shall not be admitted, in any proceedings other than proceedings for unlawful arrest or for an offence against section 64AB, 67, 67AA, 67A or 68A.

- (7) In this section —

approved expert means a qualified clinical pharmacologist approved by the Minister for the purpose of this section by notice published in the Gazette;

technologist means —

- (a) a person registered as an analyst under section 203 of the Health (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1911; or
- (b) a person approved, or belonging to a class of persons approved, by the Minister to prepare sampling equipment.

71. Blood alcohol content at material time, how calculated

- (1) In any proceeding such as is mentioned in section 70(1) a person's blood alcohol content at any time which is or may be material in the proceeding (the material time) shall be calculated having regard to —
- (a) the time of the person's last drink containing alcohol taken at or before the material time; and
 - (b) the material time; and

- (c) the time at which the sample of the person's breath or blood was provided or taken for analysis (the time of sampling); and
- (d) the person's blood alcohol content at the time of sampling, so as to give effect to the presumption that after a person's latest drink containing alcohol the person's blood alcohol content increases at the rate of 0.016 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood per hour for a period of 2 hours and, after that period, decreases at the rate of 0.016 g of alcohol per 100 ml of blood per hour.

- (2) For the purpose of making a calculation under subsection (1) in any case where any one or more of the times referred to in that subsection can only be ascertained as falling within a period of time, the calculation shall be made taking such time within that period as produces the result most favourable to the person charged.
- (3) For the purpose of making a calculation under subsection (1) but subject to subsection (2), in any case where the time of a person's last drink containing alcohol is not ascertained, the time of the person's last drink containing alcohol shall be taken to have been such time as produces the result most favourable to the person charged.
- (4) In any proceeding such as is mentioned in section 70(1), the concentration of alcohol calculated to have been present in the blood of a person at any time under the preceding provisions of this section shall be conclusively presumed to have been present in the blood of that person at that time.

[Section 71 amended by No. 39 of 2007 s. 14.]

71A. Samples not to be used to obtain DNA

- (1) In this section —
sample means a sample of blood, urine or oral fluid taken from or provided by a person (the subject) and given to a police officer under section 69, 69A or 69B.

- (2) A person must not use a sample to obtain the subject's DNA.

Penalty: imprisonment for 12 months.

[Section 71A inserted by No. 6 of 2007 s. 16; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37.]

71B. Preventing use of vehicle by alleged offender, police powers for

- (1) If a police officer has reason to suspect that a person (the offender) is driving, is attempting to drive, has driven or has attempted to drive a motor vehicle in contravention of section 63, 64, 64AA, 64A, 64AAA or 64AB, the police officer may require the offender to immediately hand over all keys to any motor vehicle that are there and then in the offender's possession —
- (a) to the police officer; or
 - (b) to another person who is in the company of the offender if the police officer is satisfied that the person —
 - (i) is authorised to drive the vehicle on a road; and
 - (ii) is responsible and is able to drive the vehicle properly.
- (2) A police officer may make a requirement under subsection (1) if satisfied that the requirement is necessary in the circumstances and is in the interest of the offender, or of any other person or of the public, and may do so whether or not the offender has been or is to be charged with an offence.
- (3) If keys to a motor vehicle are handed over under subsection (1)(a), a police officer may take any steps that, in the opinion of the police officer, are appropriate and practicable in order to ensure that the vehicle is not causing any obstruction to traffic and is secure.
- (4) Those steps may include moving the vehicle to a more suitable place.

- (5) If a person requests a police officer to hand over to the person keys to a motor vehicle that have been handed over under subsection (1)(a), the police officer is to comply with the request if satisfied that the person —
- (a) is entitled to lawful possession of the vehicle or is in the company of a person who is entitled to lawful possession of the vehicle; and
 - (b) is authorised to drive the vehicle on a road; and
 - (c) is responsible and able to drive the vehicle properly.
- (6) Before keys to a motor vehicle are handed over to a person under subsection (1)(b) or (5) a police officer may, for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(ii) or (5)(c), require the person to provide a sample of the person's breath for a preliminary test in accordance with the directions of the police officer.
- (7) If keys to a motor vehicle are not handed over within 24 hours after a request is made under subsection (5), the offender may apply to the Magistrates Court, in accordance with its rules of court, for an order for the keys to be handed over to a person named in the application.
- (8) A person who —
- (a) contravenes any requirement made by a police officer under subsection (1); or
 - (b) attempts in any manner to obstruct a police officer in the exercise of any power conferred on the police officer under subsection (1), (3) or (4), commits an offence.

Penalty: 8 PU.

71C. Disqualification by police officer

- (1) This section applies if —
 - (a) a police officer (the police officer), as a result of an analysis of a sample of a person's breath or blood, has reason to suspect that the person (the alleged offender) has committed an offence under section 63 or 64 (the alleged offence); or
 - (b) a police officer (the police officer) has reason to suspect that a person (the alleged offender) has committed an offence against section 67 (the alleged offence).
- (2) If this section applies the police officer may give the alleged offender a notice that is in accordance with this section (a disqualification notice) by delivering the notice to the alleged offender personally.
- (3) The disqualification notice must contain a statement to the effect that the alleged offender is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period commencing on receipt of the notice and ending on the day that is 2 months after the day the notice is received unless before the expiry of that period the notice is revoked under section 71E, 71F or 71G.
- (4) The disqualification notice must —
 - (a) identify the provision under which the notice is given; and
 - (b) specify the grounds on which the notice is given; and
 - (c) identify the time and date on which the alleged offence was committed; and
 - (d) identify where the alleged offence was committed; and
 - (e) describe the alleged offence with reasonable clarity; and
 - (f) identify the provision that creates the alleged offence.
- (5) The disqualification notice must also include a statement to the effect that section 71F contains law about the circumstances in which the alleged offender may apply to a court for an order revoking the notice.

- (6) A disqualification notice cannot be given to an alleged offender —
- (a) if the alleged offence is an offence under section 63 or 64, more than 10 days after the later of —
 - (i) the day of the alleged offence; or
 - (ii) if a sample of the alleged offender's blood was taken under section 66 in connection with the alleged offence, the day on which a police officer receives an analysis result of the sample;
- or
- (b) if the alleged offence is an offence under section 67, more than 10 days after the day of the alleged offence.
- (7) If a police officer gives a person a disqualification notice the police officer must write on the notice the time and date when it was given and the time and date when the disqualification expires.
- (8) A police officer may, by written notice given to a person to whom a disqualification notice has been given, amend the disqualification notice to correct any error in the disqualification notice.
- (9) If a police officer gives a person a disqualification notice or a notice amending a disqualification notice in accordance with this section the police officer must, as soon as is practicable, cause particulars of the notice to be sent to the CEO.

[Section 71C inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 15.]

71D. Disqualification notice (s. 71C), consequences of

- (1) A person who is given a disqualification notice in accordance with section 71C is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for the period set out in the notice unless the notice is sooner revoked.

- (2) The period of disqualification imposed under subsection (1) is concurrent with any other period for which the person is disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

[Section 71D inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11.]

71E. Revocation of disqualification notice by police officer

- (1) A police officer must immediately revoke a disqualification notice if —
- (a) the police officer becomes aware that the breath analysing equipment used to analyse the sample of the person's breath provided in connection with the offence to which the notice relates was faulty at the time of the analysis; or
 - (b) a charge for the offence to which the notice relates has not been laid within 10 days after the time when the notice was given; or
 - (c) a charge for the offence to which the notice relates is discontinued.
- (2) If under this section a police officer revokes a disqualification notice the police officer must, as soon as is practicable, cause notice of the revocation to be given to —
- (a) the person to whom the disqualification notice was given under section 71C; and
 - (b) the CEO.

[Section 71E inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 16.]

71F. Disqualification notice (s. 71C), court may order police to revoke

- (1) A person to whom a disqualification notice is given under section 71C may apply to the Magistrates Court or, if the person is under 18 years of age, to the Children's Court, for an order directing the Commissioner of Police to revoke the notice.

- (2) An application made under subsection (1) must —
 - (a) be made in accordance with any applicable rules of court; and
 - (b) include particulars of the exceptional circumstances that the applicant alleges justifies the making of the order; and
 - (c) be served on the Commissioner of Police at least 14 days before it is heard and determined.
- (3) The Commissioner of Police is entitled to be heard on an application made under subsection (1).
- (4) The court may either make an order directing the Commissioner of Police to revoke the disqualification notice from the day specified in the order or refuse the application.
- (5) The court must not make an order directing the Commissioner of Police to revoke a disqualification notice unless it is satisfied that exceptional circumstances exist that justify the making of such an order.
- (6) If a court makes an order directing the Commissioner of Police to revoke a disqualification notice, the court is to cause a copy of the order to be sent to the CEO.

[Section 71F inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 17.]

71G. Disqualification notice (s. 71C) automatically revoked on acquittal etc.

- (1) If a court —
 - (a) acquits a person of an offence to which a disqualification notice relates; or
 - (b) dismisses a charge for an offence to which a disqualification notice relates,the disqualification notice is revoked.

- (2) If under this section a disqualification notice is revoked, the court is to cause particulars of the revocation to be sent to the CEO.

[Section 71G inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 18.]

71H. Period of disqualification under s. 71C notice to be taken into account in sentencing

- (1) This section applies if a court convicts a person of the offence to which a disqualification notice relates.
- (2) If this section applies, the court is to take into account any period of disqualification imposed under section 71D(1) in respect of the disqualification notice when making an order disqualifying the person from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

[Section 71H inserted by No. 51 of 2010 s. 11.]

72. Taking and testing samples: regulations for s. 59 to 73, and approval of apparatus and persons

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are necessary or convenient for the purpose of carrying out, or giving effect to, the provisions of sections 59 to 73 inclusive, and, in particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations —
- (a) prescribing the manner of providing samples of breath and oral fluid and taking samples of blood, and regulating the manner of dealing with samples of breath, blood, urine and oral fluid; and
 - (aa) prescribing equipment for use in the taking of samples of blood and the collection of samples of urine and oral fluid; and
 - (ab) prescribing the manner and methods by which samples of blood may be analysed for alcohol; and

- (ac) prescribing the manner and methods by which samples of blood, urine and oral fluid may be analysed for drugs; and
 - (b) prescribing the manner of operation of breath analysing equipment and of determining breath analysing equipment, other than self-testing breath analysing equipment, to be in proper working order; and
 - (ba) prescribing the manner of indication of a result for the purposes of section 68(7) and (8); and
 - (bb) prescribing the procedure for assessing whether a person is drug impaired; and
 - (bc) prescribing the procedure for conducting preliminary oral fluid tests; and
 - (bd) prescribing the procedure for drug testing samples of oral fluid by an approved device; and
 - (c) prescribing forms, including any certificate required for the purposes of the sections herein mentioned; and
 - (d) prescribing the fees payable to a prescribed sample taker attending a person for the purpose of taking a sample of his blood or collecting a sample of his urine and those payable in respect of the analysis of a sample of blood by an analyst, or a sample of blood, urine or oral fluid by a drugs analyst, and for the payment and recovery of those fees.
- (1a) Without limiting subsection (1), procedures may be prescribed under subsection (1)(bc) or (bd) by reference to instructions provided by the manufacturer of a device of a type approved under subsection (2)(c) or (d).
- (2) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice published in the Government Gazette, approve of —
- (a) types of apparatus for the purpose of ascertaining a person's blood alcohol content by analysis of a sample of the person's breath; and

- (b) types of apparatus for the purpose of conducting preliminary tests for the purposes of section 66; and
- (c) types of devices for the purpose of conducting drug testing of a sample of a person's oral fluid for the purposes of section 66D; and
- (d) types of devices for the purpose of conducting preliminary oral fluid tests for the purposes of section 66C, and may, by notice so published, revoke any such approval.

- (2a) Where approval is given under subsection (2)(a) in relation to a type of apparatus that, in the opinion of the Minister, does not need to be tested to determine whether it is in proper working order after each occasion on which it is used to make an analysis of a sample of breath, the Minister may, in the notice by which the approval is given, designate that type of apparatus as self-testing apparatus.

- (3A) In subsections (2) and (2a) —

Minister means the Minister to whom the administration of the Police Act 1892 is committed.

- (3) The chief executive officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA) may, from time to time —
 - (a) certify a person as being competent to determine the concentration of alcohol in bodily substances; and
 - (aa) certify a person as being competent to ascertain whether and to what extent drugs are present in bodily substances, and may rescind any certificate given under this subsection.

[(b) deleted]

- (4) The Commissioner of Police may, from time to time —
 - (a) certify a person as being competent to operate all types of breath analysing equipment; and

- (b) authorise a person to collect, and conduct drug testing of, samples of oral fluid for the purposes of section 66D; and
 - (c) rescind or revoke a certificate or an authorisation.
- (5) The Commissioner of Police must not certify a person under subsection (4)(a) unless, in the Commissioner's opinion, the person has the appropriate training to operate all types of breath analysing equipment.
- (6) The Commissioner of Police must not authorise a person under subsection (4)(b) unless, in the Commissioner's opinion, the person has the appropriate training to collect, and conduct drug testing of, samples of oral fluid in accordance with the regulations.
- (7) If the certification of a person by the chief executive officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA) under subsection (3)(b) was in effect immediately before commencement day, the certification has effect, on and after commencement day, as if it were the certification of the person by the Commissioner of Police under subsection (4)(a) (including for the purposes of section 70(2)(a)).
- (8) In subsection (7) —
- commencement day means the day on which the Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Act 2016 section 12 comes into operation.

[Section 72 amended by No. 82 of 1982 s. 19; No. 121 of 1987 s. 10; No. 19 of 1990 s. 8; No. 39 of 2000 s. 36; No. 44 of 2004 s. 11; No. 6 of 2007 s. 17; No. 10 of 2007 s. 43; No. 39 of 2007 s. 15; No. 25 of 2016 s. 12 and 40.]

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 2 Driving of vehicles: alcohol and drug related offences

s. 72A

commencement day means the day of the coming into operation of the Road Traffic Amendment (Drugs) Act 2007 Part 2⁺.

- (2) The Minister is to carry out a review of the operation and effectiveness of the amended provisions as soon as practicable after the end of the period of 12 months beginning on the commencement day.
- (3) In the course of the review the Minister is to consider and have regard to —
 - (a) the attainment of the objects of the amended provisions; and
 - (b) the need for the amended provisions to continue in operation; and
 - (c) any other matters that appear to the Minister to be relevant.
- (4) The Minister is to prepare a report following the review and is to cause it to be laid before each House of Parliament before the end of the period of 18 months beginning on the commencement day.
- (5) If a House of Parliament is not sitting, the Minister may transmit a copy of the report to the Clerk of that House.
- (6) A copy of the report transmitted to the Clerk of a House is to be regarded as having been laid before the House.
- (7) The laying of a copy of the report before a House that is regarded as having occurred under subsection (6) is to be reported to the House by the Clerk, and recorded in the Votes and Proceedings or Minutes of Proceedings, on the first sitting day of the House after the Clerk received the copy.
- (8) This section expires as soon as a copy of the report has been laid, or recorded under subsection (7) as having been laid, in each House.

Subdivision 2 — Impounding of vehicles by police for certain offences

[Heading inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 51 of 2016 s. 19.]

79. Impounding offence (driving), police powers to impound vehicle used in previous offender means a person —

(1A) In this section —

- (a) who has previously been convicted of an impounding offence (driving); or
- (b) against whom a charge of an impounding offence (driving) is pending;

surrender notice has the meaning given in section 79BA.

- (1) If a police officer reasonably suspects that, while driving a vehicle, the driver has committed an impounding offence (driving), the police officer must, unless in the circumstances it is impracticable to do so, seize and impound the vehicle within a period of 28 days after the day of the offence.
- (2) The period for which the vehicle is impounded ends —
 - (a) unless the police officer specifies a longer period under paragraph (b) or the Commissioner extends the period under subsection (3), on the 28th day after the day on which the vehicle is impounded;
 - (b) if, under subsection (3A), the police officer specifies that the length of the impounding period is to be 3 months, on the last day of the period of 3 months commencing on the day after the day on which the vehicle was impounded;
 - (c) if the Commissioner extends the period under subsection (3), on the last day of the period of 3 months commencing on the day after the day on which the vehicle was impounded.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79A

- (3A) If, at the time of impounding the vehicle, the police officer reasonably believes that the driver of the vehicle is a previous offender, the police officer must specify that the length of the impounding period is to be 3 months.
- (3B) An impounding period the length of which is specified as 28 days or 3 months under this section, or in a surrender notice for which subsection (1) is the impounding provision, includes the part of the day on which the vehicle is impounded that is after the impounding occurred even though including that part of the day makes the period more than 28 days or 3 months, as the case requires.
- (3) If the driver of the vehicle is a previous offender but the police officer does not specify under subsection (3A) that the length of the impounding period is to be 3 months, the Commissioner must, on being satisfied that the driver is a previous offender, extend the impounding period to end on the last day of the period of 3 months commencing on the day after the day on which the vehicle was impounded.
- (4) The giving of a notice under section 79B(1) does not prevent the Commissioner from, under subsection (3), extending the period for which the vehicle is impounded.
- (5) An extension under subsection (3) is of no effect unless, not less than 24 hours before the end of the initial period, notice of the extension is given under section 79B(3) to a responsible person.

[Section 79 inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 24 of 2008 s. 7; No. 23 of 2009 s. 11; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37 and 38; No. 51 of 2016 s. 20.]

79A. Impounding offence (driver's licence), police powers to impound vehicle used in the vehicle within a period of 28 days after the day of the offence.

- (1) If a police officer reasonably suspects that, while driving a vehicle, the driver has committed an impounding offence (driver's licence), the police officer must, unless in the circumstances it is impracticable to do so, seize and impound

- (2) The period for which the vehicle is impounded ends on the 28th day after the day on which the vehicle is impounded.

[Section 79A inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 12; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37 and 38; No. 51 of 2016 s. 21.]

79BA. Notice to surrender vehicle for impoundment, issue of etc.

- (1) This section applies if —
- (a) a police officer (the police officer) suspects that the driver of a vehicle (the vehicle) has committed an offence (the offence); and
 - (b) the police officer —
 - (i) would have been required by section 79(1) or 79A(1) (the impounding provision) to impound the vehicle if it had been practicable to do so but, because it was impracticable, the vehicle was not impounded; or
 - (ii) is required by section 79(1) or 79A(1) (the impounding provision) to impound the vehicle but by the time the police officer forms the necessary suspicion the impounding can most conveniently be achieved by giving a notice under this section.
- (2) If this section applies the police officer may give to a responsible person for the vehicle, personally or by registered post, a notice in accordance with this section (a surrender notice).
- (3) The surrender notice cannot be given after the expiry of a period of 28 days from the day of the offence.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79BA

- (4) The surrender notice must contain a statement to the effect that, because the vehicle was used in the commission of the offence, the vehicle is required to be surrendered to the Commissioner for impounding, and the notice must specify —
- (a) sufficient details of the vehicle to identify it; and
 - (b) the time and place at which the offence is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (c) sufficient other details of the offence to identify the grounds for giving the notice; and
 - (d) if known, the name of the person who was driving the vehicle when the offence is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (e) which of sections 79(1) and 79A(1) is the impounding provision; and
 - (f) if the impounding provision is section 79(1) and the notice is given on the basis that the driver is a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A), sufficient details to explain why the driver is regarded as a previous offender; and
 - (g) the length of the impounding period, which is to be —
 - (i) if section 79(1) is the impounding provision, either 28 days or 3 months according to which of those periods is the impounding period for which section 79(1) requires the vehicle to be impounded or would require the vehicle to be impounded if it applied; and
 - (ii) if section 79A(1) is the impounding provision, 28 days;
- and
- (h) the place at which, and the time of day during which, the vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered under this Division; and

- (i) the last day on or before which the vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered, being the 7th day after the day on which the notice is given.
- (5) The surrender notice must also include —
- (a) a statement to the effect that this Division contains law about the notice and the impounding of the vehicle; and
 - (b) a statement as to the effect of section 79BB(5) and (6); and
 - (c) a statement to the effect that failure to comply with the notice will result in the vehicle being impounded under section 79BB(2).

[Section 79BA inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 12; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 24 and 38; No. 51 of 2016 s. 22.]

79BB. Consequences of surrender notice

- (1) If a responsible person for a vehicle who is given a surrender notice surrenders the vehicle according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when the vehicle is surrendered.
- (2) If a responsible person for a vehicle who is given a surrender notice fails to surrender the vehicle according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when a police officer takes possession of the vehicle for the purpose of impounding it.
- (3) The time when the period for which a vehicle is impounded under subsection (1) or (2) commences is not required to be within a period of 28 days after the day of the offence.
- (4) The period for which a vehicle is impounded under subsection (1) or (2) ends when the impounding period has passed since the end of the day on which the vehicle was impounded.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79BCA

- (5) A person who is given a surrender notice in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if the person fails to comply with the notice.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

- (6) A person who is given a surrender notice in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if, without the authority of a court order, the person —

- (a) disposes of an interest that the person has in the vehicle; or
- (b) does anything, or causes or permits another person to do anything, that results or will result in a reduction in the value of the vehicle.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

79BCA. Surrender substitute vehicle notice

- (1) This section applies if —
- (a) a vehicle (the initially impounded vehicle) is impounded under section 79, 79A or 79BB; and
 - (b) under section 79D(2), the initially impounded vehicle is released before the impounding period ends; and
 - (c) the person (the alleged offender) who allegedly committed the offence in respect of which the initially impounded vehicle was impounded (the offence) is a responsible person for one or more other vehicles.
- (2) If this section applies, a police officer may give the alleged offender, personally or by registered post, a notice in accordance with this section (a surrender substitute vehicle notice).
- (3) The surrender substitute vehicle notice cannot be given after 28 days after the date of the release of the initially impounded vehicle.

- (4) The surrender substitute vehicle notice must contain a statement to the effect that, because the initially impounded vehicle has been released, a vehicle for which the alleged offender is a responsible person (the substitute vehicle) is required to be surrendered to the Commissioner for impounding instead of the initially impounded vehicle.
- (5) The surrender substitute vehicle notice must specify the following —
- (a) in relation to the offence, its details and the time and place at which it is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (b) which of sections 79(1) and 79A(1) is the provision that authorised the impounding of the initially impounded vehicle (the impounding provision); and
 - (c) sufficient details of the initially impounded vehicle to identify it; and
 - (d) when the initially impounded vehicle was impounded; and
 - (e) when the initially impounded vehicle was released under section 79D(2); and
 - (f) sufficient details of the substitute vehicle to identify it; and
 - (g) if the impounding provision is section 79(1) and the alleged offender is a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A), sufficient details to explain why the alleged offender is regarded as a previous offender; and
 - (h) the length of the impounding period for the substitute vehicle, which is to be —
 - (i) if section 79(1) was the impounding provision for the initially impounded vehicle, either 28 days or 3 months according to which of those periods was the impounding period for which section 79(1) required the initially impounded vehicle to be impounded; and

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79BCB

- (ii) if section 79A(1) was the impounding provision for the initially impounded vehicle, 28 days;
 - and
 - (i) the place at which, and the time of day during which, the vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered under this Division; and
 - (j) the last day on or before which the vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered, being the seventh day after the day on which the notice is given.
- (6) The surrender substitute vehicle notice must also include —
- (a) a statement to the effect that this Division contains law about the notice and the impounding of the vehicle; and
 - (b) a statement as to the effect of section 79BCB(5) and (6); and
 - (c) a statement to the effect that failure to comply with the notice will result in the vehicle being impounded under section 79BCB(2).
- (7) If the alleged offender is a responsible person for 2 or more other vehicles, the surrender substitute vehicle notice must specify only one of them as the substitute vehicle, being the one decided by the police officer issuing the notice.

[Section 79BCA inserted by No. 20 of 2010 s. 6; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 51 of 2016 s. 24.]

79BCB. Consequences of surrender substitute vehicle notice

- (1) If a responsible person who is given a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA surrenders the substitute vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when the vehicle is surrendered.
- (2) If a responsible person who is given a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA fails to surrender the substitute vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when a police officer takes possession of the vehicle for the purpose of impounding it.

- (3) An impounding period the length of which is specified as 28 days or 3 months in a surrender substitute vehicle notice includes the part of the day on which the vehicle is impounded that is after the impounding occurred even though including that part of the day makes the period more than 28 days or 3 months, as the case requires.
- (4) The period for which a vehicle is impounded under subsection (1) or (2) ends when the impounding period has passed since the end of the day on which the vehicle was impounded.
- (5) A person who is given a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if the person fails to comply with the notice.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.
- (6) A person who is given a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if, without the authority of a court order, the person —
- (a) disposes of an interest that the person has in the vehicle; or
 - (b) does anything, or causes or permits another person to do anything, that results or will result in a reduction in the value of the vehicle.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

[Section 79BCB inserted by No. 20 of 2010 s. 6; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 51 of 2016 s. 25.]

79BCC. Cancelling notice under s. 79BA, 79BCA or 79BCD

(1) In this section —

notice to surrender means —

- (a) a surrender notice given under section 79BA; or
- (b) a surrender substitute vehicle notice given under section 79BCA; or
- (c) a surrender alternative vehicle notice given under section 79BCD.

(2) If a senior police officer is satisfied that —

- (a) a notice to surrender has been given to a person in respect of a vehicle; and
- (b) the vehicle has not been impounded under section 79BB, 79BCB or 79BCE, as the case may be; and
- (c) either —
 - (i) if the vehicle were so impounded, the vehicle would be a vehicle that could, under section 79D, be released before the impounding period ends; or
 - (ii) the vehicle's condition is such that it no longer functions as a vehicle and a licence could not be granted for it under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 Part 2, the officer may cancel the notice to surrender.

(3) As soon as is practicable after a senior police officer cancels a notice to surrender, the officer must give a written notice of the cancellation to the person to whom the notice to surrender was given.

[Section 79BCC inserted by No. 20 of 2010 s. 6; amended by No. 51 of 2016 s. 26.]

