(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the owner of any vehicle which is —

(a) required to be registered under this Act; or

(b) a vehicle licensed under the Road Traffic Act 1974, when being used otherwise than on a road, shall in all proceedings in respect of damage, injury or death arising from the use of any such vehicle by some other person under the age of 18 years and lawfully in possession of the vehicle, be liable in respect of the probable consequences of the driving and use of that vehicle, otherwise than on private land by consent, as though he had formed a common intention and acted jointly with that other person.

(2) It shall be a defence to any proceedings arising out of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section for the owner to show that he did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, and had used all due diligence to prevent, the use to which the vehicle was put.
(3) For the purposes of this section, notwithstanding that pursuant to—

(a) subsection (4) of section 5 of the Road Traffic Act 1974; or

[Section 11 amended by No. 7 of 2002 s. 7.]
Schedule 1 cl. 34 reads as follows:

Schedule 1 — Amendments to various Acts

34. Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978

Section 43(3) is amended by deleting “a trust account under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 section 15B” and inserting instead —

“an agency special purpose account under the Financial Management Act 2006 section 16”.

Footnote no longer required.

The Machinery of Government (Planning and Infrastructure) Amendment Act 2002 s. 11(2) and (3) read as follows:

“(2) The balance of the Off-Road Vehicles Account as it was before this section came into operation is to be the opening balance of the account of that name established under the Control of Vehicles (Off-road Areas) Act 1978 section 43(3) as amended by subsection (1).

(3) The amount of that opening balance is to be reflected by a closing entry in the Off-Road Vehicles Account that was, before this section came into operation, required to be maintained as a part of the Trust Fund constituted under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985 section 9.”

Footnote no longer required.

Footnote no longer applicable.

On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the Courts Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 s. 142, which gives effect to Sch. 2, had not come into operation. It reads as follows:
