[Heading amended: No. 41 of 2006 s. 5.]

Division 1 — Preliminary

In this Part words and expressions have the same definitions, and calculations are to be made in the same way, as in Part 13 of the Sentencing Act 1995.

5A. Release considerations about people in custody

In this Act a reference to the release considerations relating to a prisoner is a reference to these considerations —

- (a) the degree of risk (having regard to any likelihood of the prisoner committing an offence when subject to an early release order and the likely nature and seriousness of any such offence) that the release of the prisoner would appear to present to the personal safety of people in the community or of any individual in the community;
- (b) the circumstances of the commission of, and the seriousness of, an offence for which the prisoner is in custody;
- (c) any remarks by a court that has sentenced the prisoner to imprisonment that are relevant to any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b);
- (d) issues for any victim of the prisoner if the prisoner is released, including any matter raised in a victim's submission;
- (e) the behaviour of the prisoner when in custody insofar as it may be relevant to determining how the prisoner is likely to behave if released;

- (f) whether the prisoner has participated in programmes available to the prisoner when in custody, and if not the reasons for not doing so;
- (g) the prisoner's performance when participating in a programme mentioned in paragraph (f);
- (h) the behaviour of the prisoner when subject to any release order made previously;
- (i) the likelihood of the prisoner committing an offence when subject to an early release order;
- (j) the likelihood of the prisoner complying with the standard obligations and any additional requirements of any early release order;
- (k) any other consideration that is or may be relevant to whether the prisoner should be released.

[Section 5A inserted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 6; amended: No. 49 of 2016 s. 108.]

[Section 5B inserted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 6.]

5C.        Victim's submission to Board

- (1) A victim's submission is a written submission by a victim of an offender who is in custody that does either or both of the following —
  - (a) states the victim's opinion of the effect the release of the prisoner would have on the victim;
  - (b) makes suggestions about the conditions that should apply to the prisoner if released.

- (2) If a victim is personally incapable of making a victim's submission due to age, disability or infirmity, a person may make a victim's submission on the victim's behalf.
- (3) The Board and the CEO are to establish procedures for the making of victims' submissions and their receipt by or transmission to the Board.
- (4) In performing its functions, the Board is to have regard to any victim's submission received by or transmitted to it in accordance with the procedures and is to give the submission such weight as it sees fit.
- (5) The Board must not —
  - (a) give a victim's submission, or a copy of a victim's submission, to the prisoner or to any person acting for or on behalf of, or representing, the prisoner; or
  - (b) allow the prisoner or any person acting for or on behalf of, or representing, the prisoner to view a victim's submission.

Division 2 — Matters affecting the service of terms

6. When a term begins

- (1) Unless this section provides otherwise or an order is made under section 87(1)(d) or 88(3) of the Sentencing Act 1995, a term, other than indefinite imprisonment, begins on the day it is imposed, or if the prisoner is not then in custody, on the day he or she is arrested under a warrant issued in respect of the sentence.
- (2) If a term is cumulative on one or more other terms then that term begins on the earliest date on which the prisoner could be released in relation to the last to be served of those other terms, whether or not the release would otherwise be under —

- (a) a parole order; or
- (b) a recognizance release order, or a parole order, made under the Crimes Act 1914 of the Commonwealth.

- (a) firstly, those that are not parole terms are to be served according to whether they are concurrent, partly concurrent or cumulative with one another;
- (b) secondly, subject to sections 94 and 95A of the Sentencing Act 1995 and subsection (3), the non-parole periods of those that are parole terms are to be served according to whether those parole terms are concurrent, partly concurrent or cumulative with one another;
- (c) thirdly, subject to sections 94 and 95A of the Sentencing Act 1995 and subsection (3), unless and until released on parole, the balance of any parole terms after the end of any non-parole periods are to be served —
  - (i) cumulatively if the terms are cumulative;

- (ii) concurrently if the terms are concurrent or partly concurrent.
- (3) If after the commencement of Part 2 Division 4 of the Sentencing Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2003<sup>1</sup> a prisoner who is serving, or has yet to serve, a parole term imposed before the commencement of that Division is sentenced to serve another parole term, then —
  - (a) the non-parole periods of the terms are to be served according to whether the parole terms are concurrent, partly concurrent or cumulative with one another; and
  - (b) the balance of the parole terms after the end of any non-parole periods are to be served concurrently irrespective of whether the parole terms are concurrent, partly concurrent or cumulative with one another.
- (4) If while serving a fixed term a prisoner is sentenced to serve another fixed term, other than a fixed term ordered to be served partly concurrently with another term, service of the former is suspended if necessary so that the terms can then be served in the order required by subsection (2).