79BCD. Surrender alternative vehicle notice

- (1) This section applies if —
 - (a) under section 79BA a surrender notice is given to a person responsible for a vehicle (vehicle A) the driver of which (the alleged offender) is suspected of having committed an offence (the offence); and
 - (b) under section 79BCC the surrender notice is cancelled before vehicle A is impounded under section 79BB; and
 - (c) the alleged offender is a responsible person for one or more other vehicles.
- (2) If this section applies, a police officer may give the alleged offender, personally or by registered post, a notice in accordance with this section (a surrender alternative vehicle notice).
- (3) The surrender alternative vehicle notice cannot be given after 28 days after the date on which the surrender notice was cancelled.
- (4) The surrender alternative vehicle notice must contain a statement to the effect that, because vehicle A will not be impounded, a vehicle for which the alleged offender is a responsible person (the alternative vehicle) is required to be surrendered to the Commissioner for impounding instead of vehicle A.
- (5) The surrender alternative vehicle notice must specify the following —
 - (a) in relation to the offence, its details and the time and place at which it is suspected to have been committed;
 - (b) which of sections 79(1) and 79A(1) is the provision that authorised the impounding of vehicle A (the impounding provision);
 - (c) sufficient details of vehicle A to identify it;

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79BCD

- (d) when the surrender notice was cancelled under section 79BCC;
 - (e) sufficient details of the alternative vehicle to identify it;
 - (f) if the impounding provision is section 79(1) and the alleged offender is a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A), sufficient details to explain why the alleged offender is regarded as a previous offender;
 - (g) the length of the impounding period for the alternative vehicle, which is to be —
 - (i) if section 79(1) was the impounding provision for vehicle A, either 28 days or 3 months according to which of those periods was the impounding period for which section 79(1) required vehicle A to be impounded; and
 - (ii) if section 79A(1) was the impounding provision for vehicle A, 28 days;
 - (h) the place at which, and the time of day during which, the alternative vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered under this Division;
 - (i) the last day on or before which the alternative vehicle and its keys are required to be surrendered, being the seventh day after the day on which the notice is given.
- (6) The surrender alternative vehicle notice must also include —
- (a) a statement to the effect that this Division contains law about the notice and the impounding of the vehicle; and
 - (b) a statement as to the effect of section 79BCE(5) and (6); and
 - (c) a statement to the effect that failure to comply with the notice will result in the vehicle being impounded under section 79BCE(2).
- (7) If the alleged offender is a responsible person for 2 or more other vehicles, the surrender alternative vehicle notice must specify only one of them as the alternative vehicle, being the one decided by the police officer issuing the notice.

[Section 79BCD inserted by No. 20 of 2010 s. 6; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 51 of 2016 s. 27.]

79BCE. Consequences of surrender alternative vehicle notice

- (1) If a responsible person who is given a surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD surrenders the alternative vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when the vehicle is surrendered.
- (2) If a responsible person who is given a surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD fails to surrender the alternative vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice, the vehicle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when a police officer takes possession of the vehicle for the purpose of impounding it.
- (3) An impounding period the length of which is specified as 28 days or 3 months in a surrender alternative vehicle notice includes the part of the day on which the vehicle is impounded that is after the impounding occurred even though including that part of the day makes the period more than 28 days or 3 months, as the case requires.
- (4) The period for which a vehicle is impounded under subsection (1) or (2) ends when the impounding period has passed since the end of the day on which the vehicle was impounded.
- (5) A person who is given a surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if the person fails to comply with the notice.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79BC

- (6) A person who is given a surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD in relation to a vehicle commits an offence if, without the authority of a court order, the person —
- (a) disposes of an interest that the person has in the vehicle; or
 - (b) does anything, or causes or permits another person to do anything, that results or will result in a reduction in the value of the vehicle.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

[Section 79BCE inserted by No. 20 of 2010 s. 6; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 37; No. 51 of 2016 s. 28.]

79BC. Acquittal etc. of pending charge of impounding offence (driving), effect of

- (1) This section applies if —
- (a) because of a pending charge of an impounding offence (driving) against a person (the driver), the person has been regarded under this Subdivision as a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A) (a previous offender); and
 - (b) the driver is acquitted of or discharged from the charge; and
 - (c) the driver would not otherwise have been a previous offender.
- (2) If the acquittal or discharge occurs when a vehicle has been impounded on the basis that the person is a previous offender but the impounding period that would have applied if the person had not been a previous offender (the shorter impounding period) has not yet elapsed, the impounding period is reduced by this section to the shorter impounding period.
- (3) If the acquittal or discharge occurs when a vehicle has been impounded on the basis that the person is a previous offender and the impounding period that would have applied if the person had not been a previous offender (the shorter impounding period) has already elapsed but the vehicle is still impounded, the impounding period is reduced by this section to end on the day on which the acquittal or discharge occurs.

- (4) The Commissioner is to ensure that each person, other than the CEO, to whom a notice of the impounding of the vehicle has been given under section 79B is given a notice of a reduction of the impounding period by this section.
- (5) Whether the acquittal or discharge occurs while the vehicle is still impounded or not, for calculating a liability under this Division to pay an amount by reference to the expenses incurred by the Commissioner in impounding the vehicle those expenses are limited to expenses that would have been incurred in impounding the vehicle for the shorter impounding period.
- (6) A person who has already paid under this Division an amount that exceeds the amount calculated according to subsection (5) is entitled to a refund from the Commissioner of the amount of the excess.

[Section 79BC inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 12; amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 36.]

79BD. Suspension of vehicle licence on Commissioner's request

- (1) If—
 - (a) a responsible person for a vehicle who is given a surrender notice under section 79BA fails to surrender the vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice; or
 - (b) a responsible person for a vehicle who is given a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA fails to surrender the substitute vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice; or
 - (c) a responsible person for a vehicle who is given a surrender alternative vehicle notice under

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79B

section 79BCD fails to surrender the alternative vehicle specified in the notice according to the notice, the Commissioner may request the CEO to suspend the licence in respect of the vehicle until the vehicle is impounded under this Division or the Commissioner requests the CEO to revoke the suspension.

- (2) The Commissioner is required, on being satisfied that a circumstance described in a paragraph of section 79D(2) exists, to request the CEO to revoke the suspension and may, if for any other reason the Commissioner considers it appropriate to do so, request the CEO to revoke the suspension.
- (3) While the licence in respect of a vehicle is suspended according to a request under this section —
 - (a) the licence is of no effect; and
 - (b) an application to renew the licence cannot be granted, even if the application was made before the licence was suspended.
- (4) The suspension does not extend the period for which the licence may be valid or effective beyond the expiration of the period for which the licence was expressed to be granted or renewed.

[Section 79BD inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 12; amended by No. 20 of 2010 s. 7; No. 8 of 2012 s. 36.]

79B. Notice of impounding, police to issue etc.

- (1) The Commissioner is to ensure that, as soon as practicable after a vehicle is impounded under section 79(1), 79A(1) or 79BB, notice of the impounding is given to —
 - (a) each responsible person; and
 - (b) if the driver is not a responsible person, the driver; and
 - (c) if the licence in respect of the vehicle is for the time being suspended under section 79BD, the CEO.

- (2) The notice of the impounding given under subsection (1) is to be in an approved form and contain details of —
- (a) the time when the vehicle was impounded; and
 - (b) the address of the place where the vehicle is stored; and
 - (ca) if under section 79(3A) the length of the impounding period is specified to be 3 months, the charge or previous conviction because of which the driver was a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A); and
 - (cb) the vehicle sufficient to identify it; and
 - (cc) the time and place at which the offence, in the commission of which the vehicle was used, is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (cd) the offence sufficient to identify the grounds on which the vehicle was impounded; and
 - (ce) if known, the person who was driving the vehicle when the offence is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (cf) the length of the impounding period, which is to be —
 - (i) if section 79(1) is the impounding provision, either 28 days or 3 months according to which of those periods is the impounding period for which section 79(1) requires the vehicle to be impounded or would require the vehicle to be impounded if it applied; and
 - (ii) if section 79A(1) is the impounding provision, 28 days;
- and
- (cg) the grounds on which the vehicle may be released under section 79D; and
 - (c) how, when and to whom the vehicle can be released; and
 - (d) the powers of a court under sections 80A, 80B, 80C and 80FA in relation to the impounding and confiscation of vehicles.

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79B

- (3A) The Commissioner is to ensure that, as soon as practicable after a vehicle (the substitute vehicle) is impounded under section 79BCB following the issue of a surrender substitute vehicle notice to a responsible person for the vehicle under section 79BCA, notice of the impounding is given to —
- (a) each responsible person for the vehicle; and
 - (b) if the licence in respect of the vehicle is for the time being suspended under section 79BD, the CEO.
- (3B) The notice of the impounding given under subsection (3A) is to be in an approved form and contain details of —
- (a) the time and place at which the offence, in the commission of which the initially impounded vehicle (as defined in section 79BCA(1)) was used, is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (b) the offence sufficient to identify the grounds on which the initially impounded vehicle was impounded; and
 - (c) the person who was driving the initially impounded vehicle when the offence is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (d) the substitute vehicle sufficient to identify it; and
 - (e) the time when the substitute vehicle was impounded; and
 - (f) the address of the place where the substitute vehicle is stored; and
 - (g) the length of the impounding period for the substitute vehicle which is to be the period specified in the surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA(5)(h); and
 - (h) the grounds on which the substitute vehicle may be released under section 79D; and
 - (i) how, when and to whom the substitute vehicle can be released; and

- (j) the powers of a court under sections 80A, 80B, 80C and 80FA in relation to the impounding and confiscation of vehicles.
- (3C) The Commissioner is to ensure that, as soon as practicable after a vehicle (the alternative vehicle) is impounded under section 79BCE following the issue of a surrender alternative vehicle notice to a responsible person for the vehicle under section 79BCD, notice of the impounding is given to —
- (a) each responsible person for the vehicle; and
 - (b) if the licence in respect of the vehicle is for the time being suspended under section 79BD, the CEO.
- (3D) The notice of the impounding given under subsection (3C) is to be in an approved form and contain details of —
- (a) the offence referred to in section 79BCD(1)(a) including the time and place at which it is suspected to have been committed; and
 - (b) the alternative vehicle sufficient to identify it; and
 - (c) the time when the alternative vehicle was impounded; and
 - (d) the address of the place where the alternative vehicle is stored; and
 - (e) the length of the impounding period for the alternative vehicle which is to be the period specified in the surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD(5)(g); and
 - (f) the grounds on which the alternative vehicle may be released under section 79D; and
 - (g) how, when and to whom the alternative vehicle can be released; and
 - (h) the powers of a court under sections 80A, 80B, 80C and 80FA in relation to the impounding and confiscation of vehicles.

- (3) The Commissioner is to ensure that, as soon as practicable after an impounding period is extended under section 79(3), notice of the extension is given to each responsible person and, if the driver is not a responsible person, the driver.
- (4) The notice of the extension is to be in an approved form and contain details of—
 - (a) the impounded vehicle; and
 - (b) the time when the vehicle was impounded and when the impounding period would end if it were not extended; and
 - (c) the charge or previous conviction because of which the impounding period is extended; and
 - (d) the powers of a court under sections 80A, 80B, 80C and 80FA in relation to the impounding and confiscation of vehicles.

[Section 79B inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 31(1); No. 24 of 2008 s. 9 and 23; No. 23 of 2009 s. 13; No. 20 of 2010 s. 8; No. 8 of 2012 s. 36.]

79C. Senior officer to be informed etc. if vehicle impounded

- (1) A police officer, other than a senior police officer, who seizes and impounds a vehicle under section 79(1) or 79A(1) or gives a surrender notice under section 79BA or a surrender substitute vehicle notice under section 79BCA or a surrender alternative vehicle notice under section 79BCD is to inform a senior police officer, as soon as practicable after the vehicle is impounded or the notice is given, as the case requires, of—
 - (aa) the date of the seizure and impounding, or the giving of the notice, as the case requires; and
 - (a) the grounds on which the police officer suspects the matters mentioned in section 79(1) or 79A(1), as is relevant to the case; and
 - (b) if the police officer specified that the length of the impounding period was to be 3 months, the charge or previous conviction because of which the driver of the vehicle was a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A).

- (2) A senior police officer who is informed under subsection (1) by a police officer is to make enquiries so as to satisfy him or herself —
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for the police officer to suspect the matters mentioned in section 79(1) or 79A(1), as the case requires; and
 - (b) if the police officer specified that the length of the impounding period was to be 3 months, that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the driver of the vehicle is a previous offender as defined in section 79(1A).
- (3) If a senior police officer is not satisfied as required by subsection (2)(a) —
- (a) if the vehicle has been impounded under section 79, 79A or 79BB, the senior police officer and the police officer are to take measures to ensure that the vehicle is released from impoundment and returned to a responsible person, or if no responsible person is available, to the driver of the vehicle;
 - (b) if under section 79BA a surrender notice has been given but the vehicle has not yet been surrendered, the senior police officer is to cancel the notice and immediately notify the person to whom the notice was given that the notice has been cancelled;
 - (c) if a substitute vehicle has been impounded under section 79BCB, or an alternative vehicle has been impounded under section 79BCE, the senior police officer and the police officer are to take measures to ensure that the vehicle is released from impoundment and returned to a responsible person;

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79D

- (d) if under section 79BCA a surrender substitute vehicle notice has been given, or under section 79BCD a surrender alternative vehicle notice has been given, but the vehicle has not yet been surrendered, the senior police officer is to cancel the notice and immediately notify the person to whom the notice was given that the notice has been cancelled.
- (4) If a senior police officer is satisfied as required by subsection (2)(a) but is not satisfied as required by subsection (2)(b), the senior police officer is to alter the impounding period to end on the 28th day after the day on which the vehicle is impounded and the Commissioner is to give notice of the variation to each person who has been given notice under section 79B of the impounding and, if the vehicle has not yet been impounded, to the person who was given the surrender notice or surrender substitute vehicle notice or surrender alternative vehicle notice, as the case may be.

79D. Release of impounded vehicle

- (1) In this section —

impounded vehicle means a vehicle impounded under section 79(1), 79A(1), 79BB, 79BCB or 79BCE; service, in relation to a vehicle, includes to clean, examine, improve, inspect, paint, park, repair, store and transport it;

taxi means a vehicle —

- (a) on which taxi plates issued under the Taxi Act 1994 are being used; or

(b) in respect of which a taxi-car licence has been issued under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 Part IIIB, and it does not matter whether or not, at the relevant time, it is standing or plying for hire or carrying passengers for reward;

taxi operator, of a taxi, means a person who —

- (a) under the Taxi Act 1994, owns or leases the taxi plates, issued under that Act, that are being used on the taxi; or
- (b) holds the taxi-car licence issued under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 in respect of the taxi; vehicle service provider means a person who, for reward in the course of a business, services vehicles.

(2) The Commissioner is to ensure that an impounded vehicle is not released before the impounding period ends unless —

- (a) a police officer is satisfied that, at the time that the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed, the vehicle was a stolen vehicle or a hired vehicle; or
- (b) a senior police officer is not satisfied as required by section 79C(2)(a); or
- (c) a senior police officer is satisfied that unless the vehicle is released, exceptional hardship will be suffered in the particular case; or
- (d) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —
 - (i) the vehicle, with the consent of a person lawfully in possession of it, was in the possession of a vehicle service provider for the purposes of being serviced by the vehicle service provider; and
 - (ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence was the vehicle service provider or a person employed by, contracted to or acting with the authority of the vehicle service provider; and

- (iii) the person who allegedly committed the offence was not a responsible person for the vehicle;

or

- (e) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —

- (i) the vehicle had been lent by a vehicle service provider to the person who allegedly committed the offence for use while the vehicle service provider was servicing a vehicle for the person; and

- (ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence was not a responsible person for the vehicle;

or

- (f) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —

- (i) the vehicle was for sale; and

- (ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence (the alleged offender) was test-driving the vehicle with the consent of the person selling it for the purpose of deciding whether to buy it; and

- (iii) the person who consented to the alleged offender test-driving the vehicle had complied with subsection (3); and

- (iv) the alleged offender was not employed by or contracted to the person selling the vehicle; and

- (v) the alleged offender was not a responsible person for the vehicle;

or

- (g) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —
- (i) the vehicle was used primarily in the course of a business conducted by a person (the business owner); and
 - (ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence (the alleged offender) was an employee or contractor of the business owner; and
 - (iii) the alleged offender was driving the vehicle with the consent of the business owner or an agent of the business owner; and
 - (iv) the person who consented to the alleged offender driving the vehicle had complied with subsection (4); and
 - (v) the alleged offender was not a responsible person for the vehicle;
- or
- (h) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —
- (i) the vehicle was a taxi; and
 - (ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence (the alleged offender) was driving the taxi under an agreement between him or her and the taxi operator of the taxi, or an agent of the taxi operator, under which the alleged offender pays the operator or agent in order to be allowed to drive the taxi for reward; and
 - (iii) the taxi operator or agent who entered into the agreement with the alleged offender had complied with subsection (5); and

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 79D

(iv) the alleged offender was not a responsible person for the vehicle;

or

(i) a senior police officer is satisfied that, at the time the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was committed —

(i) the vehicle was licensed under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 to be operated as an omnibus; and

(ii) the person who allegedly committed the offence (the alleged offender) was an employee or contractor of the holder of that licence; and

(iii) the alleged offender was driving the vehicle with the consent of the holder of that licence; and

(iv) the person who consented to the alleged offender driving the vehicle had complied with subsection (4); and

(v) the alleged offender was not a responsible person for the vehicle;

or

(j) a senior police officer is satisfied that —

(i) the vehicle cannot be released under any of paragraphs (a) to (i) or under circumstances prescribed under paragraph (k); and

(ii) unless the vehicle is released, manifest injustice or manifest unfairness will be suffered by a person other than the alleged offender;

or

(k) circumstances prescribed by the regulations exist.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(f)(iii), a person who consents to a person test-driving a vehicle must —

(a) ensure the driver has a driver's licence that authorises him or her to drive the vehicle; and

- (b) inform the driver that he or she must obey the law when test-driving the vehicle.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(g)(iv) and (i)(iv), a person who consents to an employee or contractor driving a vehicle must —
 - (a) ensure the driver has a driver's licence that authorises him or her to drive the vehicle; and
 - (b) ensure the driver has been instructed to obey the law when driving the vehicle.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2)(h)(iii), a taxi operator or agent who enters into an agreement with a driver must —
 - (a) ensure the driver has a driver's licence that authorises him or her to drive the vehicle; and
 - (b) ensure the driver has been instructed to obey the law when driving the vehicle.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2)(j) none of these factors by itself means manifest injustice or manifest unfairness will be suffered by a person —
 - (a) if the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded was an impounding offence (driver's licence), the fact that a person responsible for the vehicle concerned had no grounds to suspect the alleged offender was not authorised to drive the vehicle at the time of the offence;
 - (b) the fact that, although a responsible person for the vehicle expressly or impliedly authorised the person who allegedly committed the offence in respect of which the vehicle was impounded (the alleged offender) to drive the vehicle, the responsible person had no grounds to suspect the alleged offender would drive in a manner that contravened this Act.

s. 79E

- (7) A police officer or a senior police officer may require a person seeking the release of an impounded vehicle to provide information to him or her for the purposes of this section in a statutory declaration.
- (8) Circumstances that may be prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of subsection (2)(k) are not limited by the circumstances described in the other paragraphs of subsection (2).

[Section 79D inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 6; No. 24 of 2008 s. 11 and 23; No. 23 of 2009 s. 15; No. 20 of 2010 s. 10; No. 8 of 2012 s. 37.]

79E. Liability for police expenses for impounding

If a vehicle is impounded under this Subdivision and a person is convicted of the offence for which the vehicle was impounded, that person is liable to pay to the Commissioner an amount specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner in impounding the vehicle and any substitute vehicle impounded under section 79BCB and any alternative vehicle impounded under section 79BCE.

[Heading inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13.]

[80. Deleted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 17.]

80A. Confiscation of vehicles used in certain impounding offences (driving)

- (1) A court that convicts a person of an impounding offence (driving) may, by order and in accordance with subsection (2), (3) or (4), confiscate the vehicle used in the offence.

- (2) A court may make an order if it is satisfied that —
- (a) the offence was committed in a school zone; or
 - (b) the offence was committed in a confiscation zone other than a school zone and the commission of the offence resulted in, or was likely to result in —
 - (i) members of the public experiencing harassment, intimidation, fear or alarm; or
 - (ii) damage to any property, including the road;
- or
- (c) the commission of the offence involved the driving of the vehicle at 90 km/h or more above the speed limit.
- (3) The court may make the order if it is satisfied that —
- (a) the offence was committed in a confiscation zone; and
 - (b) in the 5 years before the day on which the offence was committed the person was convicted of a previous impounding offence (driving) which was committed in a confiscation zone.
- (4) The court may make the order if it is satisfied that in the 5 years before the day on which the offence was committed the person was convicted of 2 previous impounding offences (driving).

[Section 80A inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 31.]

80B. Impounding offence (driver's licence) by previous offender, court may impound vehicle of

- (1) A court that convicts a person of an impounding offence (driver's licence) may, by order, impound a vehicle referred to in section 80GA for a period starting on the date on which —
- (a) the vehicle is surrendered; or
 - (b) under section 78C, the vehicle is conveyed to the place where it is to be stored,
- and being such period, not exceeding 3 months, as is specified in the order.

80D. Effect of confiscation under s. 80A, 80C or 80CB

- (1) The property in a vehicle that is confiscated under section 80A, as in force at any time, 80C(1) or 80CB(1) vests absolutely in the State when the order is made, free from all interests, rights, titles or claims in or to the ownership or possession of the vehicle.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not operate to prevent proceeds from the sale or disposal of a confiscated vehicle from being paid in accordance with section 80J(7).

[Section 80D inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 17; No. 51 of 2016 s. 32.]

80E. Confiscation under s. 80A not to be of stolen, hired or lent vehicle

- (1) A court is not to make an order under section 80A if it is satisfied that at the time that the offence for which the person is convicted was committed, the vehicle was a stolen vehicle or a hired vehicle.

- (2) A court is not to make an order under section 80A if it is satisfied that at the time the offence for which the person is convicted was committed, the vehicle was a lent vehicle and instead may make an order under section 80FA(2).

[Section 80E inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 18; No. 24 of 2008 s. 16; No. 23 of 2009 s. 18; No. 51 of 2016 s. 33.]

80FA. When court may order impounding instead of confiscation

- (1) In circumstances in which a court could, by order under section 80C(1) or 80CB(1), confiscate a vehicle, the court may instead, by order under this subsection, impound the vehicle for a period, not exceeding 6 months, specified in the order.
- (2) In circumstances in which a court could, by order under section 80A, confiscate a vehicle but for section 80E(2) and the fact that the vehicle was a lent vehicle at the relevant time, the court may instead, by order under this subsection, impound the vehicle for a period, not exceeding 6 months, specified in the order.
- (3) The impounding period under subsection (1) or (2) starts on the day on which —
 - (a) the vehicle is surrendered; or
 - (b) under section 78C, the vehicle is conveyed to the place where it is to be stored.

[Section 80FA inserted by No. 24 of 2008 s. 17; amended by No. 23 of 2009 s. 19; No. 51 of 2016 s. 34.]

80F. Impounding or confiscation order to specify time and place for surrender of vehicle

If a court makes an impounding or confiscation order in respect of a vehicle, the court is to specify in the order the time by which, and the place at which, a responsible person is to surrender the vehicle and its keys to the Commissioner.

[Section 80F inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 19 and 31(1); No. 24 of 2008 s. 18 and 24(1).]

80GA. Application for s. 80B to 80CB order, which vehicle can be subject of

- (1) The Commissioner cannot apply for an order under section 80B(1), 80C(1), 80CA(1) or 80CB(1) for the impounding or confiscation of a vehicle unless —
 - (a) the offender is a responsible person for the vehicle; and
 - (b) the vehicle is —
 - (i) in the case of an order under section 80B(1) or 80C(1), the vehicle used in the offence or a substitute vehicle nominated by the Commissioner under subsection (2);
 - (ii) in the case of an order under section 80CA(1) or 80CB(1), the vehicle referred to in paragraph (b)(i) of the definition of road rage circumstances in section 78A or a substitute vehicle nominated by the Commissioner under subsection (2).
- (2) If the alleged offender is not a responsible person for the vehicle to which subsection (1)(b) would, if the Commissioner did not nominate a substitute vehicle, refer, the Commissioner may nominate as a substitute vehicle a motor vehicle for which the alleged offender is, at the time of applying for the order, a responsible person.
- (3) The Commissioner cannot nominate a substitute vehicle unless at least 14 days before the application is made the Commissioner gives to the alleged offender written notice of the intention to apply for the order in respect of that vehicle.

[Section 80GA inserted by No. 24 of 2008 s. 19.]

80G. Procedure and grounds for making orders under s. 80A to 80CB

(1) In this section —

Commissioner includes a person for the time being authorised by the Commissioner in writing to perform functions of the Commissioner under this section; order means an order under section 80A, 80B(1), 80C(1), 80CA(1) or 80CB(1).

(2) An application for an order —

(a) can only be made by the Commissioner; and

(b) is to be heard —

(i) as part of the proceedings in which the person is convicted of the offence because of which the order is sought; or

(ii) in subsequent proceedings commenced no later than 3 months after the proceedings in respect of the conviction.

(3) A person is to be regarded as having sufficient notice of the Commissioner's intention to make an application for an order in respect of a particular vehicle if —

(a) the Commissioner gives the person written notice of that intention at least 14 days before the application is made and the person is —

(i) the driver of the vehicle; or

(ii) a responsible person; or

(iii) any other person who the Commissioner is aware has or may have an interest in the vehicle;

or

(b) in the case of a person not referred to in paragraph (a), the Commissioner publishes notice of that intention at least 14 days before the application is made in a newspaper having State-wide circulation.

