

NATIVES (CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS) (No. 2).

13° Elizabeth II., No. LXXXII.

No. 82 of 1964.

AN ACT to amend the Natives (Citizenship Rights) Act, 1944-1958, to provide for the issue of Certificates of Citizenship to persons whose names as children of their responsible parents are included in Certificates of Citizenship granted or issued to those parents and who have become of full age; and for that purpose also to amend sections six and nine of that Act.

[Assented to 14th December, 1964.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Natives (Citizenship Rights) Act Amendment Act (No. 2), 1964.

(2) In this Act the Natives (Citizenship Rights) Act, 1944-1958, is referred to as the principal Act.

2. The principal Act is amended by adding after section five the following section—

Persons named as children in Certificates of Citizenship entitled to such a Certificate at majority.

5A. (1) A person whose name as a child of his responsible parent is, pursuant to subsection (5) of section five of this Act, included in a Certificate of Citizenship granted to that parent under this Act, is entitled upon attaining the age of twenty-one years to a Certificate of Citizenship under this Act, which Certificate shall be available from the Superintendent in the district in which he ordinarily resides.

(2) The Superintendent, upon being satisfied of the identity of the person with the child whose name is included in the Certificate of Citizenship, shall without further enquiry thereupon issue under his hand a Certificate of Citizenship in the prescribed form to that person, which Certificate shall provide for the signature of that person.

(3) In this section "Superintendent" means any person for the time being holding an office of Superintendent in the Department of Native Welfare established under the Native Welfare Act, 1963.
