Notwithstanding however any direction heretofore given or which shall hereafter be given by the Commissioner to bring land under the operation either of The Transfer of Land Act 1874, or of this Act he may after sending to the applicant or his agent one month's notice in this behalf rescind such direction and reject the title unless the applicant shall adduce satisfactory proof that he is proceeding without unnecessary delay in removing or complying with the requisitions made on the title.

On any application to bring land under this Act on a title claimed by possession the applicant shall post on the land the subject of the application or at such place as the Commissioner shall direct a notice in the form in the Third Schedule either accurately describing or necessarily including the land claimed by possession and shall keep the same so posted for not less than 21 days prior to the day limited for entry of caveat; and the Commissioner may refuse to create the certificate until it has been proved to his satisfaction that the requirements of this section have been complied with.

[Section 24 amended by No. 81 of 1996 s. 10.]

25. Land to be brought under this Act unless caveat received

If before the registration of the certificate the Registrar shall not have received a caveat forbidding the same he shall bring the land under this Act by registering in the name of the applicant or in the name of such person as may have been directed in that behalf a certificate of title, in an approved form, to the land.

[Section 25 amended by No. 17 of 1950 s. 11; No. 81 of 1996 s. 11.]

27. Applications to bring land under this Act or to amend certificate may be granted as to land occupied under but not described in title deeds or certificate

On any application to bring land under this Act by a description different from that in the muniments of title or for the amendment of a certificate or for the amendment or replacement of a relevant graphic the Commissioner may grant the same as to the land in the occupation of the applicant if the discrepancy between the land as occupied and as described in the muniments or certificate of title or relevant graphic shall appear to be due to the inaccuracy of any survey or plan or description on the sale of the land by the Crown or on any subsequent dealing therewith or to any discrepancy between the actual measurements or bearings at any time made or marked on the ground and those represented or mentioned in any plan or description.

[Section 27 amended by No. 81 of 1996 s. 12; No. 6 of 2003 s. 10.]

28. Title may be given to excess of land occupied under Crown grant over land described in Crown grant

If the land included in any application to bring land under this Act or for an amended certificate or for the amendment or replacement of a relevant graphic consist of a Crown town or suburban allotment or country location and it shall be found by survey or otherwise that by reason of erroneous measurements in the original Crown survey the actual dimensions of such section allotment or portion as marked on the ground exceed or fall short of the dimensions given in the Crown grant or certificate of title or relevant graphic of such land the Commissioner may direct the Registrar to create and register a certificate in respect of such land as if the dimensions marked on the ground had been the dimensions given in the Crown grant or certificate of title and to amend or replace, if necessary, any relevant graphic.

[Section 28 amended by No. 81 of 1996 s. 13; No. 31 of 1997 s. 95; No. 6 of 2003 s. 11.]

Where land has been subdivided by the Crown into allotments or portions of equal area and by reason of erroneous measurements in the original Crown survey the area of the section as marked on the ground exceeds the sum of the areas of all the allotments or portions as shown by any plan or description used at the Crown sale or by any grant or certificate of title or on any relevant graphic of any such allotment or portion the total excess of area of the section shall be deemed originally distributable amongst the allotments or portions equally; and if the area of the land included in any application to bring land under this Act or for an amended certificate or for the amendment or replacement of a relevant graphic is in the applicant's possession and was in such applicant's possession or those through whom he claims for over 12 years previous to the application and does not exceed the area obtained by dividing the area of the section as shown on the ground by the number of original allotments or portions the Commissioner may without ascertaining the dimensions of the other allotments or portions and without the consent of the owner or owners thereof direct the Registrar to create and register a certificate in respect of the land included in such application as if the whole of it had been included by metes and bounds in the original grant or certificate of title and to amend or replace, if necessary, any relevant graphic.

