3. Section nine B of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted with amendments, as follows—

Tuition fees at efficient schools to be subsidised.

9B. (1) The Treasurer of the State shall in every year, commencing with the year nineteen hundred and sixty-eight, place at the disposal of the Minister, in addition to the moneys referred to in section nine A of this Act, such moneys as will enable the Minister to pay to every efficient school at which fees are payable for the tuition of its scholars, the amounts specified in subsection (2) of this section in respect of the scholars specified in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the amounts payable are—

- (a) in the case of a scholar who is in any year of a course of primary education, ten dollars per annum;
- (b) in the case of a scholar who is in the first, second or third year of a course of secondary education, thirty dollars per annum; and
- (c) in the case of a scholar who is in the fourth or fifth year of a course of secondary education, thirty-six dollars per annum, and those amounts shall, in every year commencing with the year nineteen hundred and sixty-eight, be paid to efficient schools at such times, in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Minister determines by regulations made by him under this Act.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, amounts are payable under this section to an efficient school in respect of every scholar—

- (a) who is engaged in a course of primary or secondary education at that school;
  - (b) who has attained, or will attain during the year for which payment under this section is sought, the age of six years;
  - (c) who has not attained the age of nineteen years; and
  - (d) who, being a resident of the State, has a parent or guardian also a resident of the State, or who, being a resident of the State but not having a parent or guardian so resident, is determined by the Minister to be a scholar for the purposes of this subsection. .