- (3A) Despite subsections (2) and (3), the court may make an order on its own initiative in proceedings referred to in subsection (2)(b), in which case subsection (3) applies as if —
- (a) references to the Commissioner were references to the court; and
 - (b) references to an intention to make an application were references to an intention to make an order.
- (4) Before a court makes an order it has to give a reasonable opportunity to show cause why the order should not be made to —
- (a) the driver of the vehicle; and
 - (b) if a person other than the driver is a responsible person for the vehicle, each responsible person; and
 - (c) each other person, if any, who has an interest in the vehicle.
- (5) In determining whether or not to make an order other than an order under section 80A(3) or (4), the court may have regard to —
- (a) whether the offence because of which the order is sought was committed with the knowledge and acquiescence of a person who has an interest in the vehicle; and
 - (b) whether making the order will cause severe financial or physical hardship to a person who has an interest in the vehicle or the usual driver of the vehicle; and
 - (c) any other relevant matter.
- (6A) The court is required to make an order that may be made under section 80A(3) or (4) unless it is satisfied that the order would cause severe financial or physical hardship to a person, other than the driver of the vehicle, who has an interest in the vehicle or is the usual driver of the vehicle.
- (6) A person —
- (a) who is given notice under subsection (3)(a); or

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80H

- (b) who has satisfied the court that the person has an interest in the vehicle, must not do a restricted act in respect of the vehicle unless a court has made an order approving of the proposed act.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

- (7A) A person does a restricted act in respect of the vehicle if the person —
- (a) disposes of any interest that the person has in the vehicle; or
- (b) does anything, or causes or permits another person to do anything, that results or will result in a reduction in the value of the vehicle.
- (7) If the Commissioner advises the CEO in writing that the Commissioner intends to apply for an order in respect of a particular vehicle, the CEO must not, before the application is decided, transfer the licence of the vehicle if the vehicle is licensed.

[Section 80G inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 20, 31(1) and 32; No. 24 of 2008 s. 20; No. 23 of 2009 s. 20; No. 8 of 2012 s. 36; No. 51 of 2016 s. 35.]

80H. Liability for police expenses for court-ordered impounding

- (1) If a vehicle is impounded on an impounding order, the person because of whose conviction the vehicle was impounded is liable to pay to the Commissioner all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner by way of giving effect to the order.

[(2) deleted]

[Section 80H inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 8 and 21; No. 24 of 2008 s. 25; No. 51 of 2016 s. 36.]

Subdivision 4 — Vehicles impounded or confiscated under Subdivision 2 or 3

80IA. Release of vehicle after impounding period

- (1) When a vehicle has been impounded under Subdivision 2 or on an impounding order and the impounding period ends, the Commissioner is to ensure that the vehicle is released if a responsible person applies in an approved manner for its release.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Commissioner from refusing under subsection (3) or section 80IB or 80I(1) to release the vehicle.
- (3) The Commissioner may refuse to release the vehicle until the place where it is stored is open to the public.

*[Section 80IA inserted by No. 4 of 2007 s. 9; amended by
No. 24 of 2008 s. 21, 23 and 25; No. 23 of 2009 s. 21.]*

80IB. Impounding expenses, payment of before vehicle released

- (1) When a vehicle has been impounded under Subdivision 2 or on an impounding order and the impounding period ends, the Commissioner may refuse to release the vehicle until the Commissioner has been paid an amount specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner in impounding the vehicle.
- (2A) If the vehicle impounded under Subdivision 2 is a substitute vehicle impounded under section 79BCB, the expenses referred to in subsection (1) are both the expenses incurred in impounding the substitute vehicle and any unpaid expenses incurred in impounding the initially impounded vehicle (as defined in section 79BCA(1)).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even if the person seeking the release of the vehicle is not the person suspected of having committed, or

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80I

found to have committed, the offence for which the vehicle was impounded.

- (3) The Commissioner may release the vehicle without requiring payment of the amount described in subsection (1) if the Commissioner considers it appropriate in the circumstances to do so.
- (4) If payment of the amount described in subsection (1) is made for the release of the vehicle, that payment extinguishes any liability under section 79E or 80H, as the case requires, to pay the Commissioner for expenses of the impounding even though the payment may not have been made by the person who was liable under that section.
- (5) In the case of a vehicle impounded under Subdivision 2 the Commissioner has to refund, to the person who made the payment, an amount described in subsection (1) that was paid to the Commissioner for the release of the vehicle if —
 - (a) no charge of committing the offence for which the vehicle was impounded is laid during the period of one year after the day on which the offence is suspected to have been committed; or
 - (b) during the period described in paragraph (a) a person is charged with committing the offence but the person is acquitted of that offence, or the charge is withdrawn or dismissed.

[Section 80IB inserted by No. 4 of 2007 s. 9; amended by No. 24 of 2008 s. 23 and 25; No. 23 of 2009 s. 22; No. 20 of 2010 s. 12; No. 51 of 2016 s. 38.]

80I. Storage expenses after impounding period ends

- (1A) If a vehicle is impounded under Subdivision 2 or on an impounding order and a person is convicted of the offence for which the vehicle was impounded, that person is liable to pay to the Commissioner an amount specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner in storing the vehicle after the impounding period ends (the post-impoundment expenses).

- (1) The Commissioner may refuse to release a vehicle impounded under Subdivision 2 or on an impounding order until the Commissioner is paid the post-impoundment expenses for the vehicle.
- (2A) If the vehicle impounded under Subdivision 2 is a substitute vehicle impounded under section 79BCB, the post-impoundment expenses are both the expenses incurred in storing the substitute vehicle and any unpaid expenses incurred in storing the initially impounded vehicle (as defined in section 79BCA(1)).
- (2) The post-impoundment expenses are not to include the costs of storing the vehicle for any 24 hour period during which the place where the vehicle is stored is not open to the public.

[Section 80I inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 22; No. 24 of 2008 s. 23 and 25; No. 23 of 2009 s. 23; No. 20 of 2010 s. 13; No. 51 of 2016 s. 39.]

80JA. Disposal, with consent, of vehicles impounded under s. 79 or 79A

- (1) In this section —
impounded vehicle means a vehicle that is impounded under section 79 or 79A.
- (2) If the Commissioner is satisfied that each person who has an interest in an impounded vehicle has, in accordance with subsection (4), consented to the Commissioner doing so, the Commissioner, on behalf of those persons, may sell or otherwise dispose of the vehicle.
- (3) The Commissioner may sell or otherwise dispose of a vehicle under subsection (2) —
 - (a) even if the impounding period has not elapsed; and

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80JA

- (b) even if the Commissioner may sell the vehicle under section 80J; and
 - (c) whether or not a charge of an offence for which the vehicle was impounded has been heard or determined by a court; and
 - (d) whether or not any appeal against the conviction for an offence for which the vehicle was impounded or confiscated has been concluded.
- (4) The consent of a person who has an interest in an impounded vehicle to the Commissioner selling or otherwise disposing of the vehicle has no effect unless —
- (a) the person has been informed in accordance with subsection (5); and
 - (b) the consent is in writing and signed by the person; and
 - (c) the consent is given at least 48 hours after the vehicle is impounded.
- (5) The Commissioner must ensure a person who has an interest in an impounded vehicle is informed —
- (a) of the effect of this Division in relation to impounding and selling vehicles; and
 - (b) of the liabilities that this Division imposes on persons for the costs and expenses incurred by the Commissioner.
- (6) The Commissioner may require a person who has an interest in an impounded vehicle to provide information to the Commissioner for the purposes of this section in a statutory declaration.
- (7) If the Commissioner sells or otherwise disposes of an impounded vehicle under subsection (2) —
- (a) the Commissioner must release the vehicle to the buyer; and

- (b) the buyer obtains a good title to the vehicle if the person acquires it in good faith and without notice of any failure to comply with this section in relation to the sale or disposal; and
 - (c) the proceeds of the sale are to be paid in the order of priority provided by subsection (8).
- (8) The proceeds of the sale or disposal of a vehicle under subsection (2) are to be paid in the following order of priority —
- (a) for expenses incurred in selling the vehicle;
 - (b) for the expenses specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner in impounding the vehicle;
 - (c) if the sale or disposal occurs after the impounding period ends, for expenses (if any) incurred in storing the vehicle after that period ends;
 - (d) the balance —
 - (i) if only one person has an interest in the vehicle, to that person;
 - (ii) if there are 2 or more persons who each have an interest in the vehicle, to each such person according to the proportion that the value of the person's interest bears to the value of the vehicle.
- (9) If an impounded vehicle is sold or otherwise disposed of under subsection (2) and —
- (a) no charge is laid for the offence for which the vehicle was impounded within 3 months after the date of the offence; or
 - (b) the charge for that offence is withdrawn or dismissed for want of prosecution; or

(c) the person charged with that offence is acquitted, the Commissioner must pay to the person or persons referred to in subsection (8)(d) in accordance with that paragraph an amount equal to the amounts paid under subsection (8)(a), (b) and (c).

[Section 80JA inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 24; amended by No. 51 of 2016 s. 40.]

80J. Sale of confiscated and uncollected vehicles and items

(1) In this section —

confiscated vehicle means a vehicle that is confiscated under section 80A, as in force at any time, 80C(1) or 80CB(1); expenses means the reasonable expenses of the Commissioner; item means an item that was in or on a confiscated vehicle or an uncollected vehicle at the time when —

- (a) the vehicle was impounded under Subdivision 2; or
- (b) the vehicle was surrendered; or
- (c) under section 78C, the vehicle was conveyed to a place for storage, as is relevant to the case;

uncollected vehicle means a vehicle that was impounded under Subdivision 2 or on an impounding order and not collected within 7 days after the end of the impounding period.

- (2) The Commissioner may sell or otherwise dispose of a confiscated vehicle, an uncollected vehicle or an item.
- (3) The Commissioner is not to sell or otherwise dispose of a confiscated vehicle or an item unless any appeal against an impounding or confiscation order in respect of the vehicle is determined.

- (4) The Commissioner is not to sell or otherwise dispose of an uncollected vehicle or an item unless —
- (a) each responsible person is given at least 14 days' written notice of the Commissioner's intention to sell or dispose of the vehicle or item; and
 - [(b) deleted]*
 - (c) in the case of an item, reasonable steps have been taken to return the item to its owner; and
 - (d) any proceedings under subsection (5) or (6) in relation to the vehicle or item and any appeal in respect of those proceedings are determined.
- (5) The owner of an uncollected vehicle may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order that the sale or disposal of the vehicle under subsection (2) not take place until after such time as is specified in the order but no later than 3 months after the day of the order.
- (6) The owner of an item may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order that the item be returned.
- (7) Proceeds of the sale or disposal under subsection (2) of a vehicle or item are to be paid in the following order of priority —
- (a) for expenses incurred in selling the vehicle or item;
 - (b) in the case of a confiscated vehicle, for expenses incurred consequent on the confiscation of the vehicle;
 - (c) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount for which a person is liable under section 79E;
 - (d) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount of a judgment debt arising out of a liability under section 79E;
 - (e) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount for which a person is liable under section 80H;
 - (f) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount of a judgment debt arising out of a liability under section 80H;

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80J

- (g) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount for which a person is liable under section 80I;
- (ga) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount of a judgment debt arising out of a liability under section 80I;
- (h) in the case of an uncollected vehicle, in satisfaction of any unpaid amount known to the Commissioner for which the vehicle is nominated in writing as security for the payment of that amount;
- (i) in the case of a confiscated vehicle, in satisfaction of any unpaid amount known to the Commissioner —
 - (i) for which the vehicle was nominated in writing as security for the payment of that amount; and
 - (ii) that, but for the confiscation of the vehicle, would have been payable to a person other than the person convicted of the offence in respect of which the vehicle was confiscated;
- (j) the balance, in the case of a confiscated vehicle —
 - (i) if the vehicle was confiscated under section 80A, as in force at any time, or 80C(1), to the credit of the Road Trauma Trust Account established in accordance with the Road Safety Council Act 2002 section 12;
 - (ii) if the vehicle was confiscated under section 80CB(1), to the credit of the Confiscation Proceeds Account established in accordance with the Criminal Property Confiscation Act 2000 section 130;
- (k) the balance, in the case of an uncollected vehicle or an item, to the Treasurer of the State to be dealt with under the Unclaimed Money Act 1990 as prescribed retained money.

- (8) A person who acquires an uncollected vehicle or an item on a sale or disposal under subsection (2) of the vehicle or item obtains a good title to the vehicle or item if the person acquires it in good faith and without notice of any failure to comply with subsection (4) in relation to the sale or disposal.

[Section 80J inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 10, 23 and 31(1); No. 24 of 2008 s. 22, 23, 24(1) and 25; No. 23 of 2009 s. 25; No. 51 of 2016 s. 41.]

80K. Police expenses more than sale proceeds, liability for

- (1) If a vehicle is sold under section 80JA(2) but the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay the expenses incurred in selling it, the person because of whose conviction the vehicle was impounded is liable to pay to the Commissioner the difference between the amount of those expenses and the proceeds of the sale.
- (2) If a confiscated vehicle is sold under section 80J(2) but the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay the expenses incurred consequent on the confiscation of the vehicle and the expenses incurred in selling it, the person because of whose conviction the vehicle was confiscated is liable to pay to the Commissioner the difference between the amount of those expenses and the proceeds of the sale.

[Section 80K inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 24; No. 23 of 2009 s. 26.]

