of ordinary
revenue.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of section three hundred and thirty-five of the Road Districts Act, 1919, or of section four hundred and eighty of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1906, which provisions limit expenditure for certain purposes to a sum not exceeding three per centum of the ordinary revenue mentioned in those sections, councils of municipalities and boards of road districts are authorised with the approval of the Minister to expend from their ordinary revenue, such sums as they think fit for purposes connected with the preliminary arrangements for and the holding of The VII British Empire and Commonwealth Games in Perth in this State in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.