[Section 7 amended: No. 41 of 2006 s. 7; No. 3 of 2008 s. 22; No. 6 of 2014 s. 8.]

    - (i) the period during which he or she was absent from lawful custody; or in addition to any term imposed for escaping lawful custody.

- (2) Any period that a prisoner spends in custody while he or she is appealing against a conviction or a sentence counts as time served in respect of any term that he or she is then serving, but not in respect of any other term that he or she is liable to serve.

10. No release if prisoner in custody for another matter

Despite this Act and the Sentencing Act 1995, a prisoner must not be released (whether under an early release order or otherwise) in respect of a term if at the time the release could be ordered he or she is by law required to be kept in custody in respect of another matter.

- (a) no direction under section 14C had been given in relation to the prisoner; and
  - (b) each report which would have been required but for a direction under section 14C had been given when due.
- (2C) If a report about a prisoner under subsection (2) is due to be given within 7 months after a direction under section 14C in relation to the prisoner ceases to have effect, the Board must give the report by or as soon as practicable after the day on which it is due but in any event not later than 7 months after the direction ceases to have effect.

  - (b) defer the making of an RRO; or
  - (c) refuse to make an RRO.
- (2) When deciding whether or not to make an RRO in respect of the prisoner the Board is to have regard to the requirements of sections 66B(1) and 66G(1) and the release considerations relating to a prisoner.
- (3) In particular the Board must have regard to whether the personal safety of people in the community or of any individual in the community would be better assured if the prisoner were released under an RRO instead of at the time when he or she would otherwise have to be released.

[(4) deleted]

- (5) An RRO may relate to more than one term.

[Section 52 amended: No. 41 of 2006 s. 43; No. 2 of 2018 s. 8; No. 14 of 2022 s. 15.]

[53. Deleted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 44.]

54. RRO, nature of

- (1) An RRO is an order that on a release date specified in the order a prisoner is to be released if he or she —
  - (a) acknowledges in writing that he or she understands the general effect of Part 5 Divisions 2 and 3 should the order be cancelled;
  - (b) gives a written undertaking that while the RRO is in force he or she will comply with —

- (i) the standard obligations in section 55; and
  - (ii) such of the primary requirements in section 56 as the RRO contains; and
  - (iii) any additional requirements imposed by the Board under section 57.
- (2) An RRO ceases to be in force when the period of the RRO ends, or when it is cancelled, whichever happens first.
- (3) The period of an RRO is the period —
  - (a) beginning on the day when the prisoner is released under the RRO; and
  - (b) ending on the date when under section 95 of the Sentencing Act 1995, the prisoner must be released.
- (4) A prisoner who is released under an RRO is nevertheless still subject to the sentence or sentences of imprisonment to which the RRO relates.

[Section 54 amended: No. 41 of 2006 s. 45.]

55. RRO, standard obligations

The standard obligations of an RRO are that the prisoner —

- (a) must report to a community corrections centre within 72 hours after being released, or as otherwise directed by a CCO; and
- (b) must, in each period of 7 days, do the prescribed number of hours of community corrections activities; and
- (c) must not leave the State; and
- (d) must not change address or place of employment without the prior permission of a CCO; and
- (e) must comply with section 76.

[Section 55. Modifications to be applied in order to give effect to Cross-border Justice Act 2008: section altered 1 Nov 2009. See endnote 1M.]

56. RRO, primary requirements

- (1) Every RRO must contain at least one of these primary requirements —
  - (a) a requirement that the prisoner must —
    - (i) seek or engage in gainful employment or in vocational training; or
    - (ii) engage in gratuitous work for an organisation approved by the CEO;
  - (b) a requirement that the prisoner must engage in activities, as ordered by a CCO, that will facilitate the prisoner's re-entry into the community after being released from custody.
- (2) If a requirement under subsection (1)(b) is included in an RRO, a CCO may give the prisoner any reasonable order that the CCO considers will facilitate the prisoner's re-entry into the community, including but not limited to the following —
  - (a) an order to attend educational, vocational, or personal development programmes or courses;
  - (b) an order to undergo counselling in relation to behavioural matters.

57. RRO, additional requirements

- (1) The Board may impose such additional requirements as it thinks fit in an RRO.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), additional requirements may include —
  - (a) requiring the prisoner to wear an approved electronic monitoring device; or
  - (b) requiring the prisoner to permit the installation of an approved electronic monitoring device at the place where the prisoner resides.

- (3) If the prisoner has been serving imprisonment for a family violence offence and the prisoner is a serial family violence offender, the Board must give specific consideration as to whether to impose a requirement under subsection (2).

[Section 57 amended: No. 13 of 2020 s. 17; No. 30 of 2020 s. 35.]

58. Prisoner's undertaking

- (1) A prisoner must give the written acknowledgment and undertaking required by section 54 on or before the release date specified in the RRO and if he or she does not, the RRO is to be taken as having been cancelled.
- (2) If an RRO is cancelled by the operation of subsection (1) and the prisoner subsequently gives the Board written notice that he or she is prepared to give the required written acknowledgment and undertaking, the Board, if it thinks fit, may then make an RRO.

59. CEO to ensure prisoner is supervised during RRO

- (1) The CEO must ensure that during the period of an RRO a CCO is assigned to supervise the prisoner.
- (2) However, if at any time the CEO is satisfied that —
- (a) the prisoner is complying with his or her undertaking in a satisfactory manner; and
  - (b) the risk of the prisoner re-offending if not subject to supervision by a CCO is minimal, the CEO may recommend to the Board that the prisoner no longer be supervised by a CCO.

- (3) If the CEO makes a recommendation under subsection (2), the Board may direct the CEO that the prisoner need no longer be supervised during the period of the RRO and the CEO may cease the supervision of the prisoner.

- (4) If the CEO ceases the supervision of a prisoner the CEO is to inform the prisoner.
- (5) The fact that a prisoner ceases to be under supervision does not affect the prisoner's duty to obey the requirements of his or her undertaking during the period of the RRO.
- (6) The Board may at any time cancel a direction given to the CEO under subsection (3).

[60. Deleted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 46.]

61. Suspension of RRO by Board or CEO

- (1) The Board or the CEO may suspend an RRO at any time during the period of the order.
- (2) The period of suspension may be for a fixed or indefinite period as the Board or the CEO (as the case may be) thinks fit.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), if a prisoner subject to an RRO is charged with or convicted of an offence, or if the CEO is satisfied that a prisoner has failed to comply with a requirement of an RRO, the CEO may do either or both of the following —
  - (a) suspend the RRO;
  - (b) refer the prisoner's case to the Board for consideration.
- (4) If the CEO suspends the RRO of a prisoner who is charged with an offence the CEO must, when the charge has been determined —
  - (a) if the prisoner is not convicted of the charge — cancel the suspension; or
  - (b) if the prisoner is convicted of the charge —
    - (i) cancel the suspension; or
    - (ii) suspend the order for a further period; or
    - (iii) refer the prisoner's case to the Board for consideration.

s. 63

- (5) If the CEO suspends an RRO for a fixed period of one month or more, or if an indefinite suspension extends for a month, the CEO must refer the prisoner's case to the Board to consider.
- (6) If the CEO suspends an RRO and the prisoner's case is not referred to the Board, the CEO may cancel the suspension of the RRO at any time before the suspension ends.
- (7) If the Board suspends an RRO, it may cancel the suspension at any time before the suspension ends.
- (8) If the case of a prisoner is referred to the Board, the Board may vary the suspension period of or cancel the CEO's suspension order, or cancel the RRO.

[62. Deleted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 47.]

63. Cancellation of RRO by Board

- (1) The Board may cancel an RRO at any time during the period of the order.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1) or affecting the operation of section 67 the Board may cancel an RRO if, during the period of the order, the prisoner is charged with or is convicted of an offence.

[64. Deleted: No. 41 of 2006 s. 48.]

- (a) the degree of risk (having regard to any likelihood of the prisoner committing a terrorism offence if subject to an early release order and the likely nature and seriousness of any such offence) that the release of the prisoner would appear to present to the personal safety of people in the community or of any individual in the community;

Division 3 — Consequences of suspension and cancellation

68. Suspension, effect of

- (2) If a parole order in respect of a prisoner serving life imprisonment is suspended, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the sentence in custody.
- (3) The suspension of an early release order ceases at the end of the suspension period or when, before then, the suspension is cancelled.
- (4) When the suspension of an early release order ceases, the early release order and any other early release order taken to be suspended again have effect unless during the period of suspension the early release order was itself cancelled.

[Section 68 amended: No. 29 of 2008 s. 39(12).]

69. Cancellation, effect of

- (1) If an early release order in respect of a prisoner serving a fixed term is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the fixed term in custody and, subject to subsection (1b), is not entitled to be released until he or she has served the whole of that term.
- (1a) Subsection (1b) applies to a prisoner who resumes serving a fixed term in custody under subsection (1) if —

  - (b) the fixed term is not a parole term and was imposed on or before 30 August 2003.
- (1b) Subject to Part 2 Division 2, a prisoner to whom this subsection applies is entitled to be released when he or she has served two-thirds of the fixed term.
- (2) If a parole order in respect of a prisoner serving life imprisonment is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the sentence in custody.
- (3) If a parole order in respect of a prisoner serving indefinite imprisonment is cancelled after the prisoner is released under the order, the prisoner is then liable to resume serving the indefinite imprisonment in custody.
- (4) If a parole order in respect of a person referred to in section 27B(1) is cancelled after the person is released under the order, the person is liable to be again kept in strict or safe custody at the Governor's pleasure.
- (5) Subject to Division 4, this section does not prevent another early release order being made in respect of a prisoner.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, to calculate the length in days of two-thirds of a fixed term imposed on or before 30 August 2003 —
- (a) determine the date on which the term as imposed by the court began and will end, and then express the term as a number of days (T);
  - (b) then divide T by 3 and disregard any remainder;
  - (c) then subtract that result from T and add to the result the number of days of remission that the prisoner has been ordered to forfeit under the Prisons Act 1981 (if any).

[Section 69 amended: No. 41 of 2006 s. 49; No. 29 of 2008 s. 39(13).]

70. Returning prisoner to custody

- (1) When an early release order is suspended or cancelled, the warrant of commitment that relates to the sentence of imprisonment to which the early release order relates is again in force and the prisoner may be arrested and kept in custody under that warrant.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), if an early release order is suspended or cancelled as mentioned in subsection (1), a warrant to have the prisoner arrested and returned to custody may be issued, whenever necessary during the period of the order —
  - (a) by a Supreme Court judge or a District Court judge; or
  - (b) by the Board if it suspended or cancelled the order; or
  - (c) by the CEO if the CEO suspended the order.
- (3) If a warrant under subsection (2) is issued because of the suspension of an early release order, the prisoner may be arrested, whether under that warrant or under the warrant of commitment referred to in subsection (1), at any time during the period of the order.

- (4) Notwithstanding section 65 or 74, if a warrant under subsection (2) is issued because of the cancellation of an early release order, the prisoner may be arrested, whether under that warrant or under the warrant of commitment referred to in subsection (1), at any time —
- (a) during or after the period of the order; or
  - (b) after the date when, but for the cancellation of the order, the prisoner would have served or be taken to have served the term or terms to which the order relates.

- (b) the period (if any) beginning on the day when the order is suspended and ending on the day when the prisoner is returned to custody does not count as time served in respect of the fixed term.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the day when an early release order is cancelled is —
  - (a) if it is cancelled by a decision of the Board — the day of the decision; or
  - (b) if it is cancelled by virtue of section 67 or 67A —
    - (i) the day when the offence that resulted in the charge or conviction was committed; or
    - (ii) the day when the prisoner became subject to the interim control order or confirmed control order; or
    - (iii) the day when the interim control order or confirmed control order was sought in respect of the prisoner; or
    - (iv) the day when the Board’s decision that resulted in the cancellation was made.