80LA. Liability for police expenses for uncollected vehicle more than sale proceeds

- (1) This section applies if a vehicle is sold under section 80J(2) as an uncollected vehicle and a person (the offender) has been convicted of the offence for which the vehicle was impounded.
- (2) If the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay the reasonable expenses incurred by the Commissioner in selling the vehicle (the selling expenses), the offender is liable to pay to the Commissioner an amount specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to the selling expenses that remain to be recovered.

[Section 80LA inserted by No. 23 of 2009 s. 27; amended by No. 51 of 2016 s. 42.]

80L. Transfer of vehicle licence to State in some cases

- (1) If a licensed vehicle is confiscated on an order under section 80A, as in force at any time, 80C(1) or 80CB(1) or is to be sold as an uncollected vehicle under section 80J(2) —
 - (a) the Commissioner of Police is to give notice in writing to the CEO of that fact; and
 - (b) the CEO is to transfer the vehicle's licence to the State of Western Australia.
- (2) The Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 10(1)(a), (2), (3), (4) and (5) do not apply if the CEO is given notice under subsection (1)(a).

[Section 80L inserted by No. 10 of 2004 s. 13; amended by No. 4 of 2007 s. 25 and 33; No. 8 of 2012 s. 25 and 36; No. 51 of 2016 s. 43.]

80M. Compensation for certain vehicles or items disposed of under s. 80J

- (1) In this section —

former owner, in relation to an uncollected vehicle sold or otherwise disposed of under section 80J, or an item in or on the vehicle, means the owner of the vehicle or item before the vehicle or item was sold or otherwise disposed of;

item has the meaning given in section 80J(1); uncollected vehicle has the meaning given in section 80J(1).

- (2) The State is liable to pay compensation to the former owner of an uncollected vehicle, or an item, if the vehicle or item is sold or otherwise disposed of under section 80J and —
- (a) no charge of committing the offence for which the vehicle was impounded is laid during the period of one year after the day on which the offence is suspected to have been committed; or
 - (b) during the period described in paragraph (a), a person is charged with committing the offence but the person is acquitted of that offence, or the charge is withdrawn or dismissed.
- (3) If, before the end of the period referred to in subsection (2)(a), the Commissioner of Police is satisfied that it is unlikely that a person will be charged with committing the offence for which the uncollected vehicle was impounded, the former owner of the vehicle, or item, may be paid compensation.
- (4) A liability that the State has under subsection (2) in relation to a an uncollected vehicle, or item, is reduced by an amount paid under subsection (3) in relation to the vehicle or item.
- (5) The State may recover from a person an amount equal to the amount of compensation paid to the person under subsection (2) or (3) in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the State if —
- (a) a person is, after the payment of the compensation, convicted of the offence for which the uncollected vehicle was impounded; and
 - (b) any appeal against the conviction is determined and the conviction is not quashed or overturned.
- (6) The State is liable to pay compensation to the former owner of an uncollected vehicle, or an item, if —
- (a) a person was convicted of the offence for which the vehicle was impounded; and
 - (b) the person is subsequently acquitted of the offence; and

- (c) at the time of the acquittal —
 - (i) no other person has been convicted of the offence for which the vehicle was impounded; or
 - (ii) if a person has been charged with the offence for which the vehicle was impounded, the person is acquitted of the offence or the charge is withdrawn or dismissed.
- (7) The amount of compensation to be paid under this section —
 - (a) for an uncollected vehicle, is limited to the market value of the vehicle at the time it was impounded; and
 - (b) for an item, is limited to the market value of the item at the time the vehicle was impounded.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7), the market value of an uncollected vehicle, or an item, is —
 - (a) the market value agreed between the State and the former owner of the vehicle or item; or
 - (b) if no such agreement exists, the market value of the vehicle or item as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Subdivision 5 — Impounding and confiscation of unlicensed motor cycles used on roads

[Heading inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80N. Terms used

In this Subdivision —

immediate family, in relation to a person, means a spouse or de facto partner, child, grandchild, sibling, parent or grandparent of the person;

surrender notice has the meaning given in section 80P(2); suspected use, in relation to a motor cycle impounded under section 80O(2) or 80Q(1) or (2), means the use of the motor cycle in circumstances described in section 80O(1)(a) to (c).

[Section 80N inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80O. Police power to impound unlicensed motor cycle used on road

- (1) This section applies if a police officer reasonably suspects that —
 - (a) a motor cycle is being used on a road; and
 - (b) the use constitutes an offence under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 4(2); and
 - (c) the motor cycle was not, at any time during the period of 2 years immediately before the day of the use —
 - (i) licensed under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012; or
 - (ii) the subject of a permit, or number plates, issued under the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 section 13.
- (2) The police officer may seize and impound the motor cycle within a period of 28 days after the day of its suspected use.
- (3) The Commissioner is to ensure that, as soon as practicable after a motor cycle is impounded under subsection (2), notice of the impounding is given to —
 - (a) a responsible person for the motor cycle; and
 - (b) if that person has not reached the age of 18 years, a responsible adult, as defined in the Young Offenders Act 1994, for the person.
- (4) The notice must be in an approved form and specify the following —
 - (a) the time when the motor cycle was impounded;
 - (b) the address of the place where the motor cycle is stored;

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80P

- (c) sufficient details of the motor cycle to identify it;
 - (d) the time and place of the suspected use of the motor cycle;
 - (e) sufficient other details of the suspected use to identify the grounds for giving the notice;
 - (f) if known, the name of the driver of the motor cycle during its suspected use.
- (5) The notice must also include the following —
- (a) a statement to the effect that this Subdivision contains law about the notice and the impounding of the motor cycle;
 - (b) a statement as to the effect of sections 80S, 80T and 80U;
 - (c) a statement as to the effect that if the motor cycle is confiscated under section 80T, it may be disposed of under section 80V;
 - (d) a statement as to the effect of section 80W.

[Section 80O inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80P. Surrender notice

- (1) This section applies if —
- (a) a police officer reasonably suspects, in relation to a motor cycle, that the motor cycle has been used in circumstances described in section 80O(1)(a) to (c); and
 - (b) it is impracticable for the police officer to impound the motor cycle under section 80O(2).
- (2) The police officer may give, personally or by registered post, a notice (a surrender notice) to —
- (a) a responsible person for the motor cycle; and
 - (b) if that person has not reached the age of 18 years, a responsible adult, as defined in the Young Offenders Act 1994, for the person.

- (3) The surrender notice cannot be given more than 28 days after the day of the suspected use of the motor cycle.
- (4) The surrender notice must be in an approved form and contain a statement to the effect that, because of the suspected use of the motor cycle, it is required to be surrendered to the Commissioner for impounding.
- (5) The surrender notice must specify the following —
 - (a) sufficient details of the motor cycle to identify it;
 - (b) the time and place of the suspected use of the motor cycle;
 - (c) sufficient other details of the suspected use to identify the grounds for giving the notice;
 - (d) if known, the name of the driver of the motor cycle during its suspected use;
 - (e) the place at which, and the time of day during which, the motor cycle and its keys are required to be surrendered under this Subdivision;
 - (f) the last day on or before which the motor cycle and its keys are required to be surrendered, being the 7th day after the day the surrender notice has been given.
- (6) The surrender notice must also include the following —
 - (a) a statement to the effect that this Subdivision contains law about the notice and the impounding of the motor cycle;
 - (b) a statement as to the effect of sections 80Q(1) and (2), 80S, 80T and 80U;
 - (c) a statement as to the effect that if the motor cycle is confiscated under section 80T, it may be disposed of under section 80V;
 - (d) a statement as to the effect of section 80W.

[Section 80P inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80Q. Consequences of surrender notice

- (1) If a responsible person for a motor cycle who is given a surrender notice surrenders the motor cycle according to the notice, the motor cycle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when the motor cycle is surrendered.
- (2) If a responsible person for a motor cycle who is given a surrender notice fails to surrender the motor cycle according to the notice, the motor cycle must be impounded for a period that commences at the time when a police officer takes possession of the motor cycle for the purpose of impounding it.
- (3) A person who is given a surrender notice in relation to a motor cycle commits an offence if the person fails to comply with the notice.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.
- (4) A person who is given a surrender notice in relation to a motor cycle commits an offence if, without the authority of a court order, the person —
 - (a) disposes of an interest that the person has in the motor cycle; or
 - (b) does anything, or causes or permits another person to do anything, that results or will result in a reduction in the value of the motor cycle.

Penalty for this subsection: a fine of 50 PU.

[Section 80Q inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80R. Senior police officer to be informed if vehicle impounded

- (1) A police officer, other than a senior police officer, who seizes and impounds a motor cycle under section 80O(2) or gives a surrender notice under section 80P(2) must, as soon as practicable after the notice is given, inform a senior police officer of the following —
 - (a) the date the seizure and impounding or the giving of the notice, as the case requires;

- (b) the police officer's grounds for suspecting the matters referred to in section 80O(1)(a) to (c);
 - (c) whether or not the motor cycle has been seized or surrendered.
- (2) A senior police officer who is informed under subsection (1) must make enquiries as to whether there were reasonable grounds for suspecting the matters referred to in section 80O(1)(a) to (c).
- (3) If the senior police officer is not satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for suspecting the matters referred to in section 80O(1)(a) to (c), the senior police officer must, as soon as practicable —
- (a) if the motor cycle has been impounded under section 80P, cancel the surrender notice and give a written notice of the cancellation to each person to whom the notice was given; and
 - (b) ensure that the motor cycle is returned to a responsible person for the motor cycle, or if no responsible person is available, to the driver of the motor cycle at the time of its suspected use.

[Section 80R inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80S. Claims of right to possession

- (1) A person may, within 10 days after the day on which a motor cycle is impounded under section 80O(2) or 80Q(1) or (2), give to the Commissioner a claim that —
- (a) the person —
 - (i) is a responsible person for the motor cycle; and
 - (ii) is not a member of the driver's immediate family; and
 - (iii) was not the driver of the motor cycle at the time of the suspected use;
- and

- (b) the suspected use of the motor cycle occurred without the knowledge and acquiescence of the person.
- (2) The claim is to be in an approved form.
- (3) If the Commissioner accepts the claim, the Commissioner must, as soon as practicable, ensure that the motor cycle is returned to the claimant.
- (4) If the Commissioner rejects a claim, the Commissioner must, as soon as practicable, give a written notice of the rejection to the person making the claim.

[Section 80S inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80T. Confiscation

- (1) A motor cycle impounded under section 80O(2) or 80Q(1) or (2) is confiscated on the later of the following —
 - (a) if the Commissioner does not receive a claim under section 80S — the 14th day after the motor cycle is impounded; or
 - (b) if the Commissioner receives one or more claims under section 80S but rejects all of them — the day after the last of those claims is rejected.
- (2) If a motor cycle is confiscated under subsection (1), the property in the motor cycle vests absolutely in the State, free from all interests, rights, titles or claims in or to the ownership or possession of the motor cycle.

[Section 80T inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80U. Liability for police expenses

If a motor cycle is confiscated under section 80T(1), the driver of the motor cycle at the time of its suspected use is liable to pay to the Commissioner an amount specified by the Commissioner as being equivalent to all reasonable expenses of the Commissioner in —

- (a) impounding the motor cycle; and

- (b) storing the motor cycle after it has been confiscated but before it has been sold or otherwise disposed of under section 80V.

[Section 80U inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80V. Sale or other disposal of confiscated motor cycle and items on it

- (1) In this section —

confiscated motor cycle means a motor cycle that is confiscated under section 80T(1);

item, in relation to a confiscated motor cycle, means an item that was in or on the motor cycle at the time when it was impounded under this Subdivision.

- (2) The Commissioner may sell or otherwise dispose of a confiscated motor cycle or an item.
- (3) The owner of an item may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order that the item be returned.
- (4) Proceeds of the sale or disposal under subsection (2) of a confiscated motor cycle or item are to be paid in the following order of priority —
 - (a) for expenses incurred in selling the motor cycle or item;
 - (b) for expenses incurred consequent on the confiscation of the motor cycle;
 - (c) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount for which a person is liable under section 80U;
 - (d) in satisfaction of an unpaid amount of a judgment debt arising out of a liability under section 80U;
 - (e) in satisfaction of any unpaid amount known to the Commissioner —
 - (i) for which the motor cycle was nominated in writing as security for the payment of that amount; and

Road Traffic Act 1974

Part V Regulation of traffic

Division 4 Impounding and confiscation of vehicles for certain offences

s. 80W

- (ii) that, but for the confiscation of the motor cycle, would have been payable to a person other than the person convicted of the offence in respect of which the motor cycle was confiscated;
- (f) the balance, to the credit of the Road Trauma Trust Account established in accordance with the Road Safety Council Act 2002 section 12.

[Section 80V inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 45.]

80W. Liability for police expenses exceeding sale proceeds

If a motor cycle or item is sold under section 80V(2) but the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to pay the expenses specified in section 80U, the driver of the motor cycle at the time of its suspected use is liable to pay to the Commissioner the difference between the amount of those expenses and the proceeds of the sale.

Part VA — Events on roads

[Heading inserted by No. 64 of 1988 s. 4.]

81A. Terms used

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears — event —

- (a) includes a race meeting or speed test; and
- (b) does not include an event that is a public meeting or procession under the Public Order in Streets Act 1984;

order means an order granted under this Part;

road includes part of a road.