Any person claiming any estate or interest in the land described in the advertisement may in person or by agent before the registration of the certificate lodge a caveat with the Registrar in an approved form forbidding the bringing of such land under this Act. Every such caveat shall be signed by the caveator or by his agent and shall particularise the estate or interest claimed; and the Registrar may by notice require any person lodging such caveat to support the same by a statutory declaration within 7 days after the service of such notice stating the nature of the title under which the claim is made and also to deliver a perfect abstract of the title to such estate or interest. Unless such declaration be lodged within the time aforesaid the caveat shall lapse. A caveat under this section cannot be lodged unless it contains an address, or a number for a facsimile machine, in Australia for the service of notices in relation to the caveat.

31. If caveat received, proceedings suspended

The Registrar upon receipt of such caveat shall notify the same to the applicant and shall suspend proceeding in the matter until such caveat shall have been withdrawn or shall have lapsed as in this Act provided or until an order in the matter shall have been obtained from the Supreme Court or a judge. The applicant may if he think fit summon the caveator to attend before the Supreme Court or a judge in chambers to show cause why such caveat should not be removed; and such court or judge may upon proof that such caveator has been summoned make such order in the premises either ex parte or otherwise as to such court or judge may seem fit.

32. Caveat to lapse unless proceedings taken within one month

After the expiration of one month from the receipt thereof such caveat shall be deemed to have lapsed unless the person by whom or on whose behalf the same was lodged shall within that time have taken proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to establish his title to the estate or interest specified in the caveat and shall have given written notice thereof to the Registrar or shall have obtained and served on him an injunction or order of the Supreme Court or a judge restraining him from bringing the land under this Act. A caveat shall not be renewed by or on behalf of the same person in respect of the same estate or interest.

33. Judge may require production of title deeds in support of application to bring land under this Act

All applications to be made to a judge under this section may be made by summons in chambers by the applicant owner or by the person in whose name a certificate of title would be created if the application were to be successful.

[Section 33 amended by No. 81 of 1996 s. 16.]

34. Applicant may withdraw application

An applicant may withdraw his application at any time prior to the registration of the certificate; and the Registrar shall in such case return to the applicant or to the person appearing by the application to be entitled thereto all evidences of title lodged in support of the application; but in such case if a caveator shall have been put to expense without sufficient cause by reason of such application he shall be entitled to receive from the applicant such compensation as a judge on a summons in chambers shall deem just and order.

35. Documents of title

Upon registering a certificate of title the Registrar shall retain in his custody and possession all grants and instruments evidencing the title of the person registered and shall endorse upon the last of them if there be more than one a memorandum that the land included in the certificate has been brought under this Act and shall sign such memorandum. Provided always that if any of such grants or instruments relate to any property other than the land included in such certificate the Registrar shall return such grant or instrument to the person from whom he received the same. No person shall be entitled to an inspection of any of such instruments except upon the written order of the person who originally deposited the same or of some person claiming through or under him or upon the order of a judge or of the Commissioner. No action or suit at law or in equity shall be brought or maintained upon any covenant or agreement for the production of the documents which shall be so retained or upon any agreement to give or enter into a covenant for the production thereof; and if any such action or suit shall be commenced it shall be a sufficient answer thereto that such documents have been retained under this Act.

The application may be made by persons having such estates and interests in the leasehold land as are similar or correspondent to the estates and interests of the persons entitled to apply to bring freehold land under this Act. Every certificate of title to leasehold land shall always be subject to the rights and powers of the lessor or his representative and of any person entitled to the inheritance in the land immediately expectant on the term as well as to the encumbrances hereinafter mentioned as not requiring special notification. The several provisions of this Act with respect to freehold land shall apply to leasehold and with such variations only as the difference in the nature of such property requires or as may be necessary to render such provisions applicable to leaseholds for years.

43. Certain memorials to be sufficient evidence of conveyances in fees

A memorial of any release conveyance or reconveyance registered under any Ordinance or Act concerning the registration of deeds relating to or affecting land may for the purpose of bringing land under this Act be deemed by the Commissioner sufficient evidence of the deed referred to being a conveyance in fee simple of the lands described in such memorial unless the contrary can reasonably be inferred from the prior or subsequent title or from something appearing on the face of such memorial.

Part V — Caveats

136K. Meaning of “section 138A caveat” and application of this Part

- (1) In sections 138B to 138D, “section 138A caveat” has the meaning given by section 138A.
- (2) The provisions of sections 138A to 138D are in addition to, and are not to be read as limiting the operation of —
 - (a) the other provisions of this Act in relation to caveats; and
 - (b) a person’s entitlement, if any, to apply for an injunction in relation to a caveat.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4) and to section 20 of the Land Administration Act 1997, this Part applies to caveats in respect of Crown land.
- (4) Sections 138(3) and (4) and 141A do not apply to caveats lodged under section 21 of the Land Administration Act 1997.

[Section 136K inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 82; amended by No. 31 of 1997 s. 116; No. 59 of 2004 s. 140.]

137. Lodgment of caveat where land already under this Act

- (1) Any beneficiary or other person claiming any estate or interest in land under the operation of this Act or in any lease mortgage or charge under any unregistered instrument document or writing or under any equitable mortgage or charge by deposit without writing or by devolution in law or otherwise may lodge a caveat with the Registrar in an approved form forbidding the registration of any person as transferee or proprietor of and of any instrument affecting such estate or interest either absolutely or until after notice of the intended registration or dealing be given to the caveator or unless such instrument be expressed to be subject to the claim of the caveator as may be required in such caveat. Every such caveat shall state the name and address of the person by whom or on whose behalf the same is lodged and (except in case of a caveat lodged by order of the Supreme Court or by the Registrar pursuant to the direction of the Commissioner as hereinafter provided) shall be signed by the caveator or by his agent. The person lodging such caveat shall if required by the Registrar support the same by statutory declaration stating the nature of the estate or interest claimed and the title thereto and may withdraw any such caveat. If such declaration when required by the Registrar be not lodged with him within 7 days from the date of such requisition the caveat shall be absolutely null and void. A caveat under this section cannot be lodged unless it contains an address, or a number for a facsimile machine, in Australia for the service of notices in relation to the caveat.

- (2) A person claiming an interest in a proposed carbon right, carbon covenant or plantation interest may, before the relevant carbon right form, carbon covenant form or tree plantation agreement is registered, lodge a caveat under subsection (1) as if the person were claiming an interest in land.

[Section 137 amended by 60 Vict. No. 22 s. 4; No. 17 of 1950 s. 38; No. 81 of 1996 s. 83 and 146(1); No. 56 of 2003 s. 17.]

138. Consequences of lodgment of caveat

- (1) Upon receipt of such caveat the Registrar shall notify the same to the person against whose application to be registered as proprietor or (as the case may be) to the proprietor against whose title to deal with the estate or interest such caveat has been lodged or the judgment creditor named in any property (seizure and sale) order registered under section 133 in respect of the judgment debtor's saleable interest in such land.
- (2) Any such applicant, proprietor or judgment creditor, or any person claiming under any transfer or other instrument signed by the proprietor may if he think fit summon the caveator to attend before the Supreme Court or a judge in chambers to show cause why such caveat should not be removed; and such court or judge may upon proof that such caveator has been summoned make such order in the premises either ex parte or otherwise as to such court or judge may seem fit.

- (3) Except in the case of a caveat lodged by or on behalf of a beneficiary claiming under any will or settlement or by the Registrar pursuant to the direction of the Commissioner every caveat lodged against a proprietor shall be deemed to have lapsed as to the land affected by the transfer or other dealing upon the expiration of 14 days after notice served on the caveator that such proprietor has applied for the registration of a transfer or other dealing unless in the meantime such application is withdrawn.
- (4) A caveat shall not be renewed by or on behalf of the same person in respect of the same estate or interest except subject to the state of the Register at the time of the renewal of such caveat; but if before the expiration of the said period of 14 days or such further period as shall be specified in any order made under this section the caveator or his agent appears before a judge and gives such undertaking or security or lodges such sum in court as such judge may consider sufficient to indemnify every person against any damage that may be sustained by reason of any disposition of the property being delayed then and in such case such judge may direct the Registrar to delay registering any dealing with the land lease mortgage or charge for a further period to be specified in such order or may make such other order as may be just.

[Section 138 amended by No. 17 of 1950 s. 39; No. 81 of 1996 s. 145(1); No. 59 of 2004 s. 139.]

138A. Caveats to which sections 138B to 138D apply

A caveat that has not been lodged —

- (a) under section 30, 176 or 223A;
- (b) by or on behalf of a beneficiary claiming under a will or settlement;

- (c) under a court order;
- (d) by the Registrar on the direction of the Commissioner;
- (e) under any written law other than this Act;
- (f) under any Commonwealth Act; or
- (g) by or on behalf, or with the consent, of the Minister for Lands, is a caveat for the purposes of sections 138B to 138D.

[Section 138A inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 84.]

138B. Certain caveats may lapse unless justified by caveator

- (1) If a section 138A caveat has been lodged then the proprietor of the land in respect of which the caveat was lodged, or the judgment creditor named in a property (seizure and sale) order registered under section 133 in respect of the judgment debtor's saleable interest in such land, may apply, in an approved form and on payment of the prescribed fee, for the Registrar to serve the caveator with a notice to the effect that, unless the caveator takes the action referred to in subsection (2) within 21 days after the day on which the notice is served, the caveat will lapse.
- (2) If the notice referred to in subsection (1) is served on the caveator then the caveat lapses 21 days after the day on which the notice was served unless, before that time, the caveator has —
 - (a) obtained from the Supreme Court an order extending the operation of the caveat —
 - (i) for such further period as is specified in the order; or
 - (ii) until the further order of the court;
 - and
 - (b) lodged with the Registrar a copy of the order.

[Section 138B inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 84; amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 140.]

s. 138C

138C. Powers of Supreme Court

- (1) A caveator who is served with a notice under section 138B(1) may apply to the Supreme Court, in accordance with rules of the court, for an order extending the operation of the caveat.
- (2) On the hearing of an application under subsection (1), the Supreme Court —
 - (a) if satisfied that the caveator's claim has or may have substance —
 - (i) may make an order extending the operation of the caveat for such period as is specified in the order;
 - (ii) may make an order extending the operation of the caveat until the further order of the court; or
 - (iii) may make such other orders as it thinks fit concerning the caveat or the land in respect of which the caveat was lodged;
 - (b) if not satisfied that the caveator's claim has or may have substance, shall dismiss the application; and
 - (c) may make such ancillary orders in relation to the application as it thinks fit.
- (3) An interim order under this section may be made ex parte unless the court orders otherwise.
- (4) The applicant shall ensure that the Registrar is served with a copy of each order made by the court on an application under subsection (1).

[Section 138C inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 84.]

138D. Restrictions on further lodgment of certain caveats

- (1) If a section 138A caveat —
 - (a) is withdrawn after a notice under section 138B(1) is served on the caveator but before the caveat could lapse under section 138B(2);

- (b) has lapsed under section 138B(2); or
- (c) no longer has effect because of the operation of an order made, or a dismissal, under section 138C by the Supreme Court, then the caveator cannot lodge with the Registrar any further section 138A caveat in respect of the same land unless —

- (d) the consent of the proprietor to do so and, if the notice issued under section 138B(1) was issued on the application of a judgment creditor, the consent of the judgment creditor to do so are endorsed on the further caveat; or
 - (e) the Supreme Court has made an order giving leave for the lodgment of the further caveat and a copy of that order has been served on the Registrar.
- (2) If a caveat has been withdrawn before a notice under section 138B(1), if any, is served on the caveator then nothing in subsection (1) prevents the caveator from lodging a further section 138A caveat in respect of the same land.

[Section 138D inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 84; amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 140.]

139. No entry to be made in Register affecting land in respect to which caveat continues in force

- (1) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding subsection except in the cases provided by section 142 so long as any caveat shall remain in force prohibiting any registration or dealing the Registrar shall not enter in the Register any change in the proprietorship of or any transfer or other instrument purporting to transfer or otherwise deal with or affect the estate or interest in respect to which such caveat may be lodged.
- (2) Where an instrument is presented for registration and a caveat is lodged after the time of the presentation of the instrument, the caveat shall not have the effect of preventing registration of the instrument but the caveat shall take effect as if lodged after registration of the instrument.

[Section 139 amended by No. 17 of 1950 s. 40; No. 81 of 1996 s. 145(1).]

140. Compensation for lodging caveat without reasonable cause

Any person lodging any caveat with the Registrar either against bringing land under this Act or otherwise without reasonable cause shall be liable to make to any person who may have sustained damage thereby such compensation as a judge on a summons in chambers shall deem just and order.

141. Endorsing certificates as to, and sending copies of, caveats

(1) Where —

- (a) a caveat is lodged under section 137; or
- (b) a caveat lapses, whether because of the effect of a provision of this Act or the operation of an order of the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall enter a memorandum of the caveat or the lapse of the caveat, as the case requires, on the certificate of title for the land in respect of which the caveat was lodged.

(2) A copy of a caveat lodged under section 137 or of so much of the caveat as the Registrar thinks is material to the person to be notified under section 138 shall be sent with the notification under section 138.

[Section 141 inserted by No. 81 of 1996 s. 85.]

141A. Removal of caveat where interest protected has ceased to exist

(1) Where it appears to the Commissioner that the estate or interest claimed by any caveator has ceased to exist, he may, either of his own motion or on the application of any person claiming any interest in the land or on the application of the judgment creditor named in a property (seizure and sale) order registered under section 133 in respect of the judgment debtor's estate or interest in such land, serve the caveator with notice requiring him within 14 days from the date of such notice to withdraw such caveat or within such time to commence proceedings in court to substantiate his claim, and in the event of the caveator failing to comply with the requirements of such notice within the time therein limited, or to comply with subsection (1a), the Commissioner may direct the Registrar to remove such caveat from the Register and forward notice of such removal to the caveator.

- (1a) If a caveator commences proceedings in court to substantiate his claim under this section, he shall —
- (a) within the 14 days referred to in subsection (1); or
 - (b) within 2 days after commencing proceedings, whichever time expires later, serve the Registrar with notice that the proceedings have been commenced.

- (2) In any proceedings by a caveator to substantiate his claim under this section, he shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge, join as parties the Registrar of Titles, the registered proprietor and any other person or persons affected by the existence of such caveat.

[Section 141A inserted by No. 17 of 1950 s. 41; amended by No. 81 of 1996 s. 86 and 145(1); No. 24 of 2000 s. 42(1) and (2); No. 59 of 2004 s. 140.]

142. Caveat on behalf of beneficiary under will or settlement does not bar registration in certain cases

Where a caveat has been lodged by or on behalf of a beneficiary claiming under a will or settlement and a change in the proprietorship of or a transfer or other dealing with or affecting the land estate or interest in respect of which the caveat was lodged is presented for registration the same may notwithstanding section 139 be registered without the caveat being withdrawn and without determining the operation of the caveat provided the Commissioner is of opinion that such change of proprietorship or such transfer or other dealing is authorised by the will or settlement and the caveator either consents to the registration or does not lodge a written protest against such registration within 14 days after being served with notice as such caveator.

Part VI — Powers of attorney and attestation of instruments

143. Powers of attorney and revocation thereof

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section the proprietor of any land under the operation of this Act or of any lease mortgage or charge may appoint any person to act for him in transferring the same or otherwise dealing therewith by signing a power of attorney in the form in the Nineteenth Schedule or to the effect thereof. Every such power may be filed by lodging the original instrument of power of attorney, a duplicate, an office copy referred to in the *Powers of Attorney Act 1896*¹¹, or a copy certified by the Commissioner for Corporate Affairs to be a true copy of a power of attorney recorded pursuant to the *Companies (Western Australia) Code*¹², the *Companies Act 1961*¹³, or any corresponding previous enactment with the Registrar who shall note the effect of the same in a book to be kept for that purpose and such power shall be in force from the time of noting until the registration of a revocation or extinguishment thereof.
- (2) Where a power of attorney is filed within a period of 3 months from the day shown as that on which it was executed, the Registrar may presume that it is in force at the time of filing, unless a revocation has been previously registered.
- (3) The provisions of the last preceding subsection shall not be construed so as to affect the force of a power of attorney filed at any time after the lapse of the period of 3 months referred to in the last preceding subsection.
- (4) Nothing contained in this Act or in any other written law precludes the Registrar from requiring evidence to his satisfaction that a power of attorney is not revoked.
- (5) Subject to any other written law —
 - (a) the holder of an interest in Crown land may appoint a person to act for him in dealing with that interest; or

s. 144

- (b) the management body of a reserve may appoint a person to act for it in dealing with Crown land within that reserve, and shall, if he or it does so, file the necessary power of attorney under this section.

signature of the party is proved to his satisfaction by a statutory declaration of a person who knows the party and the party's signature.

Provisions that have not come into operation

Short title	Number and year	Assent	Commencement
Transfer of Land Amendment Act 2003 s. 43, 46, 56 and 57 ²³	6 of 2003 (as amended by No. 60 of 2006 s. 164)	25 Mar 2003	To be proclaimed (see s. 2)
Acts Amendment (Justice) Act 2008 Pt. 24 ²⁴	5 of 2008	31 Mar 2008	To be proclaimed (see s. 2(d))

² Repealed by the Land Act 1933 which was repealed by the Land Administration Act 1997.

³ The Land Valuers Licensing Act 1978 came into operation on 1 July 1979.

⁴ The Transfer of Land Amendment Act 1996 s. 6(2) reads as follows:

- (2) Section 10 of the principal Act as it was in effect immediately before the commencement of subsection (1) continues to have effect in relation to any document or its duplicate and to any memorandum or entry that was sealed, signed, or initialled before that commencement.

- (2) If the alienation of Crown land has resulted in the delivery of the grant in fee simple to the Registrar under section 18 of the principal Act, but the Registrar has not created and registered a certificate of title for the land under that section before the commencement of this section, that creation and registration may be completed as if that section had not been repealed.

⁶ The Acts Amendment (Land Administration) Act 1997 s. 94(2) reads as follows:

- (2) Section 19 of the principal Act continues to apply to each grant in fee to 2 or more persons in joint tenancy for any public purpose, which grant was in existence immediately before the repeal of that section, as if that section had not been repealed.

⁷ Repealed by the Trustees Act 1962.

⁸ The Transfer of Land Amendment Act 1996 s. 37(3) reads as follows:

- (3) Section 65 of and the Ninth Schedule to the principal Act as in force immediately before the commencement of subsection (1) continue to apply to all transfers, leases and certificates of title in effect before that commencement on which an easement was marked in accordance with those provisions.

⁹ Under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 departments may be changed. At the date of this compilation the department of the Public Service principally assisting in the administration of the Transfer of Land Act 1893 (formerly the Department of Lands and Surveys) is known as the Western Australian Land Information Authority.

¹⁰ The Acts Amendment (Land Administration) Act 1997 s. 104(2) reads as follows:

- (2) A lease of Crown land (not being a Crown lease) granted before the commencement of this section, which lease would have been valid had it been granted as a lease under the Land Administration Act 1997, is validated by force of this subsection and is to be treated as if it were a lease registered under section 81Q of the principal Act as amended by this Act.

¹¹ Repealed by the Property Law Act 1969.