[Section 81A inserted by No. 64 of 1988 s. 4; amended by No. 70 of 2004 s. 82.]

81B. Order for road closure for event, application for

- (1) A person who, or body which, proposes to hold an event on a road, or to conduct an event which will proceed through a road, and wishes that road to be closed for the duration of the event, may make written application in the prescribed manner and form to the Commissioner of Police setting out the proposal and applying for an order in respect of a road closure for that event.
- (2) An application referred to in subsection (1) —
 - (a) shall be made not later than the prescribed time before the date of the proposed event or within such shorter period as may be agreed by the Commissioner of Police; and
 - (b) may be required to be verified in a manner acceptable to the Commissioner of Police.

81C. Order for road closure for event, making

- (1) The Commissioner of Police shall have regard to the information furnished in any application made under section 81B and any other information available to it in relation to the proposed event and may —
 - (a) subject to subsection (2), make an order directing the road to be closed; or
 - (b) refuse to make an order directing the road to be closed.
- (2) The Commissioner of Police shall not make an order for a road closure unless —
 - (a) the Commissioner of Police is satisfied that the prescribed conditions relating to an application for a road closure have been met; and
 - (b) the approval of the local government of each district within which the road is situated has been obtained; and
 - (c) where the road is vested in the Commissioner of Main Roads, the approval of the Commissioner has been obtained.
- (3) An order made by the Commissioner of Police shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as are specified by the Commissioner of Police.
- (4) A copy of an order made by the Commissioner of Police shall be forwarded to —
 - (a) the applicant for the order; and
 - (b) the local government of each district within which the road concerned is situated; and
 - (c) where a road to which the order relates is vested in the Commissioner of Main Roads, the Commissioner of Main Roads.

[Section 81C inserted by No. 64 of 1988 s. 4; amended by No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 76 of 1996 s. 20(2).]

81D. Road closure, how effected by local government

A road closure under this Part shall be effected by the erection by the local government for the district within which the road concerned is situated of such barriers, signs and other equipment as are prescribed.

[Section 81D inserted by No. 64 of 1988 s. 4; amended by No. 14 of 1996 s. 4.]

81E. Road closure order, effect of

(1) Subject to —

(a) any directions given by a member of the Police Force under section 9A of the Public Order in Streets Act 1984; and where the holding or conduct of an event on a closed road substantially conforms with the terms of the order relating to it, a person participating in that event who observes such conditions and limitations as are specified in the order may position himself in, or proceed over, any road referred to in the order and is not, by reason of any thing done or omitted to be done by him for the purposes only of his participating in that event, guilty of any offence against the provisions of this Act or any other enactment regulating the movement of traffic and pedestrians, or relating to the obstruction of a street.

(b) the provisions of subsection (2),

(2) An order made under this Part shall be deemed to contain a condition requiring persons participating in the event on the closed road to which it relates not to obstruct the free passage of any ambulance, fire brigade vehicle or police vehicle, and where any person contravenes that condition the holding and conduct of that event shall be taken not to have conformed with the order.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Part and any order granted in relation to a road, a road closed pursuant to this Part remains a “road” for the purposes of this Act and any other enactment.

[Section 81E inserted by No. 64 of 1988 s. 4; amended by No. 70 of 2004 s. 82.]

s. 81F

81F. Offences

- (1) Where a person at, or in relation to, an event held on a road closed pursuant to an order under this Part —
- (a) obstructs the free passage of any ambulance, fire brigade vehicle or police vehicle or, otherwise than in the manner or to the extent authorised by the order relating to the road closed for that event, impedes or disrupts the use by members of the public in general of that road; or
 - (b) otherwise than in the manner or to the extent authorised by the order relating to the road closed for that event, drives, takes or uses any vehicles on to or on that road; or
 - (c) incites any other person so to do,
- commits an offence.
Penalty: 12 PU.
- (2) Where, in any proceeding for an offence against subsection (1), it is alleged in the charge that —
- (a) an order had been granted under this Part to a person or body named in the order; or
 - (b) a road was closed pursuant to an order,
- it shall not be necessary for the prosecutor to prove the facts so alleged in the absence of evidence to the contrary.
- (3) When in any proceedings for an offence against this Act or any other enactment regulating the movement of traffic or pedestrians or relating to the obstruction of a road, the accused satisfies the court that a road closure was authorised under this Part by an order purporting to relate to it, it shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that —
- (a) no irregularity occurred on, or in relation to, the grant of the order; and
 - (b) the road closure substantially conformed with the terms of the order.

106. Sentencing for certain offences

[(1), (2) deleted]

(3) A court sentencing a person who has been convicted of —

- (a) a first offence against section 63 or 67; or
- (b) an offence against section 64 or 67A, may, instead of imposing a fine —

- (c) order the release of the person and impose a community based order under Part 9 of the Sentencing Act 1995 with at least a community service requirement as a primary requirement of the order; or
- (d) if the offender is a young person under the Young Offenders Act 1994, subject to sections 50, 50A and 50B of that Act, make a youth community based order under that Act imposing at least community work conditions on the offender.

(4) If a court sentencing a person who has been convicted of —

- (a) an offence against section 49 committed in the circumstances mentioned in section 49(3); or
- (b) a second or subsequent offence against section 63 or 67, orders the release of the offender and imposes a community based order or an intensive supervision order under the Sentencing Act 1995, the court must impose at least a community service requirement as a primary requirement of the order.

(5) If a court sentencing a person who has been convicted of —

- (a) an offence against section 49 committed in the circumstances mentioned in section 49(3); or

- (b) a second or subsequent offence against section 63 or 67, orders the release of the offender and imposes a youth community based order or an intensive youth supervision order under the Young Offenders Act 1994, the court must impose community work conditions on the offender as part of the order.
- (6) A court sentencing a person who has been convicted of an offence against section 64AB must order a pre-sentence report about the offender under the Sentencing Act 1995 Part 3 Division 3.
- (7) A court sentencing a person who has been convicted of a first offence against section 64AB or 67AA must, instead of or in addition to imposing a fine —
- (a) order the release of the person and impose a community based order under the Sentencing Act 1995 with at least a programme requirement as a primary requirement of the order; or
 - (b) if the offender is a young person under the Young Offenders Act 1994, subject to sections 50, 50A and 50B of that Act, make a youth community based order under that Act imposing at least attendance conditions on the offender.
- (8) A court sentencing a person who has been convicted of a second or subsequent offence against section 64AB or 67AA must, instead of or in addition to imposing a fine —
- (a) order the release of the person and impose a community based order under the Sentencing Act 1995 with at least a supervision requirement and a programme requirement as primary requirements of the order; or
 - (b) order the release of the person and impose an intensive supervision order under the Sentencing Act 1995 with at least a programme requirement as a primary requirement of the order; or
 - (c) if the offender is a young person under the Young Offenders Act 1994, subject to sections 50, 50A and 50B

s. 106A

of that Act, make a youth community based order, or an intensive youth supervision order, under that Act imposing at least attendance conditions and supervision conditions on the offender.

- (9) Subsections (7) and (8) apply despite the Sentencing Act 1995 section 39(3) and (4) and the Young Offenders Act 1994 section 74.
- (10) Subsection (8) does not apply if the court imposes a custodial sentence on the offender.

[Section 106 inserted by No. 50 of 2003 s. 28; amended by No. 74 of 2003 s. 105(4); No. 54 of 2006 s. 34; No. 6 of 2007 s. 21; No. 8 of 2012 s. 30.]

106A. Mandatory disqualification

- (1) If this Act requires a court to disqualify an offender from holding or obtaining a driver's licence —
 - (a) for a specific period provided in relation to the offence concerned (including permanent disqualification); or
 - (b) for a period not less than a minimum period provided in relation to the offence concerned; or
 - (c) for a period not less than a minimum period, and not more than a maximum period, provided in relation to the offence concerned, the requirement is irreducible in mitigation and, irrespective of any sentence the court imposes on the offender, the court must disqualify the offender —

- (d) for that period; or
 - (e) for a period not less than that minimum period; or
 - (f) for a period not less than that minimum period and not more than that maximum period.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect despite any other written law.

- (3) Despite subsection (2), a period for which the court must, in accordance with subsection (1), disqualify an offender for an offence is to be reduced by any period during which the offender was disqualified by a disqualification notice given to the offender under section 71C in relation to the offence.

[Section 106A inserted by No. 50 of 2003 s. 28; amended by No. 51 of 2010 s. 15.]

[107. Deleted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 31.]

Part VIII — Transitional and savings provisions

[Heading amended by No. 51 of 2016 s. 46.]

108. Savings as to Traffic Act 1919

Without affecting the application of the *Interpretation Act 1918*², and particularly of sections 15 and 16 thereof, to the repeal and re-enactment by this Act of the provisions of the Traffic Act 1919, it is hereby declared that any regulation, by-law, order, vehicle licence, driver's licence, extraordinary driver's licence, permit or other document in force under any provision of the Traffic Act 1919 repealed by this Act shall continue and have effect as if it had been made or done under the corresponding provision of this Act and as if that provision had been in force when it was made or done, and it is hereby further declared that any suspension, disqualification or cancellation of a driver's licence ordered or made by or under the Traffic Act 1919 or The Criminal Code shall continue and have effect as if it had been ordered or made by or under the provisions of this Act and as if this Act had been in force when it was ordered or made.

109. Transitional and savings provisions for the Road Traffic Amendment (Impounding and Confiscation of Vehicles) Act 2016

(1) In this section — amendment Act means the Road Traffic Amendment (Impounding and Confiscation of Vehicles) Act 2016; commencement day means —

- (a) in subsections (2) to (5), the day on which section 7 of the amendment Act comes into operation;
- (b) in subsections (6) to (9), the day on which section 31 of the amendment Act comes into operation;

former, in relation to a provision of this Act, means the provision as it was immediately before commencement day.

- (2) An offence committed under former section 60(1) is, on and after commencement day, to be taken to be an offence under section 60(1A)(b) for the purposes of Part V.
- (3) An offence committed under former section 60(1a) is, on and after commencement day, to be taken to be an offence under section 60A(1)(b) for the purposes of Part V.
- (4) An offence committed under former section 60(1b) is, on and after commencement day, to be taken to be an offence under section 60A(2)(b) for the purposes of Part V.
- (5) An offence committed under former section 62A is, on and after commencement day, to be taken to be an offence under section 62A(b) or (c), as the case requires, for the purposes of Part V.
- (6) Section 80A(2) and (3) do not apply to, or in relation to, an offence committed before commencement day.
- (7) Section 80J applies to a vehicle impounded under Part V Division 4 Subdivision 2, or on an impounding order (as defined in section 78A), whether before, on or after commencement day.
- (8) Section 80J applies to a vehicle confiscated under former section 80A(1) as if it had been confiscated under section 80A on or after commencement day.
- (9) Section 80J applies to a vehicle confiscated under section 80C(1) or 80CB(1) whether before, on or after commencement day.

[Section 109 inserted by No. 51 of 2016 s. 47.]

Part IX — Regulations

111. Regulations etc.

- (1) The Governor may make regulations for any purpose for which regulations are contemplated or required by this Act and may make all such other regulations as may, in his opinion, be necessary or convenient for giving full effect to the provisions of, and for the due administration of, this Act, for the equipment and use of vehicles and for the regulation of traffic, generally.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Governor may make regulations —
 - (a) empowering an authority therein named to —
 - (i) prohibit, and to authorise and regulate, processions; or
 - (ii) restrict or prohibit the use of such roads, for such periods, as it may specify; or
 - (iii) erect, establish or display traffic or road signs, road markings, traffic control signals and similar devices; or
 - (iiia) authorise any person or body or class of person or body to erect, establish or display traffic or road signs, road markings, traffic control signals and similar devices, or any class or type thereof, in accordance with the instrument of authorisation;
 - (aa) regulating or prohibiting stock on roads;
 - (b) relating to the duties, obligations, conduct and behaviour of persons in charge, drivers and passengers of vehicles or of any class of vehicle;
 - (c) requiring the drivers and passengers of —
 - (i) motor vehicles; and

- (ii) 2-wheeled or 3-wheeled vehicles that are designed to be propelled through a mechanism operated solely by human power; and
- (iii) 2-wheeled or 3-wheeled vehicles that are power assisted pedal cycles, to wear prescribed items of equipment, whether or not the items are items required to be fitted to the vehicles;

[(d)-(g) deleted]

- (h) regulating or prohibiting the parking or standing of vehicles;

[(i) deleted]

- (j) prescribing matters for or in respect of which fees shall be charged or charges shall be made and prescribing the amounts of such fees or charges;
- (k) imposing penalties not exceeding a fine of 64 PU for a first offence, and not exceeding a fine of 96 PU for any subsequent offence, against any regulation made under this section;

[(l), (m) deleted]

- (n) defining the previous offences that shall be taken into account in determining whether an offence is a first or subsequent offence for the purpose of the regulations.

[(2a), (2b) deleted]

- (2c) The regulations may make it an offence to contravene a condition imposed by or under the regulations, but this subsection does not limit the other consequences that the regulations may attach to a contravention.
- (3) The regulations may in respect of any fee or charge (whether prescribed by the Act or by the regulations) provide for —
 - (a) exemptions from the requirement to pay the fee or charge; or

s. 111AB

- (b) the fee or charge to be reduced or refunded (in whole or in part); or
 - (c) the payment of the fee or charge to be deferred.
- (4) The regulations may provide that the exemption, reduction, refund or deferral —
- (a) only applies in specified circumstances or in respect of specified classes of persons or vehicles; or
 - (b) is at the discretion of the CEO or a specified person; or
 - (c) applies subject to specified requirements being satisfied; or
 - (d) applies subject to conditions —
 - (i) specified in the regulations; or
 - (ii) imposed by the CEO or a specified person and specified in a licence or permit.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (4)(c), the regulations may require a matter to be verified by statutory declaration.

[Section 111 amended by No. 17 of 1976 s. 4; No. 89 of 1978 s. 19; No. 71 of 1979 s. 17; No. 81 of 1980 s. 10; No. 71 of 1981 s. 6; No. 105 of 1981 s. 18 and 19; No. 82 of 1982 s. 28; No. 95 of 1984 s. 8; No. 11 of 1988 s. 17 and 24; No. 46 of 1991 s. 3; No. 92 of 1994 s. 40; No. 21 of 1995 s. 12; No. 76 of 1996 s. 20(3); No. 50 of 1997 s. 13; No. 57 of 1997 s. 106(3); No. 52 of 1998 s. 5; No. 39 of 2000 s. 46; No. 27 of 2001 s. 5; No. 28 of 2001 s. 23(1); No. 39 of 2007 s. 40; No. 8 of 2012 s. 32 and 36; No. 10 of 2015 s. 5.]

[111AA. Deleted by No. 8 of 2012 s. 33.]

111AB. Exemption from specified regulations, regulations may allow grant of

- (1) The regulations may provide for the Minister to declare, in writing in accordance with the regulations, that a specified requirement of the regulations does not apply to a specified person or vehicle.

- (2) The regulations may provide for the CEO to grant exemptions from regulations made under section 111(2)(aa) or (c).

[Section 111AB inserted by No. 54 of 2006 s. 35(1); amended by No. 8 of 2012 s. 34 and 36.]

Road Traffic Legislation Amendment Act 2016 s. 64 ³⁵³⁴	25 of 2016	21 Sep 2016	s. 64 : To be proclaimed (see s. 2(c))

³ The Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982 s. 30 and 31 deleted the Road Traffic Act Amendment Act 1978 s. 16(a), (b) and (c) and 23.

⁴ The Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1980 s. 10(2) reads as follows:

- (2) A traffic sign or traffic control signal or similar device purported to have been erected for the purposes of the principal Act and the regulations made thereunder before the coming into operation of this section shall be and always have been a valid and effective traffic sign, traffic control signal, or device for those purposes.

⁵ The Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1982 s. 21(2) is a transitional provision that is of no further effect.

⁶ The Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1987 s. 10(2) reads as follows:

- (2) A certificate that was in force under section 72(3)(b) of the principal Act immediately before the commencement of subsection (1)(d) shall have effect after that commencement as if it certified the person named in the certificate as being competent to operate all types of breath analysing equipment.

⁷ The Road Traffic Amendment Act (No. 2) 1987 s. 11(b) had not come into operation when it was deleted by the Statutes (Repeals and Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2009 s. 112.

⁸ The Road Traffic Amendment Act 1988 s. 17(2) and (3) read as follows:

(2) In subsection (3) the relevant regulations means any regulations purporting to have been made under the principal Act before 1 July 1984 that would have been authorised under section 43(7) or (8) of the Interpretation Act 1984 if they had been made on or after 1 July 1984.

(3) The principal Act as enacted from time to time before 1 July 1984 is deemed to have authorised the making of the relevant regulations and those regulations shall be deemed to have taken effect and had the force of law accordingly.

⁹ The Road Traffic Amendment (Random Breath Tests) Act 1989 s. 4 and the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1996 s. 41 amended the Road Traffic Amendment (Random Breath Tests) Act 1988 s. 5, which was deleted by the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 67.

¹⁰ The Acts Amendment (Chemistry Centre (WA)) Act 1990 s. 9 and 10 read as follows:

9. Saving of certificates and labels

A certificate or label issued under the principal Act that purports to have been signed by the director of the Government Chemical Laboratories or prepared by the Government Chemical Laboratories before the commencement of this Act shall continue to have effect as if this Act had not come into operation.

10. Validation

Every act or thing purporting to have been done by the Director or any other officer of the Chemistry Centre (WA) under the principal Act before the commencement of this Act that would have been lawful if this Act had been in force at the time when it was done is hereby validated and declared to have been lawfully done.

¹¹ The Criminal Law Amendment Act 1991 #cl. 1(2) of Pt. A of the Sch. reads as follows:

- (2) Notwithstanding subclause (1), section 59(2), as it was immediately before the commencement of this clause, continues to apply in relation to —
- (a) any death that occurred before the commencement of this clause; and

- (b) any death that occurs after the commencement of this clause if the driving which directly or indirectly causes the death occurs not less than a year and a day before the commencement of this clause.

52. Actions of delegates validated

- (1) Anything done before the commencement of this section by a person acting under any delegation purporting to have been made by the Traffic Board under any written law, is as valid and has the same force and effect, and is to be regarded as having always been as valid and had the same force and effect, as if it had been done by the Traffic Board.

- (2) In subsection (1) —

Traffic Board means the Traffic Board constituted under section 6 of the Road Traffic Act 1974 as it was before the commencement of this Act.

¹³ The Road Traffic Amendment Act 1996 s. 8(3) was deleted by the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2006 s. 43(2).

¹⁴ The amendment ~~to s. 20(2) referred to~~ in the Road Traffic Amendment Act 1997 s. ~~13~~13 to amend s. 20\(2\) did not come into operation because of an error in the reference to the provision to be amended.

¹⁵ The Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 48 and Sch. 1 read as follows:

48. Savings and transitional

Schedule 1 has effect.

~~Schedule 1 reads as follows:~~

Schedule 1 — Savings and transitional

[s. 48]

1. Interpretation

In this Part —

commencement day means the day on which this Act comes into operation under section 2.

2. Section 18 amendments have no effect in relation to certain applications

The amendments made by section 18 have no effect in relation to an application for a driver's licence by a person who holds a permit issued under section 48C of the Road Traffic Act 1974 before the commencement day.

3. Licences to drive vehicles formerly classified by reference to use

If—

- (a) immediately before the commencement day, a person was the holder of a driver's licence authorising the person to drive a motor vehicle classified under section 43(2) by reference to the purpose for which or manner in which it is being used; and
- (b) on and after the commencement day the purpose or manner is prohibited by regulations under section 43(1)(aa) of the Road Traffic Act 1974, the licence, or any new class of licence held by the person under section 43(1)(e) of the Road Traffic Act 1974, is to be regarded as having been endorsed to confer the authority to drive for that purpose or in that manner.

4. Section 23 amendments have effect only in relation to licences issued after commencement

The amendments made by section 23 have effect only in relation to a driver's licence issued after the commencement day.

5. Duplicate licences

If—

- (a) after the commencement day a person applies for a duplicate of a driver's licence under section 48B of the Road Traffic Act 1974; and
- (b) the licence was issued before the commencement day without the photograph and signature of the licence holder, then section 42B of the Road Traffic Act 1974 applies to the issue of the duplicate as if it were the issue of a driver's licence.

¹⁶ The amendment in the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 16(2) to amend s. 25(2) is not included because the subsection it sought to amend had been deleted by the State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 s. 1062(2).

- ¹⁷ The amendment in the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 33 to amend s. 59(1a) is not included because the subsection it sought to amend had been deleted by the Criminal Code Amendment Act 2004 Sch. 3 cl. 27(3);
- ¹⁸ The amendment in the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 33 to amend s. 59(3) is not included because the subsection it sought to amend had been amended by the Road Traffic Amendment (Dangerous Driving) Act 2004 s. 5(3).
- ¹⁹ The amendment in the Road Traffic Amendment Act 2000 s. 39 to amend s. 89 is not included because the section it sought to amend had been deleted by the Criminal Law Amendment (Simple Offences) Act 2004 s. 82.
- ²⁰ The Machinery of Government (Planning and Infrastructure) Amendment Act 2002 s. 67-69 read as follows:

67. Agreements under former Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 15C

- (1) To the extent that, immediately before the commencement of this Act, an agreement under the former section 15C made provision about the performance of functions of the former Director General under a relevant Act, the agreement continues, when this Act comes into operation, as an agreement under the new provision of the relevant Act.
- (2) To the extent that the agreement continues under subsection (1), it applies as if —
- (a) instead of being made by the Minister referred to in the former section 15C, the agreement had been made by the Director General referred to in the new provision of the relevant Act; and
 - (b) instead of providing for the performance of functions of the former Director General, the agreement made similar provision for the performance of the corresponding functions of the Director General referred to in the new provision of the relevant Act.
- (3) In this section —
- former Director General means the Director General of Transport under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 8 as in force before it was repealed by this Act;
- former section 15C means the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 15C as in force before it was repealed by this Act;
- new provision means —
- (a) the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978 section 4B;

- (b) the Motor Vehicle Drivers Instructors Act 1963 section 4A;
- (c) the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943 section 3QA; or
- (d) the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 6B;

relevant Act means —

- (a) the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978;
- (b) the Motor Vehicle Drivers Instructors Act 1963;
- (c) the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943; or
- (d) the Road Traffic Act 1974.

68. Delegations under former Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 18

- (1) To the extent that, immediately before the commencement of this Act, a delegation under the former section 18 applied to the performance of functions or powers of the former Director General under a relevant Act, the delegation continues, when this Act comes into operation, as a delegation under the new provision of the relevant Act.
- (2) To the extent that the delegation continues under subsection (1), it applies as if —
 - (a) instead of being made by the former Director General, the delegation had been made by the Director General referred to in the new provision of the relevant Act;
 - (b) instead of delegating the performance of functions of the former Director General, the performance of the corresponding functions of the Director General referred to in the new provision of the relevant Act were delegated; and
 - (c) any Ministerial approval that would have been required in order for the delegation to be made under the new provision of the relevant Act had been given.

- (3) In this section —

former Director General means the Director General of Transport under the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 8 as in force before it was repealed by this Act;

former section 18 means the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 18 as in force before it was amended by this Act;

new provision means —

- (a) the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978 section 4A;
- (b) the Motor Vehicle Drivers Instructors Act 1963 section 4;

- (c) the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943 section 3QB;
- (d) the Rail Safety Act 1998 section 57A;
- (e) the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 6A; or
- (f) the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966 section 18;

relevant Act means —

- (a) the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978;
- (b) the Motor Vehicle Drivers Instructors Act 1963;
- (c) the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943;
- (d) the Rail Safety Act 1998;
- (e) the Road Traffic Act 1974; or
- (f) the Transport Co-ordination Act 1966.

69. Regulations about transitional matters

- (1) If there is no sufficient provision in this Act for dealing with a transitional matter, regulations under an Act amended by this Act may include any provision that is required, or is necessary or convenient, for dealing with the transitional matter.
- (2) In subsection (1) —
transitional matter means a matter that needs to be dealt with for the purpose of effecting the transition from the provisions of the Acts amended by this Act as in force before this Act comes into operation to the provisions of those Acts as in force after this Act comes into operation.
- (3) Regulations including a provision described in subsection (1) may be expressed to have effect before the day on which they are published in the Gazette.
- (4) To the extent that a regulation including a provision described in subsection (1) may have effect before the day of its publication in the Gazette, it does not —
 - (a) affect in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an agency of the State), the rights of that person existing before the day of its publication; or
 - (b) impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an agency of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the day of its publication.

²³ The Road Traffic Amendment (Dangerous Driving) Act 2004 s. 12 reads as follows:

12. Review

- (1) The Minister is to carry out a review of the operations and effectiveness of the amendments made to the Road Traffic Act 1974 by this Act as soon as is practicable after the expiry of 18 months from the commencement of the Road Traffic Amendment (Dangerous Driving) Act 2004.
- (2) The Minister is to prepare a report based on the review carried out under subsection (1) and is to cause that report to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as practicable.

²⁴ The Courts Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 Sch. 2 cl. 46 was deleted by the Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act 2008 s. 77(13).

²⁵ The State Administrative Tribunal (Conferral of Jurisdiction) Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 Pt. 5, the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004 s. 167 and 169, and the State Administrative Tribunal Regulations 2004 r. 28 and 42 deal with certain transitional issues some of which may be relevant for this Act.

²⁸ The Road Traffic Amendment Act 2006 s. 35(2) and Pt. 3 read as follows:

35. Sections 111AA and 111AB inserted and saving

- (2) A declaration under section 103A of the Road Traffic Act 1974 or regulation under section 103B of that Act made before the commencement of this section is to have effect after the commencement of this section as if it was made under section 111AA or 111AB, as the case requires, of that Act.

Part 3 — Transitional provision

36. Existing demerit points

Points currently recorded in respect of a person under section 103 of the Road Traffic Act 1974 immediately before that section is repealed by section 29, and details of any offence in respect of which the points were recorded, are to be recorded as demerit points against the person in the demerit points register referred to in Part VIA of the Road Traffic Act 1974 as inserted by section 31.