¹² In respect of matters arising after 1 January 1991, the operation of the Companies (Western Australia) Code is subject to the provisions of Division 2 of Part 13 of the Corporations (Western Australia) Act 1990. That Division contains a number of transitional provisions that can affect how references to former laws may be read. The Code and Corporations Law were superseded by the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth on 15 Jul 2001.

¹³ Superseded by the Companies (Applications of Laws) Act 1981 which was superseded by the Corporations (Western Australia) Act 1990. See also note 12.

¹⁴ Now known as the Transfer of Land Act 1893; short title changed (see note under s. 1).

¹⁵ This Act is to be read as one with the Transfer of Land Act 1893 as amended by the Transfer of Land Act Amendment Act 1950.

¹⁶ This Act is to be read as one with the Transfer of Land Act 1893 as amended by the Transfer of Land Act Amendment Act 1944 (No. 28 of 1944) s. 3 and the Transfer of Land Act Amendment Act 1950 (No. 17 of 1950) s. 75.

17 The purported amendment by the Transfer of Land Act Amendment Act 1950 s. 75 is not included because the section it sought to amend had already been amended by s. 32.

18 The Transfer of Land Act Amendment Act 1950 provides as follows:

75. Revision of certain of the provisions of the amending Acts

- (1) By way of revision, for the purpose of reprinting, the provisions of the amending Acts are amended to the extent specified in the Schedule to this Act.
- (2) The provisions of the last preceding subsection shall not be construed so as to affect the provisions of the Amendments Incorporation Act 1938.

19 Section 48A and the Second Schedule were inserted by the Limitation Act Amendment Act 1954 s. 8.

20 The Schedule to the Metric Conversion Act 1972 was redesignated as the First Schedule by the Metric Conversion Act Amendment Act 1973.

21 The Transfer of Land Amendment Act 1996 s. 152 reads as follows:

152. Savings and transitional in relation to the assurance fund

- (1) In this section —
“commencement” means the day on which section 1 of this Act comes into operation.
- (2) The account called the “assurance fund” immediately before commencement is to be closed on commencement and the money that is in the account at the time when the account is being closed is to be credited to the Consolidated Fund.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not affect or prejudice the application of the Interpretation Act 1984 but a right, obligation or liability of, or in respect of, the assurance fund subsisting immediately before commencement becomes, on commencement, a right, obligation or liability of, or in respect of, the State in accordance with Part XI or XII of the principal Act, as the case requires.

²² The amendment in the Financial Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2006 s. 4 to amend s. 190 is not included because the section had been replaced by the Land Information Authority Act 2006 s. 115.

²³ On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the Transfer of Land Amendment Act 2003 s. 43, 46, 56 and 57 had not come into operation. They read as follows:

 - (b) is held by 2 or more proprietors as joint tenants or as tenants in common, and the proprietors of the freehold in the land (the “proprietors”) wish to subdivide the land between themselves only, they may apply to the Registrar under this section, instead of applying under

 - (d) the attachment or discharge of other registered interests and caveats affecting the land to or from lots (or part lots as shown on a graphic) on the plan or diagram referred to in subsection (2)(a).
- (4) Section 166(3) and (6) apply to an application under this section as if the references to the plan or diagram were references to the plan or diagram referred to in subsection (2)(a) and the Registrar may endorse the new certificates of title for the land that is the subject of the application and take such other action in relation to the Register or any graphic as is required to give effect to the application and requests in the disposition statement.
- (5) The Registrar is not to grant an application under this section if —

 - (b) each person who has a registered interest in the land and each caveator in relation to the land consents to the person's interest or caveat being allocated in accordance with the disposition statement on the subdivision.
- (7) On registration of the certificates of title for the land that is the subject of an application under this section —
 - (a) every lot that is enlarged or diminished under the plan or diagram referred to in subsection (2)(a) is, by operation of law, subject to each encumbrance, caveat, notification or memorial allocated to it in the disposition statement to the extent provided in the disposition statement; and
 - (b) every such encumbrance, caveat, notification and memorial is deemed to be amended accordingly.
